WE SURVIVED '86! How about you? After the monumental effort of getting that first issue out to you guys, as you readers know, we suffered a massive fire. Save for the computer floppy discs and my butt, the office and countless pictures were lost. Man-Age Studios was 99 percent cremated. CHAMPION took a 75 percent loss to water. Associate Editor Bill Spenser lost his apartment and returned to Florida. And I lost absolutely all I possessed in the world. It has taken months to recover enough to begin again through severe depression and shock.

We're sorry to say we couldn't have been quicker than we were. The rebuilding of the basics, like buying an new computer; going over the floppies that survived; getting a new office, had to be in place to begin. CHAMPION had to go painstakingly through soaked boxes to salvage priceless slides & negatives and perform museum quality resortation work. By the time the work on this issue could begin we were past deadline.

As if this weren't bad enough word reached us that AIDS claimed the life of my treasured friend GLENN M. TURNER. He had gone through an elaborate guise for some time to hide his illness, claiming drug use for his great weight loss. While he had lead us to believe he had lost interest in his creation STARS as we saw it fall apart, he had in fact been told of his condition and couldn't deal with the magazine continuing minus its soul. In '83 Glenn had come to NYC to visit and we did an interview for a project I was trying to find a backer for, OUTCOME. We talked for two hours on every subject from his teen years as a messenger in Evelyn Lincoln's office in President Kennedy's White House to the life & times of Estelle Winwood. I listened to the tape while making a copy for his brother the night before the fire. I sat there remembering what a joy he was to be with, absolutely filled with life and endless trivia. I was struck by his discussion of his plans for the cover of the 100th issue of STARS (himself nude debuting the famous Turner Bird). He wanted to die of old age at his desk. Too many evening's in the Mineshaft's tub, in bath house cubicles, somewhere within a odd self destruct and the dream ended. He had to live without restraints, even those which could have saved his life, or life wasn't worth living. Nothing in moderation. I grabbed him for OC upon his return and enjoyed wonderful talks as he helped in the subscription drive - signing thousands of letters, wrote interviews and texts (like his most asinine editorial), and made me crazy. He was too thin (Glenn and thin had never been used together), tired easily, slept too much - like during conversations, & wasn't all there. He left before OC went to press and began disengaging from family and friends. He died with only his daughter and ex-wife by him. No obit was sent out, no friends notified. His brother found out just in time to see his ashes. He didn't let us say farewell, demonstrate our affection. Forced his beloved readership to revile him. Deeply hurt his brothers and sister. And I still reach for the phone automaticly in crisis or joy to share it but the light is gone.

Brightly we have for you two of the Man-Age pieces (David Ashfield and Joey Caspar) promised but minus many of the planned shots. CHAMPION has given us the debut work on their last model,GREG MacMANN, plus incredable basket pix and ass shots and a tribute to ROD BAUER. Why don't they make them like this anymore? The PORNO PRIEST discusses his mission and his videos. Spray Photos of Illinois debuts with hot new video star MO, no not Howard. plus lots more. But you can find out all this plus lots more after you turn the page!

Baring Judgement Day and despite anything else the Fates have to throw at us we'll be back in a couple months with issue three of the magazine only Irwin Allen could have conceived of.

OUTCOME Volume 1, Number 2 Copyright© 1987 by MAN-AGE Press. Published bi-monthly (6 issue subscription $36.00) by MAN-AGE Press 132 West 24th Street, Suite 320, New York, NY, 10011-1902. M O

Tinkering with cars and motorcycles and dreaming of the good life after winning the lottery best highlight this 19 year old. While not a physical fitness nut, 200 pushups each evening keep him in top physical shape. MO sports a 36in. chest and a 28in. waist and this is almost perfect for his 5ft.4 frame. He has an 18in. thigh, 13in. calf and a 12in. bicept. Mo is an Illinois native, born on July 1, 1967, and has several brothers and sisters. He works at continuing his education during his free time and regrets dropping out.

It has been said there is something in the Illinois water that causes 'em to grow big in Illinois and Mo's 10½ in. penis measures right up there with the best of 'em.

Mo's layout marks the debut of a new studio, SPRAY Photos, whom we welcome. They are always looking for new models and offer prints for sale – though no photo sets. Write them at: POB 433, Clinton, IL 61727. Mo's video debut is with VIDEO STAR PRODUCTIONS. You can write them direct for more info at POB 83 Vandalia, IL 62471. Be sure to mention OUTCOME.

THE TOM CATS

PHOTOS: COPYRIGHT 1987 JOHN BAUER

For you die-hard voyeurs (guys who want to die with a full hard while being frenched) a new outfit, TOM CAT VIDEO, is following in the tradition of Old Reliable to bring to the cathode hot young men stripping, beating off & telling you the intimate details of their lives. The pace could be picked up a piece but isn't nearly as slow as O.R. but then what is. The TOM CATS, are all extroverted guys between 18-28 who discuss their early sexual experiences, both normal and with girls (for those of you interested in deviant sex). They also reveal something of themselves whether talking or not which adds another dimension.

One of the the most interesting aspects of these videos is the videographer, Father John, who is a real honest-to-goodness catholic priest. The good father left the formal ministry in 1970 to teach Social Work at Montana State University. Eleven years later, after the funding for his teaching program was exhausted, he opened his first adult book store and really got into social work. He's since opened three additional stores in other cities all of which are named Ms. Kitty's. The Playboy Channel has done two features on him and an article has appeared in Chic magazine. Right now he's nearing completion of his autobio, Confessions of a Porno Priest, and is seeking a publisher.

Two years ago Father John got fed up with the contrived, cloned & contrite videos flooding the market and decided to try his hand at it. "I wanted to capture real people in real situations as they related to me and the camera," says Vatican City's pride and joy. "I got so turned on by the tapes that I decided to share them with some of my friends." Needless to say his flock grew & grew. When you watch the tapes you'll note that even the models can't take their eyes off the monitor, which is one small flaw. (When working with models NEVER have a monitor or mirror within view. They can't take their eyes off themselves—Heloise).

The subjects, all unknowns, do an interview with the Father to begin. He never seems to remember how they met as he always begins by asking them. They then get undressed with the camera zooming in for basket shots & nude closeups. Father John is always willing to get down on his knees & help out a Tom Cat with a little fluffing (this routine could really liven up Saturday confessions & get more people back into the church, Cardinal O'Connor please take note!) The tape is kept running without edits from start to finish, which averages one hour. The subjects are paid a portion of the purchase price of each tape sold. "Many of these young men have been pushed out of their families and made to feel negatively about themselves. It is amazing how this attitude changes after being videographed."

Father John sees himself as a minister to the millions out there who are sexually repressed. "I hope that the videos will make you feel good about yourself. True spirituality must be in accord with our basic biology. Thus, sexual repression is really anti-spiritual and very destructive." He feels that Gays, bi's and even more so straights, are all victims of the sexual repression exerted by religion, government, and the psychiatric industry.

As part of his ministry he has created the TOM CAT CLUB. The club has a newsletter which keeps members informed of the goings on of the Tom Cats (telling members what the guys are doing with their members so to speak), news of upcuming videos, & other news of interest. Says F.J.: "We'll let the club evolve according to the members' needs and interests." In mind are fan letters, phone sex with the Tom Cats or possibly a cruise with Tom Cats as hosts ala Colt Tours. "Won't you join us in celebration of our liberation?" OUTCOME readers can join up for $5.00 per year or get a free membership with the purchase of one or more videos! For more info, or if you are interested in becoming a Tom Cat write: Father John, E. 6311 Sprague, Spokane, WA 99212

RANTS & RAVES!

Column by Cox

I'd like to waste a few moments of your time with a bit of info on what OUTCOME is about. After the fire we sat down and made some plans. The first is that we ain't finished off that easily. We are a very small outfit with very limited resources which the fire took a toll of. We decided that if funds don't allow us to publish on our bi-monthly (every other month) schedule then we will publish as often as resources permit, for now. A funds shortage will not make us quit and vanish. We're hanging tough & in time we'll be on top.

On personals, we intend to hold the line on prices as long as possible to keep things affordable. We will not ever charge for pictures. They will run so long as they are reproducible & legal. Will will not refuse to run your address or phone, if that is what you desire and you sign the release. We will always welcome ads from small outfits trying to sell products. We want to help new businesses, not bleed them dry. And we pay the postage to confirm your ad. We don't charge you a fee! This is your forum. It's a positive alternative to bars & baths and we don't want it taken from you!

On small businesses, we want to encourage them since all that is creative and innovative comes from them. We are always open to ad exchanges for products and more than happy to do write ups and reviews (see the Sirco, Father Bauer, & George Roberts articles in this issue). What you are doing must be legal though!! We want OUTCOME to be the magazine of the new & possible as well as that which remembers our glorious past.

The process of rebuilding is slow & hard but we will make it.
MAN-AGE Studios, as you know, totally lost 99% of their years of work. All that survived was work which, luckily, had been at the photo lab. It ain't much. Some of that, such as Gary Wilde's final photo session, exists only as negatives. The studio operates by shooting slides which are converted to negs. Should the negs be lost or damaged they can be replaced from the slides. These sets in all likelihood will not be offered, or will be offered only as limited editions. The basis for their continuation is based on those sets which exist as slides. Check their ad in the back of this issue. If you don't see a model don't ask, it's gone! The same for magazines. They will continue on! It's going to take some years before they offer as much as they had. Don't lose faith.

We're sorry though to tell you that CHAMPION will NOT be continuing. After decades of creating the finest photography & discovering some of our most beloved stars he has decided to hang up his camera and retire. He had been considering this for some time but letters from you, his fans, kept him urged on. The fire & massive degree of work needed to recover the water-damaged slides and negs was just too much. There are things he's wanted to do which were impossible under the work load of running a studio. I hope you will join with us in wishing him every happiness!

MAN-AGE has exercised their option under a longstanding agreement to purchase the assets of CHAMP. No new work will be done under CHAMP's illustrious name. The 'CHAMPION COLLECTION' division has been set up to market the work that has survived. They will continue to offer the photo sets but intend also to begin offering the incredible physique work, which has been unavailable for years, in "portfolios" and large prints. They will also be offering color prints of STEVE MASTERS art work, which CHAMPION owned the rights to. I do stress to you though that CHAMPION per se no longer exists!
CHAMPION is now a division of MAN-AGE.
OUTCOME as always remains the source for CHAMP. We will continue to be the one & only magazine to publish this historic art!

Next topic: first I'll issue a disclaimer and warning to dispel my guilt at revealing to you the existence of the vile films described below. Let me warn you that reinacting these activities could endanger your health, as it did a former editor. Think before you act in the A.I.D.S. crisis. And let me move aside before you run me over to go out and buy them.

PISS PIG: The Movie. Well my favorite part was the new drink containing 60% juice & 40% wine. It's made in a well seasoned container & served fresh! Those of you into Golden Showers (wasn't that a Beatles song?) have no doubt poked your noses into Christine Rage's videos and noted interesting uses for plastic. I found in general terms of clarity and depth (two elements needed for the subjects to be right there in the room with you) SIRCO does a much better job. Film is best used to tell a story, since it adds realism to the unreal. Video captures almost a 3-D realism which is perfect for pure sex. Videographers have to realize this and plan proper lighting to get the depth, Rage rarely does. Though not a Falcon production this isn't a sloppy product. The video shows some thought in planning, generally good models, not ogres (though the guy in the gorilla suit with the shaved crotch comes real close), and a real love of the subject.

It starts out with a gent peeing in his jeans. Next cutie "Kid Billy", who the press notes say is SF's most popular hustler, makes his screen & WS debut urinating in his mouth with clear delight. The title performer I noted before, described as "a super hairy tubby straight Basque man" (but without Robin), goes wee-wee all over himself & even fills up condoms then drinks it down (Wayne County used to use them for costumes, now this guy shows how to use them to hold hot drinks. . . a message from the American Condom Assoc.). There is a scene with a "roman catholic priest" getting pissed on (for a change). All this plus lots more (piss a little, talk a little, piss a little, talk a little, piss, piss, piss, talk a lot, piss a little more).

Even if you're not into the scene this is an interesting "Mondo Kane"-ish exploration. And if you are into it this is one of the best presentations currently out. Sirco has a follow-up too, plus videos of a wide variety of fetish & kinky subject matter.

I'll now follow that up with the new video by KATSAM Productions, who not only sent me their tape but a neat Katsam cap!

MESS ($79.95 from Katsam Productions, 41 Bonaire Dr., Toms River, NJ 08757). Well, the title says it all, really. It should be sub-titled "What to do when the Tenants Complain". It begins with a member of the Tenants Assoc. dropping by to gripe about all the odd noises coming from this man's apt. He pushs his way in & make his self ta home, mindja. His host, sans Amy Vanderbilt's book, handcuffs & spanks him. He then substitutes strapping tape and begins smearing lard on the man's suit. From here he cuts off the guy's coat & puts eggs into the seat of his pants & paddles him. We then move to his spread-eagling Mr. T.A. on the bed nude, except for a dog collar—natch, to receive a body shave. An ass shave & spanking with whip, riding crop & paddle follow. Now comes the reason for the title, standing naked & shaved in the tub (and jerking off) he is covered with: pancake batter, maple syrup, eggs, flour, Spagettios & meatballs, (you guessed it) a pie in the face, whipped cream, chocolate pudding, blueberry pie filling & cherry pie filling. He is ordered to roll around in the "Mess" while the host gets the door. The new guest comes in & pees on Mr. T.A. and it ends with the fool jerking to climax.

What can I say that Julia Child hasn't said better! Clearly had Laurel & Hardy lived & gotten into porn this is the movie they would have collaborated with the Three Stooges on.

Quality was okay considering it wasn't brightly lit: this is within reason as it takes place in a dingy apt. The performers were into their roles & the scene so I'd have to say if you have a food fetish or a yen for a unique discipline & humiliation video you'll enjoy it. It isn't for everyone and I'm glad. We need more experimentation & work that isn't mainstream. Most important we need more SafSex videos that show the public the myriad of ways to have exciting sex without exchanging bodily fluids. Producers/Writers/Directors/Actors of this epic—Al Lirog & T.R. Witomski—deserve a round of applause (and a mop & pail).

You are all by now quite aware of the beliefs and ravings by "Crazy Eddy" Meese, who has soiled the office of Bobby Kennedy by making it the office of the Attorney Reichsfuhrer RR. He's issued directives that will have tax payers foot the bills for law enforcement officials who break the law if ordered to do so by superiors, something the Nuremburg Trials established as criminal & indefensible. And came up with what must be the police credo, I paraphrase: innocent people should have their rights protected, but anyone who is arrested isn't innocent. This is why we have & need the Miranda law. The law says people are presumed to be innocent until proven guilty. Law enforcement officials say everyone is guilty until they say otherwise, fuck the law & piss on the Constitution. The police uniform should be a black shirt.

Their fanatical and illogical attack on the erotic industry began with a "rigged" report. Here are the conclusions we want, now create facts to back it up. Of course it was praised by the Far Right & attacked by all decent human beings. To say that viewing nude people causes violence while Raygun praises "Rambo" and praises it as a great film is truly obscene.

Their current weapon is entrapment. Ads are placed in either legit publications—or ones they publish themselves—which encourage the public to break laws regarding minors. Those looking for minors deserve what they get. The concern is the unfortunate who writes something the police interpret "their way". Be very careful in what you write. In your mind "boys" means "guys". They've decided it means toddlers. They labor in the noble cause of headlines & promotions.

Take the time to write your Congressmen & Senators about Meese's antics and get out there to vote in all elections. The price of liberty is eternal vigilance, and we, the people, must be vigilant!

I'm sure you've seen his classified ad in a few publications. His name is George Roberts. He's 6ft. tall, 138 lbs., long blond hair, blue eyes, & 18 years old. He's basically straight & has a heavy clothing fetish. Although he never got to see the physique mags he's well on his way to reviving the art form.

When he sent in his personal ad we decided we had to check him out! So here he is in his own words:

I'm basically straight, just happen to have a fetish for certain clothing and a girl I live with who gets off on the same thing. I guess in high school I got started on this. The guys in gym or in the field mostly, wearing shorts, some with the ass ripped in spots to show their underwear or jockstrap. Also in the swim class, seeing all the fat asses in tight little swim briefs, girls asses too does it for me. Also being in a warm location one sees lots of skin, skimpy dress is common with teens here.

I get off good showing off with my red shorts & jock strap only, when in the store, or library. I give people a peek-a-boo look. Sort of bend to look at something and they see my jockstrap curing my ass, like I don't know it shows.

I got started selling my pix in an odd way. In High School word was out that a certain female teacher was paying some guys to let her take pictures of them in their swim briefs & nude ass shots. She was into spanking teen guys asses. So my name was recommended and I started selling, my pix that is. Next time I write I'll tell ya what I did with my girl at the drug store. WOW, we will do it again this summer!

George has promised to keep OUTCOME readers up-to-date on new photo sets and his activities. It's great to see a young man enterprising enough to start his own business and, like OUTCOME, revive an interest the truly erotic art of physique. For more info & samples send $10.00 to: Roberts, 1515 E. Sunnyslope, Phoenix, AZ, 85020 and be sure to mention OUTCOME!

STEP 3: PRINT THE CODE NUMBER OF THE ADVERTISER YOU WISH TO PLAY WITH IN THE CENTER OF THE ENVELOPE. THEN TAKE A BIGGER ENVELOPE & PUT IT INSIDE ALONG WITH $2.00 (cash, check, MO, or gold) & MAIL IT TO: MAN-AGE PRESS, Dept. C, 132 West 24th St., NYC,NY 10011. OUR TRUSTY COMPUTER PRINTS OUT A LABEL FOR THAT CODE NUMBER & CALLS ONE OF ITS HUMAN SLAVES TO MAIL IT OUT. IF FOR ANY REASON IT BOUNCES & WE FIND THE ADDRESS WAS CORRECT WE WILL RETURN THE LETTER TO YOU WITH A CREDIT SLIP.

NOTES: All kidding aside, don't lie about yourself, & especially don't send phony pictures. You can't hope to start any kind of relationship with lies. When he meets you in person he's bound to notice! Remember, what you like least about your bod might be what turns him on the most!

We strongly suggest you not run your home address or phone. Use a P.O. box or service if you don't want to go through us. You never know who or what may show up at your door some dark night!

When you run an address please don't list yourself as "Holder", "Boxholder", "Occupant", etc. By doing so the person replying runs the risk of his letter going to the wrong person & trouble occurring. By listing yourself by your initial(s) or last name or first name or nickname: something distinctive so that should you vacate the address the post office will not deliver the mail to the current occupant! A little consideration can save a lot of grief.

If you are selling a product (photo sets, videos, etc.) contact us about doing a write-up & ad exchange. We're always ready to help small outfits.

When you place an ad you'll be sent a confirmation letter. You MUST sign it & return it to us in the stamped enveloped provided in order for your ad to be run. It confirms you sent the ad & that all info is correct. If we have not received your confirmation by deadline your ad will not run!

We stress that in order to run your picture in your ad, you must sign the back & write 'OUTCOME' for legal reasons. B&W pix reproduce the best but if all you have is color a few tips: Avoid dark backgrounds: no one will see you. The lighter the background the better. Be sure the pic is well lit too. In converting the color pic to b&w what you see is not what you'll get. Shades of grey are all that show up. If in doubt send a couple prints & we'll select the best & return the rest. Also, if you want your picture returned include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

We will not accept any ad seeking minors. Nor will we accept any ad from anyone under 18 years of age. You must sign that you are over 18 years of age in order for your ad to be accepted. Father John presents . . .

THE TOMCATS

* TERRY COX, a 27 year old, bi-sexual, dark-haired, hunk, who recently worked as a railroad gandy, shows you what his 8 in. Italian sausage can do.

* LARRY JOHNSON lost his virginity with his 8th grade female teacher on the school bathroom floor. This 23 year old shaggy-haired earthy stud with piss-stained shorts proudly shows you his 7 incher.

* JONATHON PERRY is a smooth skinned fair-haired 19 year old stripper. He spreads his nicely shaped tight ass for a vibrator and finger fucking.

* RON McGUIRE is a young-looking street wise red haired hustler with a hot 6in. dick who had his first Gay experience with his cousin at the age of 13.

Fr. John presents each TOM CAT to you by way of a personal intimate interview, a tantalizing striptease, and explicit sex acts. Father often can't resist the temptation to suck a little himself.

Why not spend an hour, more or less, with each TOM CAT by means of these completely candid, unedited, and uncensored video tapes?

You are also invited to join The TOM CAT CLUB and receive the newsletters describing the latest tapes, activities and news about the TOM CATS and other club benefits. Dues are $5.00 per year or free with order.

GREG MacMANN

GREG MacMANN

GREG MacMANN, rakishly handsome, sports a slender, tall, hard body with the long, graceful muscles of a swimmer, his favorite activity. His long meaty circumcised penis, half-hard most of the time, perfectly complements his smooth, hairless body.

One is rarely fortunate enough to become intimately involved with a stud as masculine, good looking and lovingly sexy as Greg. Sex, of almost any kind, ranks right up there next to his love of automobiles of any kind. Both are what he is all about.

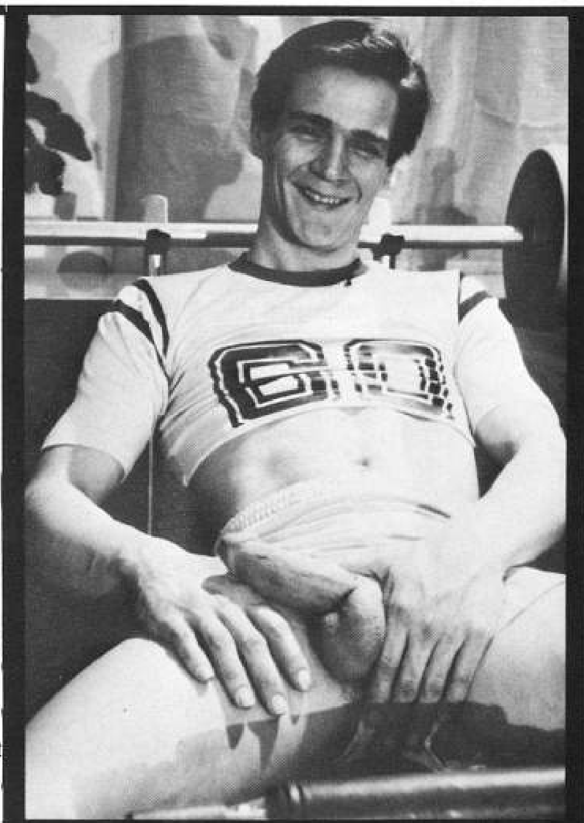
He made the day when Champion discovered him in a busy service bay at Joe's nearby Sunoco station. The decorum was politely maintained and Champion found Greg to be extremely friendly, hard working and mechanically innovative, always concerned about the customer's satisfaction.

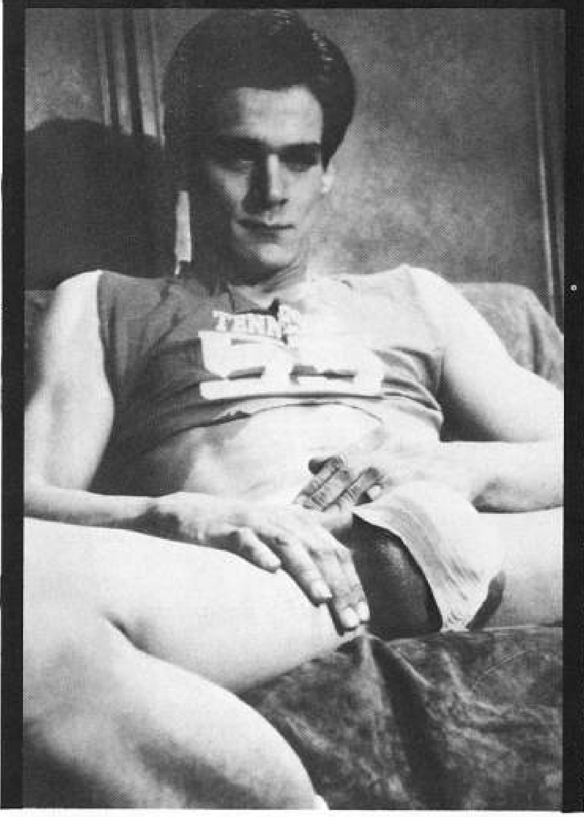
While driving down Merrick road in Lynbrook, Long Island, Champion noticed an attractive stud, very butch, appearing to be around 20. The dude's car was parked on the shoulder of the road, and he was hitching, dressed scantily for the humid weather in a colorful nylon jogging outfit. It wasn't until Champ had passed the stud that he recognized the hitchhiker as Greg. Naturally he stopped and backed up, and, also naturally, after recognizing him, Greg got in and was much relieved that someone he had actually only met days ago was giving him a lift.

It seems that something mechanical had malfunctioned while Greg was on his way to see a girl out on the Island. Champ gladly volunteered to donate time & effort to be at Greg's service, in more ways than Greg suspected.

He had a sad tale about how the faulty auto part was a lemon and asked to be driven to one of the many nearby service stations in the area where he could purchase a replacement part. As it turned out, it took seven station stops to finally get what was necessary. It had become late, and a pay phone was found so Greg could sadly explain to his girlfriend why he wouldn't be by. Champ, tears in his eyes at Greg's plight, decided to cheer him up by making him a star.

Alas, a camera is never around when needed. As Greg struggled to repair the car Champ became determined to reenact a similar drama with camera madly clicking away at all the enticing peek-a-boo shots, like a large, hairy nut being exposed from the rear while Greg's thighs were splayed apart, having to lean heavily on his crotch, pressed against the car's fender. The inner lining of his skimpy shorts were pressed deep into the crack of his meaty ass and seductively rubbing against his virgin anus. And then the best, to see Greg's big organ swell up and barely be contained by the filmy, see-through material as he was lauded with one compliment after another about his assets, coupled with a generous offer to model in similar body-gear, as well as in the buff – an offer Greg happily agreed to. His only request was not to let the others at Joe's know of his good fortune.





When they entered the studio the first thing Champ noticed was that Greg's sex tool was still stiff and pressed firmly against the filmy fabric where a large wet spot had spread to make every vein in its swollen shaft more clearly visible.

Champ quickly played touchy-feely when telling Greg what was expected of him as a model. In due time he was test shot to determine his potential and best angles. He slowly removed his clothes, freeing his penis to spring erect to a 45 degree angle. While his tightly drawn testicles emitted a steady flow of clear love-goo, he was asked right out if he wanted to get it off. "OK, just don't try and fuck me," he said apprehensively.

As it turned out Greg loved his first experience at male sex. He could hardly contain himself as a condom, like a second skin, was rolled down over his throbbing sex organ. And when his big, firm testicles were gently stretched and stroked he began to relax, spreading his muscular legs far enough apart to get at his sensitive anus to lightly finger stroke around its hairy dampness. Greg's shorts were down around his ankles, but never off. His moans and throaty groans said that he was totally thrilled by what pleasure another man could give him. But he kept an anxious eye on the action at all times. His skin was hot and damp to the touch and radiated a clean rich odor of fresh man-sweat mixed with a faint aroma of gasoline, which subsequently was always on him to some degree.

Then, to the surprise of his host, Greg asked to jack him off. After slipping on the latex sheath, he did. He beat his own meat with one hand, easily moving his condom over his spent re-cum, as an ideal lubricant and took a firm grip on Champ with the other, and while Greg's photographer continued massaging his ass, they were soon wracked with spasms of joy. Although Greg digs women, he'll gladly share his lean, tight bod with a guy who shows the right kind of interest.

The younger of two by two years, Greg is 21 and a Libra. His parents are of Scotttish and "dark" (Spanish) Irish stock. He stands an even six ft. tall and is pleasingly proportioned and has the congenial masculine manner of a first-rate man! Weighs in at 162 lbs. of firm, sensuous flesh. His hair is thick and straight – an unruly chestnut brown. He has sparkling emerald eyes that are so very handsome and attractive. The dude's skin is smooth to the touch, almost hairless, with steely muscle close beneath the skin, and is always well scrubbed.

Nipples: a light brown, nickel sized puckered paps – hypersensitive.

Penis: Fuck Tool in Greg's terminology since it best describes its use. He loves nothing better than to feel gobs of semen blasting up his 8-inch fuck-tube and spray with hose-like intensity from his stretched open piss hole.

Testicles: Furry and as large and shaped as goose eggs – usually gathered tight to his cock-root, blazzing with masculine passion.

Anus: A tiny pink rosette of wrinkly muscle that can wink spasmodically at the appropriate moment.

Education: He has a high school diploma, was at the top of his class- a real credit to his trade school in auto-mechanics.

Favorite Activity: Greg is agreeable to almost anything that will put him in a relaxed mood, especially after a hard day's work at the garage. Sex fits the bill! So what if he becomes a bit more sweaty, when the end result can be exciting relaxation.

Turn On: To have his girl or a buddy watch him roll on a sexy, see-through condom over his rock hard boner, wanting to fuck or get sucked off, and for sure, to have someone else's hand jack his rocks off. To scream wildly while desperately at a bobbing head. Then to shudder with a tingling feeling that runs through his entire body and down to his suckable toes as he starts to shoot a humungous load of white hot jizzum. Greg loves to grunt with pure pleasure as his fountain of scalding ball cream spurts smoky gobs into the rubber cock sheath stretched thin against a loving tongue that furiously milks the sticky libation from his stiff spitting dick.

Now, quick like a bunny turn to the back of the book and discover 12 wild sets of Greg available from Man-Age's "Champion Collection"!

ROD BAUER

By CHAMP

ROD BAUER, one of CHAMPION's truly classic models of the 60's, is everything he appears to be – a young, good natured, jock-stud.

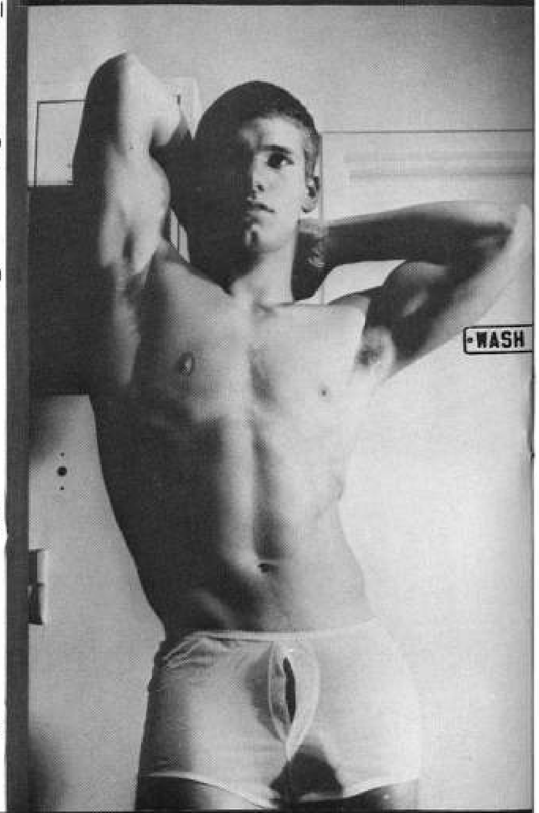
CHAMPION was first introduced to Rod by his high school wrestling coach at the all-state wrestling final matches where he easily captured the laureate of State Champion in his weight class often taking down and handily subduing many worthy opponents.

The memory of that evening in his high school gym is unforgettable. Seeing Rod go though his wrestling paces from one opponent to another, looked as if all those forceful moves he so skillfully executed were choreographed as a triumphal dance of victory. His physical movements weren't the only thing of beauty. He was physically beautiful, also. Rod's handsome head and healthy good looks divinely complemented his symmetrically muscular torso to the point of perfection. I'm sure Rod could have easily stood his ground against the finest of ancient Greek wrestling Olympians.

As I watched him, surrounded by his admirers, females and males alike, his opponents, seemingly invincible also, possessing fine bodies that bulged in all the right places, appeared to be mesmerized by Rod's self-assured cockiness and eagerness to get on with the bout.

It was hard to believe, but I could readily understand: Rod's victims became almost complacent once he wrapped himself around them. He twisted their gorgeous bodies into all sorts of unbelievable and sometimes humiliating contortions. And those who were foolish enough to put up a struggle would inevitably end up with the further humiliation of Rod's powerful hand applying excruciating pressure to their privates or being yanked into position with Rod's hand firmly into the crack of their ass, or even sitting on a stud's face while Rod curled the rest of his adversary's body upward, forcing the stud's legs wide apart, giving the audience ample view of all that trapped male endowment submissively on display. Rod certainly knew how to entertain his audience, at least me in particular!

When I finally met Rod after the meet, wet with sweat and his huge trophy in hand, I found him warm and friendly and quite humble. He got a kick out of my telling him that I had never enjoyed wrestling more than seeing him pinning all that tough muscle so soundly. He dug the idea of modeling when I suggested it. Rod made a point of introducing me to his best friend and wrestling team-mate Scott Manley, who also agreed to model with Rod while the crowd of well-wishers swirled around us. Then Rod was pushing a kid toward me who was a spitting image of himself – his younger brother, also a champion wrestler in his own right. It was cute the way he so adoringly idolized his celebrated brother. After meeting his Mom, Dad and sister that evening it was obvious tha the entire family were supportive and all wrapped up in Rod and his athletic prowess.



ROD BAUER

Just as Rod liked to entertain while wrestling, he was a fun loving prankster, enjoying the laughter of others. With a warm, open personality he accepts others at face value. Do him wrong and you deserve his wrath, although Rod doesn't dwell on negative things.

It seems that Rod had once good naturedly locked Scott Manley into his school locker during their highschool senior year. Yeah, sure, you guessed it, big butch Scott had to muscle-up all his brute strength to break out of his predicament. It took Scott nearly an hour to demolish his steel locker while everyone, including Rod, had a wonderful time cheering him on.

Champion made good friends of Rod and his close buddies and worked with them for nearly two years, both indoors and out, during many wonderful, happy hours around New York City and the Jersey shore, where they were life guards during the summer months – and there lay more horny tales.

Rod is of German and Italian blood, blending marvelously to produce a great, masculine Rod Bauer

He was just 18 on his first photo assignment for Champion and took to the work like a duck to water – easy to work with, a natural, gifted model – a Capricorn.

Every inch a man, Rod stands 6ft.1 tall and carries 170 lbs. of solid streamlined muscle.

His hair is thick, close-cropped waves of rich brown.

He has large brown eyes, speckled with flecks of gold and so easy to look into.

Rod's skin is tanned nearly year round. It is smoothly stretched over hard, hot muscle and is luxuriant with a healthy glow.

A real treasure, his nipples are big brown pleasure domes the size of half dollars, protruding ridged, front and center, like midget dicks on the ready!

He sports a circumcised beauty that swells to a 6½ boner. Rod boasts of being able to spurt steamy gobs of jock cream that splatter at three yards.

Rod's jumbo-sized eggs, encased in their warm, sweaty sack of skin, hang a heavy 6 inches. Truly a pair of hot nuts that are usually swollen to the bursting point with butch sperm. Drawn tight to its hard root, they are wrinkled and tasty as California prunes!

And for sure Rod has got to possess one of the most extraordinary asses on a guy! Two large, velvet smooth mounds of firm muscled flesh. When active they move and roll in a spectacular counter-motion. Truly a sight to behold! His hot buns house a tight, virgin, puckered rosebud. There is always a pleasant, natural, manly fragrance about it.

After 4 years of college, Rod graduated with a degree in Phys. Ed. His favorite activities are still all kinds of body contact sports – #1 on the list is wrestling, of course. He also likes to read a good book now and then, eyeball a neat body – male or female, and to travel and make new friends. His interests are in the order of: sex, friends, cars and the great outdoors.

Rough sport activities, hot talk, sexy letters and photos turn him on the most.

Rod is a photographer's dream come true, combining his handsomely wholesome face with a physique that is well nigh perfect. Add to that an attractive masculine charm and the total package becomes irresistible. His popularity as a much sort after friend and model has catapulted our rock-hard Rod into Champion's Hall-of-Fame.

BY BILL SPENCER

"Just a good boy . . ." That's DAVID ASHFIELD's favorite way to describe himself, and yet . . . This is a consummately professional man. He's a Huck Finn who can surprise you with the subtlety of his mind, and then flex a bicep and shoot you his goofy grin. Tall, blond, very masculine, yet boyish in the extreme, and with a nose and cheekbones Michelangelo might have sculpted. He's also in every other all-male film on the shelves, top-billed in all but one or two. Ashfield is an open, friendly, cheerful enigma—a seemingly naive blond boy who just happens to have gotten blonder as he's made more films . . . a natural, a paradox, a paradox-ide blond?

OUTCOME: You've made how many films in how long?

DAVID: A hundred plus . . . in three years.

OUTCOME: How'd you get started?

DAVID: I went through a rather screwed up childhood. Had an invalid mother who died when I was eight. My stepmother did her best to ruin my and my two brothers' lives by being rather vicious. She used to beat us and all the things that go along with that. By age 15, I ran away and started my own life. At first I just washed dishes and worked here and there, and along about 19, I met a few other boys in Houston, Texas, who introduced me to the world of hustling. After two and a half years, I decided—at the suggestion of another boy—to go to Los Angeles, I now being about 22.

I got a job, got an apartment, and hit the hustling scene there. After I'd been in L.A. a few months, I met a photographer for Nova. He interviewed me and thought possibly I could be in a movie. Well, I didn't hear from him for four or five months and was just thinking nothin' of it, when all of a sudden, they called me and asked me if I could be in a movie that particular weekend coming up. I said, "Yes, of course," and went and gave it my best effort, did a good job and, not long after that, met another producer, Larry Ginsberg, who immediately put me into a movie of his. Several weeks later, he brought me back for some piece-in shots. On that set, I met an agent who asked me if I wanted to work. I said "Yes" and he said "Here's my card, call me." And I did.

I made a film here and there and it just added up and up and up. After a year and a half I began doing stage productions—The Follies, The Saint and now, The Show Palace.

OUTCOME: When you left home, were you sexually active already?

DAVID: Sex had always been kind of a funny thing, amongst us boys, and every once in awhile, somebody's sister jumped in—or got thrown in, as it were. All through childhood, I had a very strong attraction to other boys and certain instances throughout childhood with girls steered me away from that. You do it and you get in trouble. Which I did. I got beaten severely for gettin' caught messin' with girls. Plus all the trauma with my stepmother pretty much told me and showed me without a shadow of a doubt that most women are not the kind that I want to hang out with. They've got their own set of games and head trips that I'm not part of.

OUTCOME: Granting that you found other males attractive, when you found that other males found you attractive, did it just seem a logical progression that you could get paid for what you were already doing for fun?

DAVID: I knew about hustling since childhood. I was about fourteen or so when I read about it in a book, so I was well aware that this happened. But, just by being young, I did not know when and where and with whom to get into it. It came about just by consequence.

OUTCOME: Ever have any regrets about that?

DAVID: I think we have regrets about everything we do. Regrets have come and passed.

OUTCOME: When you got into films, was that first film the launch of "David Ashfield" or were you just another kid . . . ?

DAVID: Just another kid in the movies.

OUTCOME: Is "David Ashfield" your real name?

DAVID: No.

OUTCOME: How'd you happen to choose the name? You're such a Huckleberry Finn-type and "David Ashfield" sounds like a member of Parliament.

DAVID: In the second movie, they asked me if I'd come up with a stage name to put on the model release. So I just cooked it up outta the blue. It could have been "Joe Schmoe."

OUTCOME: Is it symptomatic of your personality that you chose a "real person" name, as opposed to a cutsie, Kip or Tab or Troy sort of name?

DAVID: I tried to pick something I figured would be individualistic and be fitting for me. That I could use again and again and that I wouldn't be embarrassed to hear it.

OUTCOME: You seem pretty sexually secure, that that's something you've had under your belt for a long time. Being in films isn't trying to find yourself?

DAVID: (Chuckling) Not at all. I pretty much adhere to the fact that I'd found myself by the time I left home. And after that it was just letting it age and mature.

OUTCOME: Do you see "David Ashfield" as your own product?

DAVID: Yes. A national sales product.

OUTCOME: And the lucky people who buy your product, in whatever form, are getting a product or service in the same way that somebody goes out and buys a Cadillac?

DAVID: Hopefully, they feel that they're getting a quality product.

OUTCOME: That's why I said "Cadillac." How "out" are you in your daily life? First off, do you have a "private life?"

DAVID: Don't we all? Those who I feel can handle it, know about me. Those I feel shouldn't know, don't. For the most part, I lead a fairly "straight" lifestyle offscreen. There are those who are fairly close to me who do know about the other part of my life. But I don't lead the cliche "gay" lifestyle. I don't go to gay bars or whatever.

OUTCOME: Do you consider your sex life a major definition of who you are?

DAVID: I'm just David Ashfield, person. I lead a very homey life. I have a big house in the San Fernando Valley. I have several roommates, one of whom I'm very close to. We're not lovers of any sort, we're just lifemates. We've been clinging together for six years or so.

OUTCOME: This is a guy?

DAVID: This is a guy. We pretty much share our work and our playtime, except we don't share a bed.

OUTCOME: Ever?

DAVID: Yeah, sometimes, just whenever the mood strikes. Not too often. There are other members of the neighborhood who share this life with us. We go dirt-biking, camping and whatnot.

OUTCOME: So this is a very "California kid," but not necessarily "California gay kid" life?

DAVID: That's right.

OUTCOME: Is your biological family integrated with your "chosen family?"

DAVID: No, not at all. They think I'm an auto mechanic.

OUTCOME: Are you an auto mechanic?

DAVID: Yes. I just don't tell 'em the whole truth. Making films is a source of income. It's one of several; there's hustling, auto mechanics, massage, this and that. Whatever I can do to make a living.

OUTCOME: Massage? If someone calls for just a massage . . . ?

DAVID: Then they get just a good, legitimate massage.

OUTCOME: It all sounds so simple. Does this "principle" of simplicity apply to your film work?

DAVID: Yeah. I don't adhere to playing favorites or playing games in the business. I just do my work.

OUTCOME: "Just a good boy."

DAVID: Just a good boy. . . .

DIRECTED EVOLUTION

or, Deja Vu: didn't the Sapiens kill off the Cro Magnons, too?

By John Randal of KATHARSIS

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND: DEVELOPMENT OF THE HYBRIDS, BREEDING AND CULLING CRITERIA, AND VARIOUS USES OF HYBRIDS

Coming up in a little over a week was the 50th anniversary of the "Species Improvement and National Security Act." Originally it was named the "Racial Improvement Act" but that name had been changed to defuse the fear that it was a Hitlerian ubermensch program – it was, of course, just that, but no one wanted to acknowledge that little fact. And, of course, there was also the difference that there was no bias against racial groups – it was not "fashionable" to be racially discriminatory. This did make it different from Hitler's program.

This Act had brought about a heaven-on earth for natural-born Americans. It eliminated poverty. And work. And worry. Everything bad. All of life's onus was placed on the backs of the hybrids.

Only a year before the Act, the Supreme Court had declared that the simian-human hybrids were animals. They had no civil rights. They didn't even have human rights. They were subject to all the vagaries any animal is subject to – without the protection some are afforded. These hybrid men weren't even given the same protection cats and dogs were given – even Humane didn't care what happened to hybrids, only what happened to horses and birds and cats and dogs.

Arguments had been presented that these hybrid men were every bit as human as ordinary, naturally-born men. After all, they were indistinguishable from naturally born men in every way. They were physically identical. They were mentally identical. They were even "spiritually identical"! They were absolutely indistinguishable from humans.

There was no way to distinguish a hybrid from a human, except for the fact that hybrids are ambient-blooded – their body temperature follows the air temperature. Various genes had been inserted into their DNA that produced temperature-sensitive enzymes and glycerol-based blood. These turned on and off at various temperatures, and overlapped with the result that the cold-blooded hybrids were efficient from temperatures from -60 to 90 degrees Centigrade.

There was no need for protective clothing or shelter anywhere on earth – from midday desert to midnight Arctic. And they were as biologically as active as warm-blooded animals. But they had the efficiency of cold-blooded animals, which meant that they only ate about a fifth to a tenth as much as naturally-born men. They were very very efficient, and physically superior in performance.

Only in these superiorities were the hybrids different from natural-born men. Without touching them to feel their skin temperature, it was absolutely impossible to be sure whether a man was naturally born or a hybrid without very sophisticated DNA-fractioning of the cytoplasm. But, as the saying goes, the Supreme Court follows the will of the people. And the people wanted no draft. They wanted to keep their sons out of the military. But the army had had to abandon the nuclear strategy for the old attrition strategy – bleed the enemy dry through attrition. And you have to have lots of men to throw away for that.

The people didn't want to sacrifice their sons, even if it was "for god and country", much less for the killing machine the new army had become. It was simply politically impossible not to find an alternative.

And besides, native Americans wouldn't do any menial jobs, and immigration had become such a touchy issue. The upper-middle class wanted a truly menial class. And that's what the United States Supreme Court gave them – a legal slave class.

Within a year of the Supreme Court's declaration that hybrids weren't human, that they were patentable animal life, the President signed into law a bill putting the government into the business of growing men artificially.

They were gestated a dozen or more at a time in the uteri of cows. This produced millions of men for the army – millions of men a year, then tens of millions, and within a few years, hundreds of millions of men a year. Hundreds of millions for the great wars in Africa and Latin America. The new-wars of attrition.

Almost from the beginning, there had been an effort to breed superior men. To breed better athletes, with more endurance. Or breed for more strength, more cunning. To breed for more intelligence – to make "super computers" that were truly portable and truly affordable.

And to breed men who were more attractive. Breed men who had more pleasing bodies – more balanced musculature; lithe men who were not gangling; muscle men who weren't lumpy or muscle-bound. Men who had physically attractive faces. Some soft and delicate, some chiseled granite, but all attractively masculine.

Within a few years, nearly every hybrids man was physically perfect – not just one in a thousand, as with naturally-born men.

And they were bred to mature faster. Within thirty years of the program's start-up, men were maturing within three years from birth. Part of this speed-up was due to rapid-maturer drugs, but at least half of the acceleration of maturation was due to selective breeding and gene-manipulation: eighteen years of growth and development crammed into three years.

I keep saying "men" when referring to these hybrids because they were all male. – from the very beginning, women had been "protected" by preventing hybrid women from being produced.

There were so many men produced that every possible work position was soon filled. And there were, within a few years, enough for every naturally-born man, woman, and child to own one or more hybrids.

With such an over-supply – over-production – stringent quality improvement methods were put into place. The slogan was, "only the best!" Which meant only the best, AND DEATH TO THE REST!

After three years, in an initiation into "the real world," the hybrids had to prove themselves – mostly in athletic competitions. The last place man in each event was killed. It was as simple as that.

The men were killed at public exhibitions, in spectacular displays. Displays calculated to inflict as much pain as possible – and to be extravagantly showy.

The grand spectacles contained such entertainments as flaying alive, roasting alive, and butchering alive – with the quivering meat fed to snapping dogs.

Men were quartered alive – their shoulder joints and thigh sockets were partially chopped with axes, then their arms and legs were ripped away from their torsos, which were then tossed, still alive, to ravenous dogs.

Grand pomp and circumstance accompanied all these shows – both the athletic events and the executions.

And when the "proving games" were over for the day, usually a little more than half of the hybrid men coming into initiation were dead.

The ones who had performed best were selected out for breeding.

The second best group were sold at public auction to those attending.

The third best group were allotted out to various public and private groups that needed men – civil slaves for all kinds of labor.

And the last group – those who would have gone to their execution had the games been longer – were mustered into the army for almost immediate duty on the trench fronts. These last men were fodder for the Gods of war, and would almost all be dead in a matter of days to weeks – especially since no medical attention was given to any wounded hybrid – he was allowed to die of his wounds, or, if it appeared he might recover, but not be fit for trench duty, he was hamstrung and piled up with the other living corpses, to die of exposure or animal attack.

This was all very wasteful, especially considering the fact that about half of the two year olds were killed by the training for the graduation rites. But it did produce a much improved animal – very quickly. Very quickly. Very, very quickly! So much so that, in many senses, the hybrids diverged into a new and vastly improved race of men.

This system had been in place for fifty years now. And next week there was going to be a celebration.

A grand celebration – a magnificent slaughter, the likes of which the world has never seen, not even at the height of the Roman Empire! Production had been doubled for what was to be the graduating class of hybrids – with all the additional production dedicated to this grand exhibition. There would be double an ordinary year's kills (all of the extra men, not just half of the graduating class!) – and all these men killed in only one month!

There would be spectacular exhibitions even in the small arenas of remote towns. There would be super-extravaganzas in the larger cities.

All this to celebrate the greatest change in American life. Ever.

Now, naturally born men, women, and children were fully provided for from cradle to the grave. All their needs and desires were met by the huge armies of hybrid slaves.

All work – all production, distribution, maintenance, innovation, management – everything was done by slaves – by this host of ever improving men – or 'almost men' that were now markedly superior to ordinary, or 'naturally born men', in every important way – the hybrids were smarter, stronger, more athletic, more agile, more innovative. They were better than real men in every way.

But they were also fiercely loyal – obsequiously servile and passionately obedient. This quality had always been even more important than physical or mental perfection to the breeders. These hybrids were physically perfect, mental geniuses, and absolutely, unquestioningly loyal.

After 50 years, the much-heralded millennium had actually arrived.

It was heaven come to earth!

Heaven on earth – for the naturally born, that is.

And next week, the grand celebrations were to begin.

THE FIRST DOCUMENT: DAN, A "MOLDER" INSTRUMENTAL IN THE REVOLUTION

Central to the whole system were the "molders" – especially the third year molders.

Dan was a third year molder. Dan was a natural-born man – of course, all molders were natural-born! And, as a third year molder,he molded adolescent hybrids into hard, strong, fierce competitive athletes.

Dan didn't have to work, of course – no molder did. All needs and wants were provided for. All needs and wants. The state even provided hybrids of any age, any physical development for sex-games. To use in any way that excites – including torture and killing. That was, of course, in addition to servant hybrids. The state provided each man and woman with a quota of hybrids specifically for gratifying any sexual urges or whims. That was part of providing for the needs of each citizen.

“THE CHAMPION COLLECTION”

MAN-AGE PROUDLY ANNOUNCES

THE ART OF STEVE MASTERS!

When STEVE MASTERS, artist extraodinare, designed BIG Magazine for Champion in the mid-60s, he was already the darling of Madison Avenue with his unusual and much sought-after, eye-catching technique in advertising art, which was as highly stylized and personally original as the sexually erotic plates of art he was creating for Champion publications.

Steve sketched and beautifully shaded naked muscles of the most virile and handsome men of his day who would sit still, in the flesh, long enough for Steve to work his magic.

Part of his magic was to draw a bit of himself into his work harmonizing his own best features with those of his models into a loving marrage of male beauty.

Another part of his genius was being able to create his incredible works of art in reverse on the underside of transparent vellum paper, then to paste his sexy figures to colored paper selected for its flesh tone, cut and shaded most sensitively. The method was repeated for backgrounds surrounding his near-nude figures, meticulously accomplished and so harmoniously appealing to the subject matter.

Tragically, Steve died much too young & most of his art was left to the Kinsey Foundation, where it is locked up & away from the public.

Luckily CHAMPION retained a portion of the works. When MAN-AGE took ownership of CHAMP the work was discovered to have survived the fire!

SIRCO

It's hard to say when Sirco began. As Sirco itself we began about five years ago but in the general business Sirco's roots are deep. My father started in erotic movies 50 years ago. He still specializes in straight erotic movies in film. My younger sister branched out into Lesbian still photography and I alone in my family concentrate on videotape and Gay males, although each of us helps the other in every way possible. My younger brother, while not interested in production, appears in several of my videos including PISS PIG. He's the only man I know who is hornier than me.

It's a great collaboration, professionally and personally. Whenever I get tired of a boyfriend I pass him over to my kid brother. And we are so much alike that anyone who likes the one usually likes the other. Sometimes we'll work over a guy together, taking turns fucking him all night long. Of course we get into much kinkier things. I have probably led my entire family on the road to raunch because they all now either practice it or are at least very interested in it.

I know my dad puts his current girlfriend, 40 years his junior, through just about everything I do to my men.

I know such sexual harmony within a family may strike many people as odd. Yes, we are unusual, but no there is no incest in our family. My great grandmother set the everlasting philosophy of our family in the days following the war between the states. She had no respect for Texas to lose. She had an active, brilliant mind that the state would not nourish, would not encourage, would not cultivate. Women were not allowed to go to school, especially Hispano-Indian women as she was proud to be. Although 90% of Hispanics may be devout Roman Catholics she turned her back on a church that offered her nothing more than hope for a better life in heaven. She wanted it when she was alive. Ever since then everyone in my family lived for life in the here and now. Life without guilt but nevertheless a life of morality and decency towards our fellow man and woman, not out of fear of god or state but because it was right.

My father told me his philosophy was reinforced in the second world war. He had seen combat at the battle of the Bulge. He wept as he helped liberate Dachau and the other death camps set up by "Christians" to exterminate Jews, Gays, Gypsies, the physically or mentally handicapped and others. He told his children how he saw the inoffensive Gays make love not war in the shadows of tanks in Paris. He was forever impressed that Gay is good. Today he is proud that all three of his children are loving Gay people. We take pride that we have never insulted someone on account of race, culture or religion.

We honestly do not understand ministers who claim Christian charity but who condemn and judge Gays & Lesbians. Who see color instead of people. We are what the fundamentalists condemn as immoral, yet it is the fundamentalists who inflame the passions of hatred.

To me civilization is not fancy marble buildings, freeways, compact discs, air conditioning or atomic weapons. It comes down to how people treat other people and little else. That's why I cringe when I see National Geographic and other publications refer to certain people as primitive, savage or uncivilized. To me the most primitive tribe on earth is the Afrikaaner of South Africa.

Actually making my videos has been a revelation and an education. Men will say anything to get laid. Most exaggerate their penile length and understate their waist measurement and age. Several hundred men have performed here at Sirco Studios and each one is a story unto himself. One guy described himself as the piss top to die for. After three days of trying to piss over several men I gave up on him. He was terminally piss shy! Surprisingly some men underestimate their talents and endowments. I'll interview them initially over the phone and then invite them over for the once over. On several occasions when I opened the door I could only gasp at the macho beauty that filled my eyes.

In my early sessions I provided abundant beer, wine and liquor to loosen inhibitions. However their drunkenness showed all too well in the video and they became hard to handle. One actor fell on a camera. Another leaned against a window covered with a blanket and broke the glass, half falling out. Someone caught him by the feet before he fell three stories to the street. I could just see the headlines: NUDE PORN ACTOR FALLS THREE STORIES TO HIS DEATH.

Fantasies are sometimes hard to deal with. Many men bring these notions with them to the set. Several men have applied to be the Sirco 'fluffer', the guy who sucks the actors to help them get hard on cue. But what I really need is a live-in slut because Sirco sometimes videotapes non-stop for ten days (and nights) and more.

Preparing for a piss scene is time consuming to say the least. While the scene itself may last only five minutes all the participants need to drink liquids for from four to six hours beforehand without urinating. This is harder than it sounds. Most people are used to peeing whenever they need to. These piss pigs head for the can and I have to constantly remind them not to go. Inevitably they plead to let just a little go. I always say no and sometimes need to physically restrain them. But the results in the Piss Pig and Piss Pig 2 I think justify the means.

The CUM CHRONICLES was our first video. It features 30 different guys jerking off to orgasm. It's fascinating to see all those different types of cocks and jack off techniques and of course those big, creamy, juicy loads of cum.

CASPAR

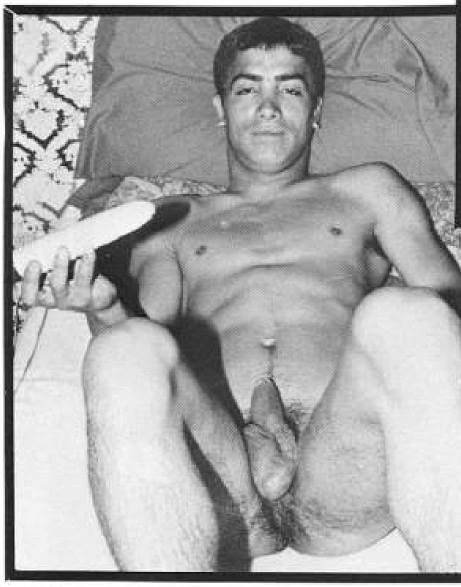
PHOTOS: COPYRIGHT 1987 MAN-AGE



JOEY CASPAR is an ambitious young man. His motto is "stay hungry" and, so far, by following his creed, he seems to be in the process of getting what he wants. We spoke to him during a break from a gig as a stripper at a Manhattan all-male theatre. He is 22 years old, somewhere between cute and classically handsome, compactly but beautifully built.

OUTCOME: Where are you from originally?

JOEY: I was born in Puerto Rico, but I've been in the U.S. for 21 years. I grew up here in Manhattan and the other boroughs. My childhood was quite confusing, a lot of family disturbances. I come from a big family: 8 brothers and 8 sisters. I wasn't raised with my family, not for too long. I've been on my own for a total of nine years.

OUTCOME: What does a 13-year-old boy do when he leaves home?

JOEY: Incredibly enough, I ran away back to Puerto Rico, stayed there for three months and met a friend who gave me a helping hand—eight years worth. He was a gentleman, some years older than me.

OUTCOME: Was this a sexual relationship?

JOEY: No. Well, only about 30 percent. It was much more of an older brother/younger brother, father/son relationship. Sort of a partnership deal. We both needed support. He was divorced; I was parentless. I had just become a father, which led me to hit the fast lane, keep moving.

OUTCOME: You, at 13, had just become a father? You are—or were—bisexual?

JOEY: Bisexual, yeah. Basically, I have not ever had control over my sexual appetite, it's extremely insatiable as far as sex—making love—is concerned. I've been gung ho, all the way. I do take favorites, but I like a lot of things.

OUTCOME: Was your first time with a woman or a man?

JOEY: It was with a female. I was nine. . . but the young lady was older. She. . . hired me as her 'trainee.' My first experience with a guy was at 14. I found it was something I just bumped into, just came upon. I noticed that everybody would go to Forty-deuce, Times Square. That's how it came about.

OUTCOME: So this was not for fun, it was for money?

JOEY: Necessity. I just took it upon myself to do it. Fortunately, I've been pretty successful at it.

OUTCOME: So you spent some period being, literally, on the Deuce, hustling?

JOEY: No, not exactly. It was not even occasional. It was something. . . an aim I had in mind, I was specific. In terms of a gay relationship, I've only been with two people, as far as commitment. Only two individuals. Anything else was either because I was turned on or because I had some difficulties with friends. I was lucky. The second person I met was the individual who gave me the hand. I was clever. I knew what I was looking and found it. For the next eight years, I led a life of leisure: 40 hours per week of 'training' at home. I could do whatever I wanted, I got whatever I wanted. I was a spoiled brat. One of the reasons I'm out of the relationship was because I had too much of a good thing. It gradually ceased to exist. . . I wanted to spread my wings. I was young and he could not control me or keep me still for too long. Perhaps one day I might still want to change all that.

In fact, although I wanted my freedom, I also left because of a young lady. Because I'd been a father and lost it all at 15, I wanted to give it another shot. But, every time, it's hell. It just doesn't work. So, now, I'm starting anew and I have no obligations to anyone. My only responsibility is to myself.

OUTCOME: What do you like to do sexually?

JOEY: Fellatio. Giving and getting. And I like to fuck ass.

OUTCOME: You shave your crotch, or at least you did for the photo session. Isn't that a little. . . well, scary?

JOEY: No, not really. After the second shave, your skin gets tough and I can go over it without any cuts or problems. I do it on a regular basis, just for keeping myself clean. I do it once in Winter and twice in Summer.

OUTCOME: What does the future hold?

JOEY: I'm growing up fast, at an alarming rate. I'm now working as a stripper; maybe I'd like to get into movies. What I'd really like to do is to make movies. Produce and direct them. . . .

OUTCOME: You do have ambitions!

JOEY: You have to. I have to have. I try to stay hungry. My hero is Bruce Lee. I'd like, someday, to do his type of movies, combined with real, sexual action. Why not? My motto is, if I'm going to do something, I'm going to do it right, and I'll be good at it. I don't' want to be one of the bunch, I want to be special, the exception to the rule.

MALE NUDES

At one time or another you've all had the fantasy to do pix of nude guys. Some of you out there have taken the next step and have gotten a camera or two and have gotten some guys to pose for you for private sessions. Since OUTCOME would like to present work that is fresh and exciting, we decided to offer a course on how to be a professional nude photographer and see if we can get those who pass to contribute their work.

I guess the first question is you might have is legality. To date the law has flip-flopped and zig-zagged around the issue. The simple act of capturing a naked human on film has been turned into the act of the devil by the traditional enemies of democracy and free thought: the church, the police, and the far-right. The police especially love going after pornographers since they can garner headlines and promotions and never risk getting shot as they would if going after real criminals. The fact of the matter is so long as you don't photograph anyone under the age of 18; don't do pix of anyone performing sex acts on animals or the dead (grateful as they may be for the consideration); don't do any photo session where the subject is being injured you are all right. Doing solo photo sessions keeps you out of trouble while doing hardcore pictures (hardcore is defined as penetration i.e. penis inserted into another person's mouth or anus) could result in legal problems.

There are two things that are at the top of the list in capital letters! If you intend to have your work published (and why else would we be telling you all this) YOU MUST OBTAIN FROM YOUR SUBJECT PHOTOCOPIES OF AT LEAST TWO FORMS OF LEGAL I.D. This can't be stressed enough. You must be sure your subject is over eighteen! The law says that the weight of proof is on the photographer and very stiff penalties are provided for those having sexual contact of any kind with anyone of less that legal age. Look at the I.D.'s very carefully. Don't assume them to be legit. The point of requiring at least two is that you are reducing the chances of phony I.D.'s. In some states it is legal to do pix of subjects as young as sixteen. Forget it! When you cross state lines, as you will if you send the work to a magazine or if you sell the pix to the public, you fall under federal law! Federal law makes any sexual contact with anyone under eighteen a federal crime! Get those proofs, be safe and make a back-up copy, and put them in a safe place.

The second thing you need is a model release. The model release is a legal document, a contract of sorts, whereby the subject sells the photographer the rights to his image. The law says each person owns his own image, it has value, and permission must be given for that image to be reproduced (the exception being if you are photographed, filmed, or taped in a public place). The release gives you, the photographer, cinematographer, or videographer the rights to that subject's image captured that day. For it to be valid the subject must receive compensation for the value of his image. This can take the form of money or photographs or anything of value the subject agrees to accept. It can be as little as a dollar but you must pay something for the release to be valid even if the subject says he doesn't want anything! OUTCOME will be happy to send you a copy of the text of our model release for you to use as the basis for yours. Just send us a stamped, legal size, self-addressed envelope. Without a signed release no magazine will touch your photos with a 50-foot pole, no matter how good your work or how hot the model!

You'll need the tools of the trade. A camera is a good idea! Try to get a 35mm SLR (what you see in the viewfinder is exactly what you'll get). A Polaroid picture is no good, nor is a disc type or any of the dinky cameras most people have for personal pix. If you are a real stickler for quality get a two 1/4 format camera. The bigger the negative the better the quality! You should have a 50mm "standard" lens plus a wide angle lens. The wide angle allows you to work within a small area, such as a bathroom. There are different degrees of wide angle lens. Get what you need to do the job without going overboard.

Then you'll need a strobe (electronic flash) for indoor pix. Unless you really want to spend don't buy standing lights or an expensive lighting system. A good strobe that has an electric eye is more than enough. Get your equipment in a quality camera store where the salesman will discuss your needs (don't say you are doing nudes, just portrait pictures). For film I'd suggest Kodak Tri-X or Ilford 400 b&w film with a speed of 400 and for color use only slide (positive) film such as Kodak Ektacrome slide film speed 200. These have worked best for me. They give good depth to the picture. The greater the speed the less light is needed. The less light needed the smaller the lens opening required and the smaller the lens opening (f-stop) the greater the depth in the picture. Magazines require slides in order to reproduce color work properly. Negatives and duplicates can be made from slides whereas the same is not true of negatives.

The next step is to find some hot guys to work with. You're on your own here.

Having found your subject and checked out his I.D. you should take the time to discuss the session with him in a quiet place. Don't either of you get high. Be up front and tell if you intend to have the work published. He won't enjoy walking down the street and seeing his picture on a magazine cover or being told by a friend that his pix are in a magazine after you told him they were only for your personal use. (One of the major Gay mags in the beginning ran into this from two supposedly very professional photographers who had informed the subjects the pix were private. They then took them to this fool of an editor who ran them without checking the releases and found the magazine inundated in lawsuits.) Discuss his feelings about posing to be sure he really wants to and feels comfortable. A model who poses because he has been pressured in some way is a bad model; so is one who is posing just for money. Great models are those who pose for fame, to fulfill a fantasy, or just for fun. If you have any question about his really wanting to pose, set up the session for a day or so hence to give him time to back out. Better to lose a great model who didn't really want to pose then to do the pix and have him make your life a hell after they are published.

As to the actual photo session, there are no set instructions to give. It's at this point that talent and instinct take over and the Photographers seperate from those who merely take pictures. The true artists such as CHAMPION, LES FOLLIES DES HOMME, CADINOT all had or have a vision they commited to film. It involves costumes, sets, & specific poses which combine to create a fantasy, just as MGM and the major studios of Hollywood did. They can see what could be out of what is and they are precious and rare people. MAN-AGE is a "face" studio. They are attracted to a model's face and work by setting an atmosphere to allow the model to be as much himself as possible. You can start by looking at pictures that turn you on and try to decide what it is that attracts you to the picture, other than the model. Have clothing and props, as I've said, but if the model is wearing something great or brings things with him use those. Use your imagination and the model's. Try odd positions and acts. If it works fine, if not don't do it again. Don't put limits on your ideas, and do be open to his suggestions. Just don't try to push him to do what he isn't comfortable with. Beyond your abilities, it's going to be your model's state of mind which will determine the quality of your work!

Finally, what to do with the finished pictures?

You should take the time first to contact the publication, and it's hoped you'll at least start with OUTCOME, to inquire what they are looking for and require. Send some samples of your work with the year, copyright symbol, & your company name written or stamped on the back. A postage-paid return envelope is always a good idea. DON'T include proofs of age or the model release. You are just showing examples of your work at this point. Once the magazine has a copy of your model release they can go ahead & run the work if they are unscrupulous. Have them write back to you with the information and payment terms. If it isn't in writing it doesn't exist!!! If they won't put it in writing they can't be trusted! You can sell "One Time Publication" rights (the session or picture can be printed in one issue, period); or you can sell a picture or the rights outright. You can get paid money or you can accept display ad space through which you can sell photo sets to the public. Once you have it worked out you can send your pictures, photo copies of your age proofs and photo copies of your releases. Never send the actual releases or proofs unless you are selling outright, in which case be sure to keep photocopies for your own protection. And that's about it. It's a snap, right? We'll be looking forward to seeing your work!

Well I told TOBY about the jock strap and split to waist shorts game he could play at the store or library. We did it at the library, making like we didn't know each other. We wore white special designed leg straps jock so the straps hug our moons and don't give the bulge at the ass crack. The straps connect to each side of the ball bag instead of crisscrossing and fit lower on side, also lower on legs.

Then we put on Parr's split to waist running shorts, red works well! I use a small jock, Toby seems to need a medium to fit his things, the're so big! Seems like he always has a boner.

Anyway, seems whatever shorts Toby wears they find their way into his ass crack, like they're sucked in by a vacuum (popular places always attract a crowd – ed.). I went in first then Toby. The Librarian's eyes were glued to Toby watching him his legs side jock straps show. Toby stands by new books shelf and lets the fat old bitch check out legs and leg straps hugging his ass cheeks.

The bitch sits at desk about 6 feet from the new books. But Toby had his eye on the whore in the purple dress. Toby then shifted to one leg to show some ass and ass strap then he bends some to check the lower shelf. BINGO the fat bitch's eyes pop out and 2 of Toby's bun bases pop out a good 3 inches above the leg straps. He stands back up walks around the corner to shelves lowers leg straps a little. Sure enough the fat bitch is turned on. She leaves her desk and comes around to shelves in back of Toby to peek between books. Toby does more bends and stoops, being it's more private back their. The shorts stick in his ass and he pulls them out. Now with lowered leg straps just to show as wacks the first then the other. He goes to check out some books & waits outside for me. 10 minutes later I come out and Toby's talking to a drunk, we go. We'll definitely play this game again. See ya next issue!

TOBY sets of note: T-137: 12 pix TOBY shaves his balls & crotch hair – $25.00
T-150: 5 pix TOBY gets bent over knee, in jock strap, and spanked – $12.00

The one and only Golden Boy set PCN-226: 16 pix Tiger boy in white jockey under briefs sitting & lying on bed front – back – side – $25.00

HERITAGE

Back in the early 60s CHAMPION was publishing BIG magazine out of an office in NYC. One day, around noon, in walked a Black man with a briefcase. He was a fan and wanted to know if CHAMP might be interest in seeing some drawings he had done. They were "action" drawings of sailors way too explicit for BIG magazine. He wanted some CHAMPION pix in exchange for the drawings. CHAMP liked the pix, agreed & that was the last he ever saw of the artist.

In the whirl of activities over the years he forgot the work and despite the quality of the work and the freedom to publish it never was. In going through the CHAMP files I discovered the drawings and present them here for the first time

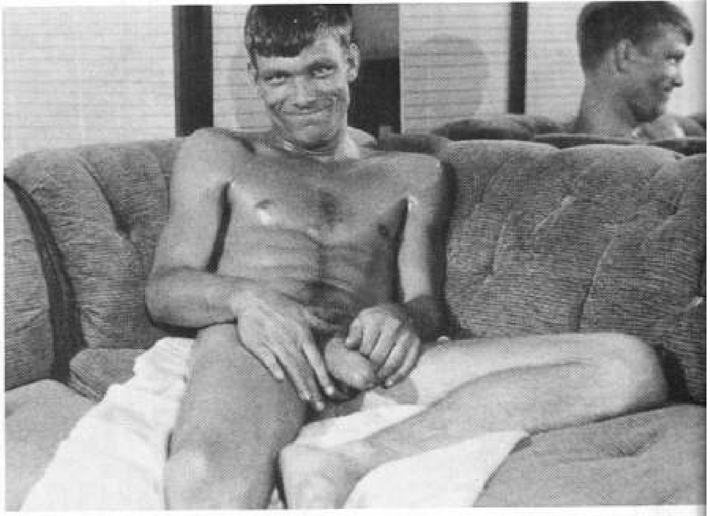
OLD RELIABLE

BLAKE



He's one of the outstanding young men on OLD RELIABLE'S video The SIZE of the Matter and his name is BLAKE. He's 28, 5'10", 160 lbs. comes from Oklahoma and is part Native American. He's Gay, not one of them Bi sissyboys. He has close cropped blond hair & blue eyes. David says he's incredibly strong & is a lover. He comes across in the tape as very friendly, warm & someone you'd like as a friend (Lovers come & go, a friend is suppose to be forever. Just so you don't take that as a back handed compliment). He's an experienced wrestler and a very hot guy. You can order an audio tape of Blake (C-73-2) for $9.60 and two color photo sets (73-H, 73-I) for $7.60 each (post. inc.)

RANTS & RAVES

Column by Cox

Should you ever be on a quiz show and be asked "is there a price to pay for telling the truth" the answer is yes! After my editorial and column last issue on the subject of the porn industry's promotion of unsafe sex I was removed from the comp list by the biggest producer/distributor. Promoting unsafe sex and putting models lives in danger is ok but saying in public that the emperor is naked isn't.

Unlike the other slick Gay mags, we aren't beholden to these outfits and we ARE concerned about the message they ARE sending out. Hence forth our policy is not to provide any coverage to any video that promotes unsafe sex! If you want to know how hot, sexy and exciting it is to contract AIDS let others inform you. If you want the message that condoms ruin good sex or a little Nonox. lube is all you need producers of current videos will please you no end. And the major Gay slick mags will help out too by praising these tapes to the rafters. They won't soil your fantasies with reality, even if it might save your life. Hell, most are put out by straights who see you as suckers with money. I've had too many friends die. I care too much about our community. As the 60's saying goes "If you're not a part of the solution, you're a part of the problem". OUTCOME is a part of the solution! Please write in and let me know what you think about this very important subject. I want some feed back. From here on I'll only cover videos that are SafeSex or are unsafe but shot prior to the AIDS crisis.

The SIZE of the Matter VT-73 ($59.00 plus $3 post. OLD RELIABLE, 1626 N. Wilcox #107, Hollywood, CA 90028) First up is tattooed hunk TONY. While he sleeps his right hand has its way with him. He wakes just in time to cum, gives us a beautiful smile then poses away. BLAKE we've got covered elsewhere. Porn star (2x10, Motel California) MICHAEL ANTHONY is 22, 6'2=", 145 lbs. with green eyes and l-o-n-g sexy legs. Long is the operative word here as Michael takes his time showing off. He's sleek and cool as he strips to green briefs, oils up and takes his time playing with himself in the briefs. Then he takes his time posing and finally jerks off. I didn't time it but his segment runs about 12 hours. If you like a man who takes his time, Ta-Da! The always cute DAVID ASHFIELD *(OUTCOME 2) is at his best as himself. Of everything he's done, around 125 productions, this captures David in person. He chats, poses and shoots (Tootsie lovers note David pointing out his other suckables measure 12". Everything's big on this Texan). BEAR is 26, 6'2", 9=" with reddish hair and beard and I kept wait for him to whip out an axe and go berserk. He looks like a hillbilly on a break from the Hatfield-McCoy war. He strips and jerks off but never takes his eyes off the straight flick on the TV. No personality. KIRMIT you may recall from last issue's review of his wrestling tape with Mike "The Spike" Victor. He's 22, 5'7", 115 lbs. into weight lifting, running and watching sports on TV. Nice guy. He talks of learning martial arts as he had been mugged a few night before. Last is strange C.J. CHASE, a 5'5" 24 year old with a solid cuddly body, big thick dick, blond hair and a Hitler moustache. He says little but has the time of his life masturbating. The tape is a size freak's delight

KILLING ME SOFTLY (PM Prod. 145 Hudson St., Studio 1300, NYC, NY 10013. Credit cards: 1-800-336-9696/NY 212-334-9566) is an odd film by "Francis Ellie" made in the late 70's (ah the memories brought back by seeing the burned out warehouses on the west side piers, the best photo studios ever). It stars Jack Wrangler, doing his cartoon porn star routine, as a New Yorker who falls for a killer (Stan Richards) who murders his sex partners. After leaving Jack he meets Guiseppe Welsh, has sex in a bathroom (in the burned out warehouse?) and does what everyone wanted to do at the time, strangles Guiseppe (I watched this part 10 times). Then he goes after cute hunk David King (woof), a construction worker and finally gets John Novak on a bridge. Lovely Jack is back home reading about these killings in the paper and knows his lover is the killer. He knows he has to stop him. When Stan comes home Jack tells him he knows and that he wants him to make him his next victim. While Stan strips, Jack mixes up two terminal cocktails. They down the drinks, have sex, Stan strangles Jack with his jock strap and they both die.Probably a bad subject for this point in time but Wrangler fans will want this for their collection and I wish I had David King in mine.

HARLEY'S ANGELS (PM Prod.) This Arch Brown *film done in the 70s is, as you've already gathered, based on the TV show that popped out of Fred Silverman's ass and stunk up the airwaves. No tits but plenty of ass in this. Harley's gloves are missing and his 3 angels (Jayson MacBride, Justin Thyme, and Ken Darrell) must find them.* DRAMA! This has hot duos and trios you can enjoy without guilt. Star Jayson (a CHAMPION model) is trim, sleek and hung like a horthie! Justin has two hot scenes, in the first he's given a heavy dildoe fucking and in the second he gets his rocks off on the phone. Harley gets his gloves back and the viewer gets his rocks off.

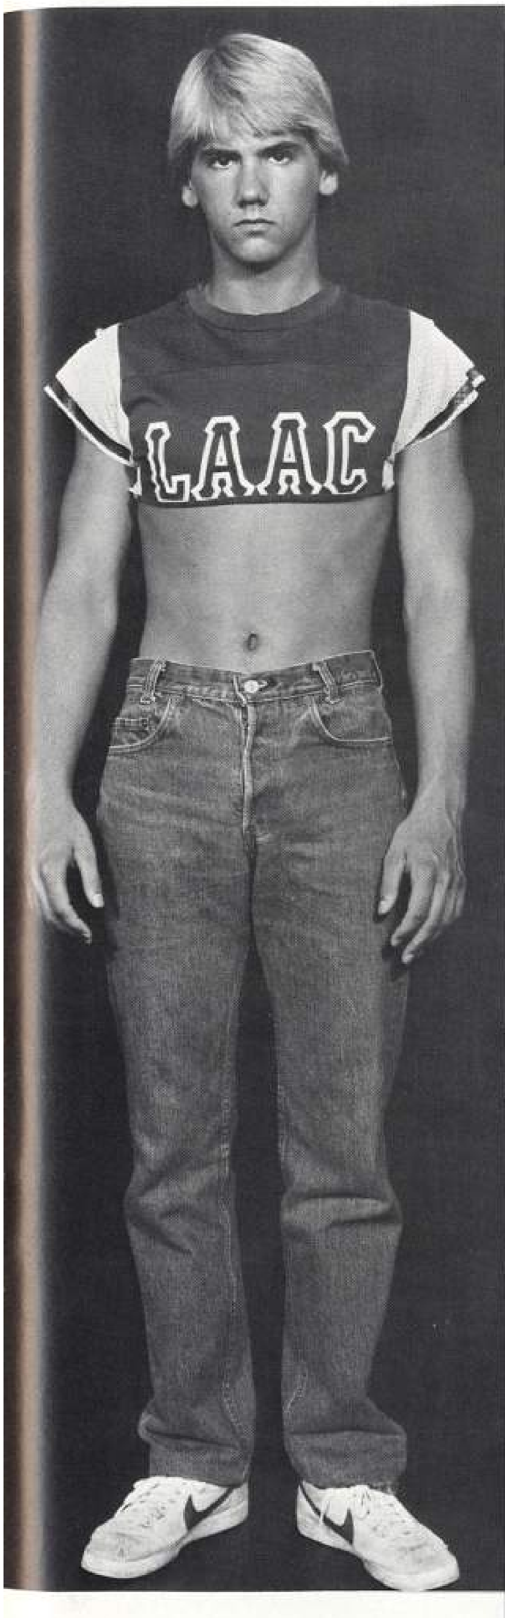
PRETTY GUYS VT-60 (OLD RELIABLE $59.00 plus $3.00 post.) Bi-sex video performer JEFF BLOOM could be described as a collegiate-party animal-hunk. Hot bod, good looks, beard stubble – right out of "Animal House". A good looking Michael Keaton. Pick one of those descriptions. He beats off and poses, nothing spectacular but boy does he inspire descriptions. David notes that LITTLE HERCULES, his real name, didn't want to give any info but he guesses he's 30, at least. Big muscles, hairy chest, very macho. Starts out in red tank top, blue shorts, knee pads and high white boots. He does push ups, rips off the tank, oils, etc. He really puts on a show, mainly for himself since he performs a lot looking at himself in the mirror. He ends by jerking popped out of the side of his red briefs, then totally nude. STEVE P. is 19, 5'7=", 135 lbs. and trys to come off as hip and worldly but it comes out more cute. He says he used to be a surfer and skateboarder in his younger days but now he listens to music and spends his nights on the beach with friends having lots of sex (puff, puff). David describes it as a Malibu-surferboy attitude. He points out track marks on his arm to demonstrate his great intelligence. He poses and beats off. Porn star GREG "Rocky" ROME provides a GREAT performance. David begins by catching him on the street coming to the session. Greg then stands by the tub and talks directly to the viewer as he shows off a body that is a work of art. He has a sculpted chest with etched abdomen, nice solid pecs, and a golden Ft. Lauderdale tan. He says he got it all from water skiing, snow skiing, and being a lifeguard. We'd like to get it all!! After oiling, posing, and masturbating he ends by getting in the tub so we can see him wet. Extremely hot guy, extremely hot segment! Loon-loon-loon, lots of tales abound about JERRY SUTER, some funny some not so funny. Pretty poison, look but don't touch. He's 19, 5'11", 140 lbs. blond hair, blue eyes, tan and very pretty. He's guaranteed to make you cream your jeans in this videos other GREAT segment. He says his first sex was when he was 12 with a female of unspecified age. The he relates, while beating off, how at 16 he had sex with the neighbor's 13 year old virgin daughter while they were out and how they returned ahead of time. How he emerged from her room with vivid scratches across his back. He tells of an endless array of girlfriends he dumps when he tires of them. He's a very self centered young man devoid of feelings for others. After he cums he's mesmerized by his sperm saying that he's never seen it as he's never masturbated before, not even while in prison. A very hot segment that makes you think. Then RICH WOLFGANG comes on and can't keep his hand from rubbing his crotch. He says he's always horney. Rich is 23, 5'6", 145 lbs. and likes fighting. He's of German-Dutch-Native American stock.

SHAWN MAYOTTE



One of our secret agents caught up with the reclusive SHAWN MAYOTTE recently out near his hideaway in southern California and pinned him down long enough to get an interview. Since it was brief we decided to forgo the question answer format in favor of a biographical sketch. Our friend Kurt Deitrick, who has worked exclusively with Shawn since meeting him shortly after his 18th birthday, thrilled us no end with access to his truck load of pictures of Shawn. Kurt's work of Shawn at 18 & 20 was a cover feature in "In Touch" as some of you may recall. Retired now for 2 years, Kurt still does pix of his most famous model from time to time and it's these exclusive shots of Shawn at 22 (wasn't that a TV show?) we present to you: published & shown to the public for the first time.

Shawn was born on April 10 in Sacramento and was 23 at the time of the interview. He's a hot combination of Italian & German stock (an Axis baby!) who stands 5'10", weights 165 lbs. and has sandy blond hair with soft brown eyes. His chest measures 41", waist 29", and he wears a 9½ shoe. When he's having a good time his slightly curved tool grows from 4" to 8 ½ and the Flying Lizards hit "Money, That's What I Want" wafts through his mind.

He likes to wear casual clothes like jeans, t-shirts, sports clothes; and chows down on Italian food & chicken. He got into posing nude for the money but, unlike other models, has a regular career type job and is continuing his schooling. Would that all models had the brights to do so. Although posing isn't his career goal he does have a love affair with the camera. He doesn't have any desire to get into any kind of videos so those early YMAC tapes (under the name DIRK) are all ya'll will be seeing of Shawn in action. He's also very AIDS conscious and the industry's lack of concern & promotion of unsafe sex is another reason he won't consider videos. He's no dope!

The big passion of his life is MUSIC with dreams of a career in the music business being his goal. Shawn plays guitar, keyboards, drums & sings. He recently did a music video for a romantic interest thanks to two of his supporters. The interview ended with the question "What is your typical day like?" and with his famous smile he replied "Always hard, Always ready!"

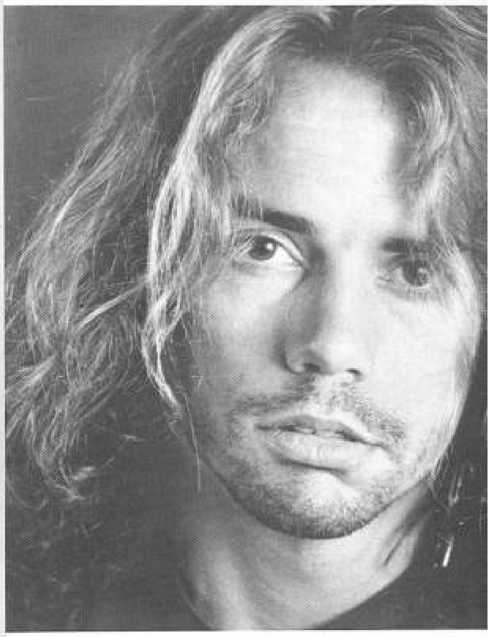
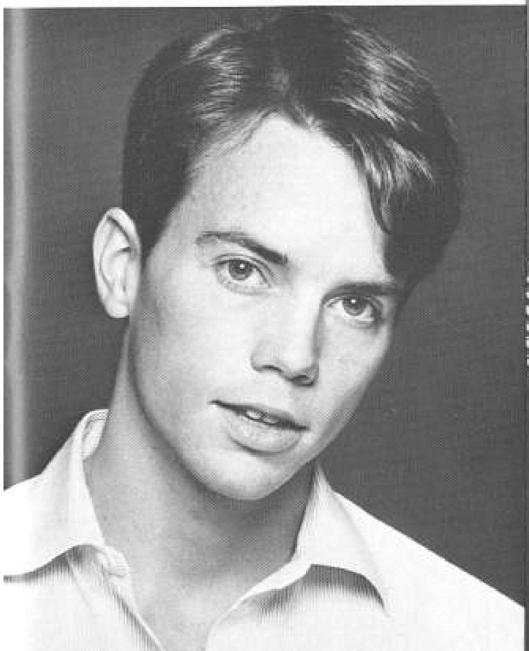
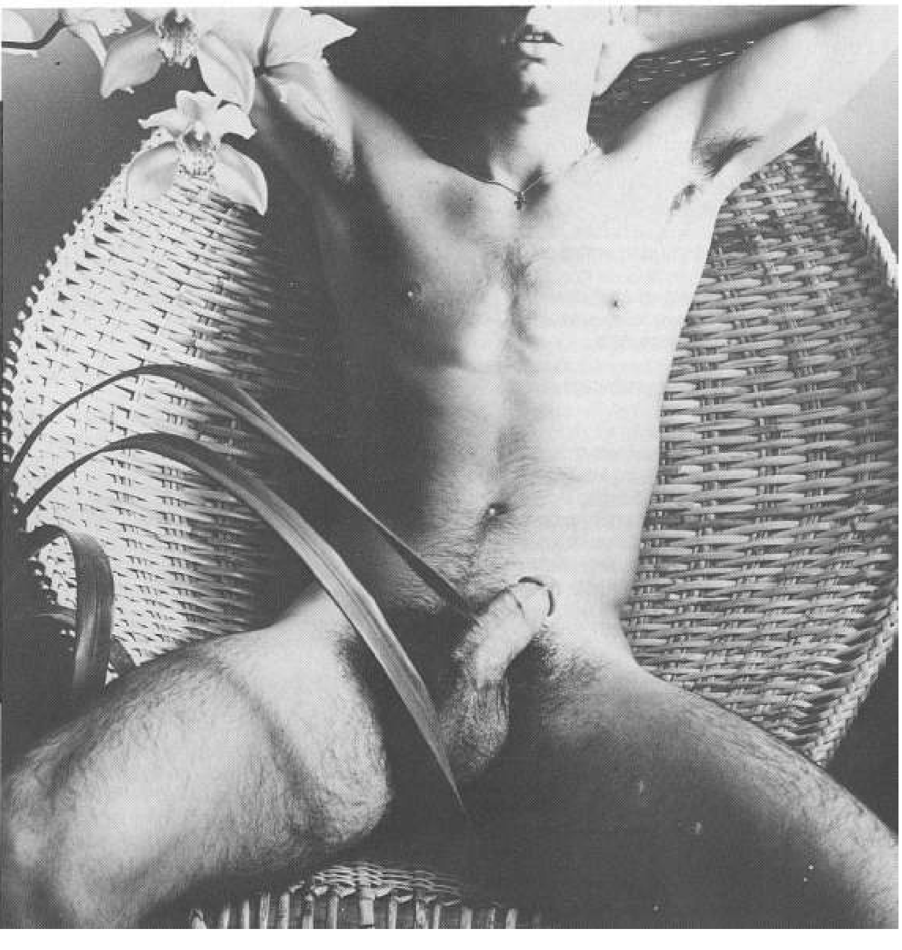
Gavin Dillard by John J. Krause



GAVIN GEOFFREY DILLARD





GAVIN GEOFFREY DILLARD is a hot item, in more ways than one, as the term in show business goes. His latest collection of poetry PAGAN LOVE SONGS is garnering lots of praise & press coverage. It's also making inroads into the non-Gay market. His friday nite performance art club FAMOUS – KNOTT – GAVIN (at Catherine 143 N. La Brea Ave., LA,CA) "Be here or be queer" has become extremely popular. He made a striking appearance as an jungle native in Matt Sterling's "STRYKER FORCE". And his creative talents will soon make him a name in the music industry.

His main project is the growth & nurturing of his own publishing house, BHAKTI Books (a Hindu word meaning finding God through love). It was created in October '87 out of a desire to have creative control over his works & to allow him to present the works of other artists to the public. He wants to find & publish the best without limits. Plans are now in the works for Gavin to pose for OUTCOME.

OUTCOME: When did you start writing poetry?

GAVIN: Honestly, as early as I can remember learning about putting a pencil to paper I was writing little couplets and illustrating them.

OUTCOME: Did your family encourage your artistic development?

GAVIN: Always. As soon as it was recognized that drawing was a bent, they found a local artist in town to tutor me on Saturdays and during the summer. Interestingly enough, some friends of the family saw my early writings and likened them to those of Ben Franklin, buying me a copy of "Poor Richard's Almanac", which became my favorite childhood book.

OUTCOME: Where was childhood?

GAVIN: Asheville, North Carolina. Home of Thomas Wolfe, O. Henry, Roberta Flack, Sam & Dave, a lot of trees and mountains, christians--- I escaped at 14 to Winston-Salem, where I finished high school at a brilliant state-supported art school. An English professor discovered my talents toward verse and gave me a two-year tutorial in poetry in place of high school English. From those two years evolved my first two books, TWENTY NINETEEN POEMS and ROSIE EMISSIONS on Catalyst.

OUTCOME: How did that come about?

GAVIN: My prof., Alton Buzbee, a southern poet, gave portions of my work to Jonathan Williams, a famed North Carolina poet from the Black Mountain school. Jonathan showed my work to Ian Young in England. Ian flew home, called me, flew me to New York, and we completed the books.

OUTCOME: Were you coming out during all this?

GAVIN: In my way. As soon as I got to school – away from home – thought patterns started changing and opening up fast. I was still under the delusion that I would someday make it with a girl and everything would change. I tried, nothing changed. Soon I met author David Dalton, at that time a bubbling young reporter for a nearby small-town paper; we fell head-long in love, I got permission from my counselor/poetry professor to move out of the dorms, David and I got a house near school and he supported me through school. He was 22, I had just turned 15. We met at a Baha'i meeting, went through our years of turmoil; he's still (and may always be) my best friend. I want to get him out here to work for BHAKTI Books.

OUTCOME: How did you end up in California?

GAVIN: Running away from David, actually. David's a Victorian, a traditionalist. We might've spent the next eighty years in that little farm house. I don't work that way, I need constant stimulation. I had to get rich and famous. And I became as dependent on him as I had with my parents; I had to get away, to find myself. L.A. was the furthest I could get my thumb and still speak the language. So I thumbed out with a friend or two from N.C.S.A., got accepted and that was that. David was furious, for a few years. Now we visit as often as affordable.

OUTCOME: How did your family react through all this?

GAVIN: Bland acceptance. They do the obligatory "you-can't-do-that" trip, I do that natural "I-am-doing-exactly-that-and-you're-paying-for-it" trip; they whine, say yes. They were going through their own turmoil. Dad was waiting to get rid of the kids so he could build up to a divorce. Some years later I supported him in that. But you are referring to the Gay issue? They whined and dealt with that as well. Dad was, surprisingly, quite loving and supportive – that was the beginning of our friendship. Mom was confused and evasive. Consequently, she got reborn – lost all her men, hit menopause, got fat, turned to Jesus, Jim and Tammy Faye. In fact the day Anita Bryant scandal hit the papers I got a letter from Mom at Anita's house. Too real. Last few years she's been wanting to retire with Jim and Tammy. Now that Jim's---well, you know---living in Malibu – I don't know what she'll do. I'll be able to buy her a little cabin in a year or so, at least she'll have her own place.

OUTCOME: Like a number of artists in the 70's you got involved in erotica. How did that come about?

GAVIN: After Cal Arts I spent some delightful time in Seattle being a radical fairy and wearing nothing but a Capezio dance skirt for a year (at Cat Arts I wore boxer shorts only for a year, no shoes or shirt – we were still hippies---). When I got to L.A. and was asked to star in a porn film (TRACK MEET), hell, that was stardom, of a sort, and it fit right into my reactionary political ideas. I still take off my clothes every chance I get – and have, in fact, built a reputation as L.A.'s naked poet, reading in the altogether at my friday night performance art salon here in Hollywood. As for the other guys (artists in porn), I don't remember them. The porn stars I knew were just that. With the exception of the Honorable Steve Schulte, who was obviously destined for fame.

OUTCOME: Steve is mentioned in your current collection, PAGAN LOVE SONGS, isn't he?

GAVIN: Maybe. We were neighbors. I've always loved Steve. He's a rare man.

OUTCOME: Were you ever a hustler?

GAVIN: I prefer "prostitute". I never stood on street corners. Though I accepted certain tempting offers. It paid the rent for some time. I learned a lot about sexuality, expectations, how people give and take each other's power. From "Track Meet" I met the "legitimate" industry hierarchy, some of who occasionally supported me. These are alluded to in P.L.S. That kind of support is a hard thing to wean one's self off of. If someone offered me enough today for something that sounded not unappealing, I wouldn't question my actions. Prostitution is a natural device. I just need more now than most have to offer, and I'm getting wealth of my own.

"STRYKER FORCE"

OUTCOME: And what of this Renaissance Man concept. Your P.R. exploits many realms.

GAVIN: I do a lot of things. I love arts. For years I thought I needed to limit myself to just one art form – or so I was instructed by older artists – they were just jealous. We need never limit ourselves. I live in a photo studio with the brilliant Steven Arnold, a recent best friend. We have an adjoining "invitation only" gallery. I paint regularly, photograph, continually pose for Steven and a few other noteworthy (to my tastes) photographers and artists. I have dozens of R&B songs coming out, co-written with David Francis, which will retire me. And I'm always collecting monies for BHAKTI, for my next three finished books (all of which will be illustrated), Steven's new book of nudes, and other projects. I do graphic design, landscape design, just got nominated for the best theatre set of the year for a play I art directed. I've been a catholic monk, a Hindu monk, chanelled seven disembodied entities (see PEOPLE magazine, August 31, 1987), and now I'm chanelling me, full time! You know, you can do it all! And if I haven't, I will.

PAGAN LOVE SONGS is available direct from Gavin's publishing company BHAKTI BOOKS (8306 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 2656, Beverly Hills, CA 90211). The price is $7.95 plus $1.00 postage & handling.

His previous books are available from SEAHORSE (POB 509, Village Station, NYC, NY 10014). Write for information.

NEXT ISSUE: Brush off the chills of winter with The CHAMPION Collection's DANA SUMMERS!! Plus more exciting work from the ATHLETIC MODEL GUILD, FILMCO OLD RELIABLE, and some surprises. KEN RICHIE returns with another hot tale & of course LOTS MORE HOT PERSONALS!!!

FILMCO discovery DAVID WATSON is a very hot mix of Black and Latino. You may have seen his pictures in a number of magazines but as he's one of my favorite models (Filmco's too) I wanted to gather some info on him & get a wider range of pix. Filmco obliged with an assortment of pix till now unpublished.

David is 22, 5'9", 160 lbs. (shoe size 9½). He loves sports esp. baseball. He works out at the YMCA at least twice a week & earns his living as a housing construction worker. He considers himself bi-sexual. Filmco says he's a really nice guy. He's very together, stable & friendly. Filmco has starred him in their video BLACK SEX PARTY which is THE tape for Watson fans. He's also in their BLACK LUST, WHITE PASSION video as reviewed last issue in OUTCOME. We're very pleased to give him some well deserved recognition.

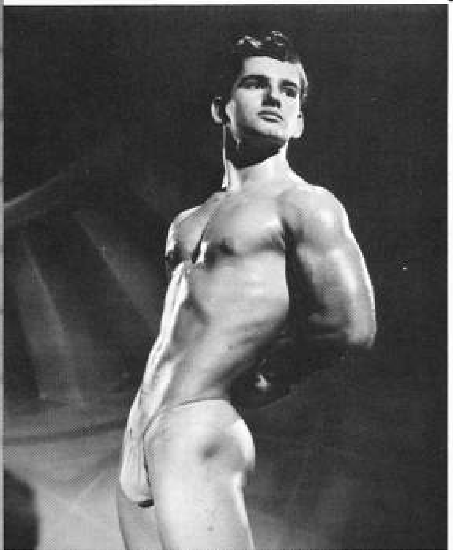
AMG

We are extremely pleased to welcome the ATHLETIC MODEL GUILD to our family! Starting this issue we'll be presenting to you layouts on this legendary studio who is still going strong after 43 years!!!Bob Mizer was kind enough to take a moment out of his busy schedule to give OUTCOME some info about how AMG came about. The year was 1944. Bob was working for Frederick KOVERT of HOLLYWOOD, a Physique studio at the corner of Melrose & Highland in Hollywood. By late 1945 Bob was ready to begin his own operation & in December he joined with two "partners". One was a lawyer running for a judgeship & the other a talented photographer, Jack O'Neill. The good judge had to leave the company rather shortly due to being murdered (Bob & Jack didn't want that silent a partner). Thus was the ATHLETIC MODEL GUILD created.Bob soon found that Jack had another partner, the bottle, & didn't get along well with models. In '46 he parted company with Jack. Early training from a dance photographer named Constantine, who operated under the name SPARTAN, gave Bob the knowledge & confidence to go it alone. This is all quite astonishing when you consider the year. There was no national Gay press, no Gay Physique mags, no openly Gay anything & the Stonewall riots were 23 years away.

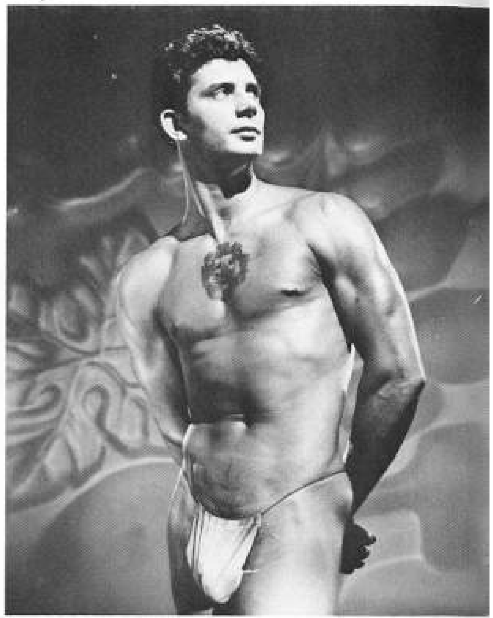
Ads placed in a magazine called Strength & Health quickly garnered them a following. Alas Ike & queen Mamie took power & the government began an anti-Gay campaign. The Post Office contacted "Strength & Health" and said if the Physique studio ads weren't dropped there would be trouble.

PHYSIQUE
PICTORIAL

So in 1951 Bob, KOVERT, SPARTAN, Al Urban, Russ Warner, Dave Martin & the other photographers put together a a little booklet of photo ads. This developed into that legendary little catalog/magazine PHYSIQUE PICTORIAL. It was the beginning of the Physique Era, the Golden Age of Gay erotica! The magazine not only was a catalog of the work AMG was offering but it introduced readers to the work of other photo studios & artists and had some articles, all for 15 cents. That inspiredother studios to began putting out mags of their work, such as Champion's BIG magazine, but none had the same unique flavor of P.P. Bob also had to use his genius to create a self contained business in order to operate. Machines had to be improvised to process his photography. His property at 1834 West 11th Street (Los Angeles, Ca 90006) became a special all-male world. It grew & grew until today's compound exists. Today, behind its high walls, tight security, & electronic gates, exists the Mecca where all young men come to be captured by Bob's camera. He photographs them all: Marines to hustlers, smooth skinned to hairy, clean shaven to bearded, street toughs to athletes, straight-Gay-Bi. Some (Dennis Cole, Gary Conway) go on to the silver screen & TV, some (Angel Damien/Brian Hawks, Brian Idol, Tico Patterson) go on to become porn stars & some (Joe D'Allesandro) become legends. Most pass through and continue on in everyday type lives.



1988© Athletic Model Guild



In the beginning his pictures were 50 for $3.00, the equivalent of a magazine. These gave way to color slides & 8mm loops of posing sessions & story lines from history, fantasy & science fiction. Physique Pictorial went from 15 cents to 35 cents to $1 to today's $3.00. Though only the size of the east coast mag "Cruise" it's worth double the price. Bob developed a series of special symbols for the initiated to tell what models are really like. He provides inside info, gossip & acres of pix of his subjects. His newest project is offering videos of his photo sessions.

You can purchase direct from AMG a set of 40 of the classic issues of Physique Pictorial for $100 or copies of the more to most recent for $3.00 each. You can also buy 8x10 prints of those priceless b&w Physique pictures for just $7.00 each BUT you must order a minimum of 6 poses per model. I know you collectors out there will be as pleased & surprised as I was to find out this work is now available!! For more information check out the AMG ad in this issue or you can send $3.00 for the current issue of P.P.

PAGAN
LOVE SONGS
Gavin Geoffrey Dillard

Painting by Don Bachardy

A modern-day Huck Finn in which sexuality plays the part of the mighty Mississippi!

Love in all its multiple forms is the hero here. And hate is the enemy. Gavin Dillard writes with his heart and his glands. If Eros is a god, Gavin is more than a suppliant. He is a muse who amuses, the laureate of the sensual: a rare and special poet.

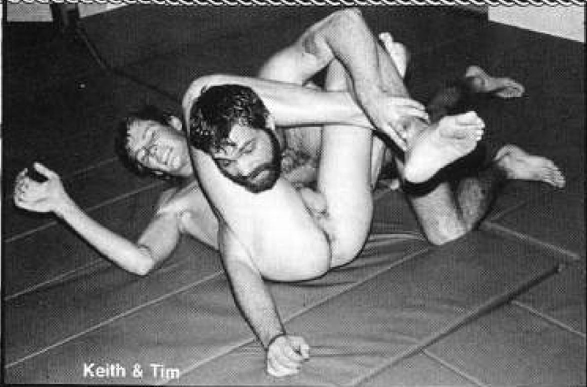
WRESTLING

Keith & Butch G.



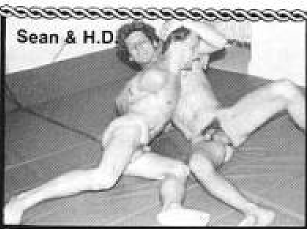
Keith & Tim

Flash & Bill S.

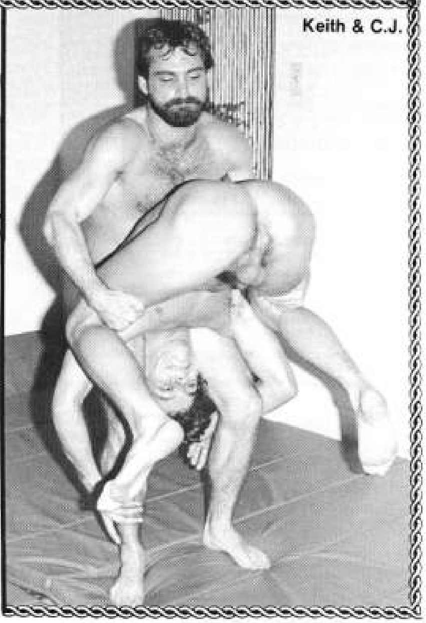
VT-66 WRESTLING #15

Keith and Butch G. are as close to a grudge match as you'd want to get! Keith remains unbeatable, but Butch has come a long way from his first bout. He gives it his all, and it takes a sleeper (no faking, here!) to stop Butch. You decide the winner . . . Keith felt he won, but Butch remained ready to keep at it, so . . . ! With Flash and Bill Smith, you get a rare flash of temper as Bill Smith feels he's being abused and gets ready to fight! Some guys just can't take being beat! Keith finally gets his knocks, however, when he takes on Tim; whether or not you care for Tim, he is wiry, doesn't know pain, and has a natural ability to hurt. Keith gets more workout than he bargained for!

Ron & David



Sean & H.D.



Keith & C.J.

VT-68 WRESTLING #17

Here are Keith and C.J. in a pretty brief match. Both are tough-enough and bad to the bone, so I expected some rough action, since both love neck holds. Either Keith wasn't up to battle this day, or C.J. wanted to end it early and get some rest. It's rough, but short. Sean and H.D. was a mismatch as Sean throws H.D. around with no problem, but the pleasure is in watching two such smooth and well-defined bodies in action; this is H.D.'s first encounter, but not the last. Finally, we've got two brothers, Ron and David. David is the older one, with the tattoos, and he felt it was time to remind Ron who big brother was.

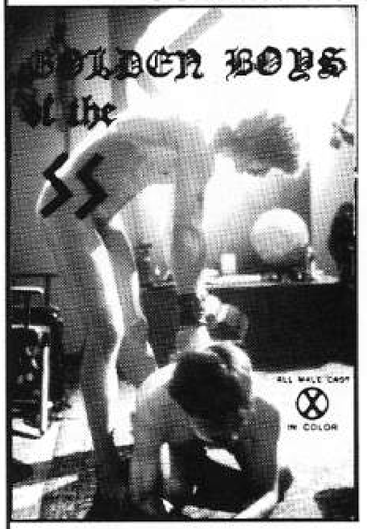
GOLDEN BOYS OF THE SS



Starring
RON JONES JOHN BANKS
ALLAN APELY BILLY BUDD

REG $58.88
NOW $29.95

For the first time this controversial feature can be legally released. Golden Boys of the SS is a decadent tale of two RAF flyers who are shot down behind enemy lines in Nazi Germany. Their interrogation by two sadistic SS officers includes FF, W/S and much S&M. Later the officers bring in "CUR" played by Billy Budd. Chained in a dog collar and treated like an animal, Billy's meals consist of servicing the needs of the desperate prisoners. This film is uncut and uncensored and definitely not for the squeamish. 75 min.

From commonGROUND Studio we have 19 year old DRU L'CHAVIER. Dru is a hot mix of French-Vietnamese stock who stands 5'6". He weights in at 155 lbs with light, smooth, silky skin & very dark brown hair. He has an 8" penis and a great smile. He was brought up in England and went to school in one of those, you know, all boy English public schools (nudge, nudge know what I mean). Photographer Chris Sparx says "The only reason Dru posed for me is so he could get into my pants. It got real HARD taking pictures with Dru attacking me! Dru is very good sex. I'll repeat---real good sex. A bit of an intellect but it doesn't get in the way. Poor Chris, just trying to do his job. Check out his ad in the personals section for info on buying pix & slides of Dru and his other great models

YES, issue #3, will wonders never cease! Let's get serious to begin. Since the only response Raygun & The Goosesteppers can devise to combat AIDS is to demand testing to identify the victims & do who-knows-what with them, OUTCOME strongly suggests you NOT TAKE THE AIDS TEST! WHY? A) The test isn't accurate. You can test positive & be negative or vice versa. B) If the test says you are ok you might get over confident & it may turn out in reality you have the virus. C) THERE IS NO CURE! Without that, knowing does you no good; & D) More & more the Test is being used to identify & isolate victims. You might lose your job, home, etc.

SO WHAT SHOULD YOU DO? YOU SHOULD BEHAVE AS IF YOU & EVERYONE ELSE HAVE AIDS & ACT RESPONSIBLY! This is the only sane response at present. It's the best weapon against the virus & the far right. Make love but do so responsibly. Get back to basics: kiss, hug, fondle, caress & talk. Don't go to bed five seconds after you meet. Have a few dates & get to know each other. Less interest in sexual performance & more interest in discovering each other would go a long way. When you do get into sex, relax, have fun. Use your imagination & you'll find SafeSex is more, not less. Don't fuck! You like to get fucked, have your partner use a dildoe to do it – it can be very sensual! Your partner says he can only get off by fucking you for real. If he refuses to use a condom (not 100 percent safe, considering possibilities of splitting or leakage, etc, especially with lambskin), dump him. Your life is too important to play games with! You always have masturbation for release & no one knows better how to make you feel good. "I bop he bopa she bop" as Cindi Lauper puts it.

WHAT'S THE BEST CURE FOR AIDS? IT'S THE VOTING BOOTH ON NOV. 2, 1988! The sooner Raygun & the GOP are out of power the sooner we'll get responsible government action to combat the virus. Your vote has now become a matter of life & death. We have to remove the far right totally from government. GET OFF YOUR FAT ASSES & VOTE IN ALL ELECTIONS! And Fuck this Gay Republicans CRAP! You can't be a member of a group who is actively seeking your destruction. We need more responsible Gay politicians & a Gay community responsible enough to be like our Black brothers & sisters and flex our voting muscle! If we aren't responsible enough to fight for our rights as Gay Americans we have no one to blame but ourselves

We would really like to express our sincere thanks to all of you who wrote letters of encouragement. They helped a lot in keeping us going after the fire. With your support we'll make a success of OUTCOME! We're sorry for these delays between issues but you'll note they are getting shorter.

THE FIFTH WORD

by Kenn Richie

"That's where the trouble starts for me," I laughed. "That's where it starts assuming something. 'In the beginning,' I have no problem with, because I'm sure there had to be a beginning, and I don't have any trouble saying 'God,' because I figure there has to be some force or power, but when you say, 'God created,' that's making an assumption. All of a sudden, I want to stop and consider the source, you know? Some prophet finally wrote that down who heard it from his Poppa, and so forth. There was a lot of begatting going on in those days. So, this guy finally puts it down on paper---or, parchment, but how does he know? He's just taking someone else's word for it. So, the way I see it, the whole book does that. From the fifth word on, it's all guess work. Oh, a lot of it is good guessing and makes a lot of sense, but it's still someone's idea of what to write down, and there's never been a writer yet who didn't color a phrase or add an opinion to suit himself."

"I want to suck your cock," Martin answered. I blushed so fiercely that I thought my cheeks would crack from the heat. It wasn't for what he had said, for I'd come to this private, walled-from-view, garden this afternoon, hoping he'd want to suck my cock. It was the fact that he'd stopped me from one of my babbling tirades that was making it difficult to hide my embarrassment.

We'd been together before this. Martin and I were damned near lovers for a while, but then – 'In the beginning,' so to speak – Martin & some character were on their way back from the beach wearing only swim trunks, and soaking up smoggy sun in Martin's convertible. Driving through Beverly Hills, Martin got a crazy impulse and decided he wanted a fresh water swim. His totally astonished companion said he just stopped the car at the first nice looking house he saw & jumped the fence. He trespassed his way down to a pool, just in time to see an unattended baby fall in, face down. Martin saved the toddler's life.

It's hard to use a word like 'coincidence' when tears are flying & people are screaming 'miracle.' Martin managed to get away from the scene before there was an publicity, but he was so shaken that his friend had to drive him home, where he locked himself in and wouldn't answer his door or his phone for days.

The next thing we knew, some of his friends got postcard views of a monastery in Oregon that were signed by "Brother Martin," and had notes to the effect that his sins were now behind him. I rather resented being called a sin, so I wrote him off as a screwball I used to know. Then, several months later, he reappeared at one of the old haunts. He was tired & upset, and didn't want to face all of the old friends but was glad I'd come in early, for I would break the news of his return. He gave me the address of this garden apartment, and asked me to spend the next afternoon with him.

Well, here I was. I was already stretching my pants with a partial hardon remembering what a great cocksucker he was, & now, of course, my heart was thumping to hear he wanted to have a go at it. Still, the both of us were snarled up in a mess of mind trips and question about the religion he'd acquired, quite literally, with a splash.

"Did you hear me, Jimmy? I really do want to suck your cock."

"This is a great place for it," I grinned. "Nobody can see, so we can get full naked & lie down on that lawn part there, and wow. It's a regular garden of Eden!" I damn near bit my tongue off when I realized I'd used another biblical image, but I also started undressing to try to ensure that he didn't change his mind.

"Nice religious family owns this place, & they're in Europe for the summer. They arranged for me to use it, watering the garden & all. It's supposed to help me get readjusted to the outside world."

"Fair enough," I mumbled, "seeing as how you gave the church all your worldly possessions going in."

"Jimmy, will you help me?! I trusted you to at least try to understand what I'm going through!" He paused a moment, then grumbled a real complaint of, "You've put on a gut. You get lazy and quit working out?"

"I guess," I chuckled, then resumed my strip, relieved that he wasn't going to get too far from the idea he'd suggested. It was more than obvious, however, that he was having trouble returning to the old sin that was me, about 10 pounds heavier.

"I've got to tell you why I quit up there," he began with a sigh. He sat on a small concrete bench that faced a statue-fountain thing that I guessed was supposed to be St. Francis.

"I kinda hoped you would," I answered as I sat beside him. That damn concrete was like ice on my butt, protected only by my jockeys.

"Let's skip all the 'golly gee whiz' crap & get to the bottom line about gay activity in a monastery," he moaned. "So? O.K., it happens, all right? Not me, Jimmy. I didn't even let myself think about it, at least, I tried not to. But, there were other brothers."

"I'd be surprised if you said that sort of thing didn't happen," I assured him, wondering how it could have been the reason he left if he hadn't been involved.

"First, you've got to understand about the vow of celibacy," he instructed. "People toss that word around these days, and they've got it all screwed up. Celibacy means that you won't get married. You take a vow of chastity to say you won't have sex. You take your typical swinging bachelor today, and if he says he's practicing celibacy, it doesn't mean a damn thing. He has no intention of getting married anyway. It doesn't mean he isn't interested in sex. O.K., then. According to the church, you aren't supposed to have sex unless you're married, so it should amount to the same thing. Only, if you stop to think of it, in terms of a Gay man going into a brotherhood? He might take a vow of celibacy, all right, but suppose he doesn't take a vow of chastity? You get it?"

"You mean, he's home free?"

"Not hardly," Martin laughed, almost in spite of himself. "But when he goes to confession, it's for the sin of what he did. He doesn't have to confess to having broken a vow. It's like it's not as heavy on his conscience."

"Like the difference between swiping an apple from the grocer, and grand larceny, right?"

"Stealing is stealing in the eyes of God," he preached, then he nodded & admitted, "Yeah, kinda like that. At least, that's how the guys I ran into felt about it. It's pretty hypocritical, but, they thought it was no big thing, they didn't have any real feeling of guilt about it."

"From what I've heard the church is tightening the screws on Gays, not easing up." "Yeah. Maybe what I just told you is a lot of the reason why. Anyway, I just happened to be in the cellar when these two guys came in to have a little quickie, o.k.? Well, shit, I was so embarrassed that I just hid there & waited for them to finish and leave."

"The sin of the peeping Tom?"

"Will you be serious?! Damn it, Jimmy, I'm trying to explain something that's important to me. It wasn't what they did, it was the way they did it. There wasn't a damned thing about it that you could call love. In fact, they actually got their rocks off over the whole idea that it was a sin, and something evil & dirty. They kept calling each other names, damning each other, using bible quote to do that, and all like it was just a game they used to to make each other more excited!"

"Whatever turns you on," I mumbled, but I knew how much that must have bothered Martin.

"So, I did what good brothers are supposed to do, I meditated & I prayed a lot, but I just couldn't live with---or even near where sex had to be evil before it could be exciting. I ended up blaming the church for creating that whole atmosphere."

"In the beginning, God created," I reminded, rather sarcastically.

"Don't get me pissed off," he growled. "It just so happens that I do believe in God, but I believe in a loving God. The whole idea of two men loving each other in a way that celebrates the wonders of their bodies is, to me, a downright Holy thing! I can't imagine a God that wouldn't approve of that, it's everything God stands for! But, when I saw those two deliberately trying to make it evil & dirty, I damn near got sick. It was like they were giving God the finger."

"If you have to go by the book, there's the one about 'judge not'," I suggested.

"What I started judging was the church, and the bible, for making sex into a sin. I can't believe God wants us to feel guilty or ashamed, & I'm positive God doesn't want us to get our kicks out of feeling like we're doing something wrong."

"Somebody wrote it down, Martin. Yeah, I know, a lot of people like to believe that God dictated every word, but even if that was true, how come no one lets God make revisions? They keep updating the dictionary, the

It begins with Lee already defoliated with the credits written all over him. I like this concept a lot but not here. It blunts the full impact of the ending. Then on to the story. Lee has just lost at poker to Al & goes into the bathroom (not the john!) & pees. Al bounces in, handcuffs him to the shower rod (Al's a fun host!), takes off Lee's belt & wumps his behind. Then he takes him off the rod, still cuffed, and bends him over the tub for an enema of booze (you guys at Oh Johnny's take note). He has an inflatable bulb attached to the enema tube which is puffed up before they play gas station. Magically Lee is transported to the bed & restrained while the haircut begins. Al cuts holes in Lee's shirt to reveal his nipples (not tits, Al, he isn't a TV). Al also does a great Mo Howard slapping routine. Then another Daiquiri Douche & more head shaving. Then Al shaves around Lee's nipples, crotch & clears a path up his chest. He then finishes the head shave, takes off Lee's eyebrows, underarm hair, balance of chest hair, leg hair, arm hair & ass hair. Popping a dog collar on Lee, he has him drink from a dog dish & then drops on wax on his ass & anus. Another Old Fashion enema & on go the nipple clamps & his erection gets a riding crop work out. Then Lee has to sit on a dildoe strapped to a bench, have a dildoe strapped in & FINALLY jerks off while he fucks himself with a dildoe. These videos must be getting to me. All through this I kept hearing a whirring, like a camera power wind.

SIRCO informs me that some of you ditzes thought PISS PIG contained a sow. I even got a letter from the Pig Anti-Defamation League (PAL, no, not that one, the other pigs). So as I discuss the second SIRCO wee-wee video let's keep this in mind, hey! PISS PIG II: The Bladder Strikes Back ($59.00 SIRCO, POB 14425, SF, CA 94114) begins with with the ever cute Kid Billy, star of Part I, doing an interview. Then he wets the bed again and pisses on a 350 lb. person (who should be believed & not seen). A gent then fills a specimen jar. Billy pees atop a roof while battling winds & then does it again in a neighbor's front yard (yes friends this was done in San Francisco). Sir his self then pees directly at the camera & you are there! A close shot then shows a guy in snow white briefs (she got into the brief business after the divorce) getting them wet & a hot guy in baggy white cotton Moroccan trousers follows suit. The priest from 1 returns and gets a drink from Sir. It's an interesting tape with quite a number of different scenes. If you really like cum shots you'll love Sirco's CUM CHRONICLES. A solid tape of cum shots! A wide variety of guys from hairy to smooth skined, cut to un-cut, big to average, etc. masturbate to climax or are jerked to climax by another. You get to see various methods & Sir shot each segment differently. Great too is that you see the guys' faces. They're not just headless bodys or bodyless dicks. It's a real treat!

From "Cum Chronicles" © 1987 SIRCO

SIRCO also sent along a couple of their PHONE PHUCKS audio tapes which are really hot. The premise is various guys calling and leaving explicit messages on an answering machine. As ole Ollie North would say It's a neat idea (then he'd shred it & refuse to tell Ronnie). There are 5 "Phone Phucks" tapes (plus a number of other theme tapes); they run 60 minutes & cost $15.00 ea. or two for $25.00.

Also in the audio tape area, Tim Mansfield (3370 N. Hayden Rd., Suite 123-152, Scottsdale, AZ 85251) has an interesting concept: hypnosis tapes. You just put on the tape & Tim puts you into a state of relaxation & through suggestion guides you into an erotic fantasy. It's a novel alternative to videos & really gets you relaxed! Send a SASE to him for more info. He's planning on offering a wide variety of tapes from sexual experiences to helping maintain an erection or enhancing your memory or getting you to stop smoking. Let him know your interests. Mention OUTCOME for super quick attention.

If you're into drag you might want to check out Avery Willard's book "Female Impersonation" (Regiment Publications, Box 247 Grand Central Station, NYC, NY 10163) It's an incredible book that covers the great names and films of the art form, from Ray Bourbon to Mario Montez. There's a section on major film drags also. Published in '71 ,it sold for $5.00. Regiment (who publishes "Gay Scene") got their hands on some copies & is offering then, for just $1.95 (plus $1.00) postage. Not that I don't want you guys to get a great deal but it seems no one knows the real value of this kind of collector's item. It's a look at an era that will never be again & an art form rarely seen (except on "You Can't Do That On Television"—Alistar Gillis has been in drag more times than Milton Berle!)

Last, I want to take a moment to formally announce that we now have two very hot lovers representing us in CANADA. They are: MARCEL-RENE PROVOST & BARRY O'BRIEN & they can be reached at: C.P. 41 Succ. 'M', Montreal, QC H1V-3L6. We're really pleased at having them with us. Through them we will be doing a lot of coverage of CANADA. They are on the look out for articles, features, interviews, news & of course those Hot Canadian men to pose for OUTCOME! Marcel is French-Canadian & is happy to translates personals from French to English or vice versa, depending on who you want. We are, might I add, the first American Gay Slick to reach out to our brothers in Canada instead of just selling mags to them. OUTCOME is your magazine too so drop Marcel & Barry a line and say bonjour/hello!

TIGER BOY TALES

Our guy in Arizona updates us on the wild goings on in Phoenix (as opposed to the wild goings on in the governor's mind).

Why is it I get letters from people named John, Dick, Harry, Peter? Did their parents suspect something when they were born & named them that? How about a new model, the original "Toby Boy" of Arizona? Toby is 19, built (V), nice plumpish rumps, smooth, BIG Cock, 2 balls, longish blondish brown hair – darker on balls, deep ass hole (don't ask how I know), cute, sexy, experienced in most sex things but really straight. Got some hot shots of him painting outdoors & indoors nude. Toby likes to rollerskate. You should have seen him bare his ass when he fell. He has the best ass! Surely his would be for face sitting but he said it would cost to suck his ass. I got to wake him up a few times and grab his ass & jiggle it. For pix I put stars on his moons. Some time I'll rub fluorescent paint on his moons, can hardly wait! I better stop or you'll think I'm perverted. I'm trying to talk him into letting you run his pix but he's not ready for that yet. I do have LOTS of sets of him. Did great shots of him in the PARR OF ARIZONA store (that's who gives me all the great stuff I wear). Everyone went wild.

Toby sets of note!: T-1- Toby at Parr...20 pix $20, T-6 – all frontal nudes...10 pix $15, T-7 – all rear nudes...10 pix $15, T-9 -dark glasses/levi jacket in & out of cut offs...10 pix $12, T-18 – blue thong & nude on mattress in pool -bends to show it all...6 pix $12.

Roberts also has some really hot pix of his model JOHN sucking his toes (J-16...6 pix $12.00), inserting items up his cute ass (J-20...20 pix $25), plus lots of other sets.

For this issue I thought I let you guys check out what I look like at work, hot & sweaty. I was suppose to tell you about that drugstore thing. A lady sittin' right back of my ass—eye level—me with jock & red shorts a little see through. I gave her the thrill of he life. Shit, out of space. Remind me to finish next time!

Guiness book of records, the bloody phone book, but no one's going to allow one word of the bible to be changed to bring it up to date. Mankind really put a lid on it by publishing it! I figure that back in the days when it was written, some of those laws about sex were probably necessary. You had life expectancy at around 30 years, no medical science to speak of, so they must have needed some heavy rules just to protect the tribe, or whatever it was, to 'go forth and multiply.' But, now, we've multiplied to where half the planet is starving from over population, but nobody's going to let God write or dictate a new book, chapter and verse to bring it up to date?"

"I still want to suck your cock," he answered, again making fun of how I tend to get riled up on the subject. I answered him, this time, not with a blush, but with the gesture of standing, pulling my shorts off, & crossing over to the lawn area that looked so inviting. I stretched in the late sun that seemed to make the grass smell even sweeter, and my cock began to grow firm.

I knew Martin was nervous & deeply troubled, for he'd plunged so deeply, & emotionally, into his search for answers to the mysteries of life. I felt pleasure far more than the mere sensual, sexual pleasure, in having him sit beside me and begin stroking my leg. "I'm so afraid that I'll start thinking I'm doing something wrong," he near whimpered. "I'd listened to all that talk about sin & evil, and it was confusing, but I was trying to believe it. But, when I saw some guys actually getting off on that, then I knew it was wrong."

"What's in your own conscience about this, Martin? Never mind what the other guys felt, never mind what anyone else has to say about it, how do you feel?"

"It's been a while," he grinned. "Maybe I've forgotten how." I lay back and let my gaze dance about through the branches of a fruit tree, still partially in bloom, but dotted with tiny green balls that would one day be fine peaches. I was tripping out over the wonders of nature, & I found that in everything that was happening.

Martin hesitated only a moment, then he began washing and preparing my balls & cock for his full adoration. It had been a while, yet his mouth was as magnificent as I remembered it, one of gentle, warm, moist perfection.

I wondered about God, even as I thrilled to Martin's licking between my legs. It seemed appropriate. Life? Death? Infinity? They are all question that no man can answer, yet we suppose there must be answers somewhere.

Martin's lips encircled the head of my penis & traveled its full length in one, long, steady movement. It was always one of the trademarks of his skill at oral sex, but this time, it felt even more sensational than I remembered. He sucked tightly and enveloped every surface of my hardness with caressing, wet embrace.

Who could say whether or not there was really a God? Who could say that without assuming? It's in the first line of the book, at the fifth word, that man begins to assume he knows God.

Martin began riding up & down on my shaft, slowly and fully, gliding it through his tight pursed lips then on into the close sucked tunnel of his mouth to the passageway of his throat. The physical touch was an incredible thrill, but it was more. Something else was growing within me, something as powerful as my cock, and it was growing with the same excitement that grew in the sex. Just as I opened my mouth to gasp & whimper over the thrills I felt on my cock, I opened my eyes to again wander through the tree, to the sky. I was totally lost to the sweet scents and sounds of the quiet garden. My cock rejoiced with each full stroke into Martin's mouth, his hands sent electricity through my body as they caressed my chest & my legs. "I love this---Martin---love---I love the love---love me." The so often heard phrase, 'God is love,' echoed through my brain. My penis was swelling & throbbing as if to keep time with the music of some great orchestra. I could feel on my iron hard shaft that Martin was free of the sin he had feared, the sin of believing it was a sin to present to me this great gift of natural joy.

I had tears rolling over my cheeks as I gave myself to my religious friend in a totally surrendered orgasm. I knew it was the completion of an act that had brought him back to controlling his own conscience. Whether it was a Holy thing or a sin was for no man to decide but Martin, and there was no question as to which of those he found it to be as he tightly sucked & milked my spear of its every precious drop of life fluid. I felt I had returned him to life.

In fact, as my spasms of orgasm began to subside, I felt a strange rush of pride for my part in his rescue. I thought of how he must have felt when he'd rescued that baby. I was quite prepared to believe the thought that God had put me here for this purpose.

We lay quietly on the grass for a long while before I took the risk that he might think I was teasing him, and asked if he would take me to church. "I don't mean one that talks about sin, because I know better. But, I know there are Gay churches, and there are Gay groups within some of the other organized religions. I think I'd like to just go, & listen, and see if maybe I can agree with the assumption some writer put down with that fifth word. Would you go with me? Take me?"

"You'll have to put your clothes on first," he answered, kissing me on the forehead.

DWIGHT KASSEL

The Guy We Can't Live Without

Fuck the hamburgers, it's DWIGHT KASSEL whose taste we can't live without! He has a lot more meat & check out those buns! This serious minded 19 year old gymnast hails from San Diego where, like most California guys, he rides the waves & worked the beaches as a lifeguard (a damn good reason to go in deep water if you can't swim). He earned extra cash while in junior college posing for physique pix for Champion. The only problem was getting all of Dwight into those little outfits. MAN-AGE discovered a really hot tale about Dwight & a buddy in the Champion archives. Too long to print here, they are giving copy away free to patrons who purchase Dwight's sets. Be sure to request it when you order!

JOHN HUGHS

Successful in his mid-twenties as a puppeteer, actor, stage set & costume designer JOHN HUGH had lots of fun in his delightful drawings recalling the carefree days of youth. Hugh's collection of skilled drawings were dedicated to Champion's magazine GO GUYS, helping to make it a great success in those uncertain years of the early '60's. John's sketches and work in the theatre reflected his warm, friendly sense of humor, wanting to advance the positive face of Gay men in those dark pre-Stonewall days. These two artists, like their peers, were the light that kept Gay men together & exposed the heterosexual myths about us. OUTCOME intends to keep alive their memory & introduce our heritage to new generations of Gays.

JEREMY SCOTT

FROM EROTICA TO HAIR, ALWAYS A STAR

By Bill Spencer

Early in 1980 – which by now practically seems like a prehistoric era in terms of all-male films, a new face appeared in movies which lit up screens with a boyish image, curly-hair, dimples – almost the male equivalent of Shirley Temple. Yet this angelic boy-next-door-you-wish also had a most prodigious phallic endowment, capped with a unique mushroom cockhead; the perfect implication of a cherub's body; exuded genuine charm and could act. When William Higgins debuted The Class of '84, Part 1, all anyone could talk about was JEREMY SCOTT. He was 18 when he became a star. Now, at 25, he's a professional hair stylist in Orange County, CA. While vacationing recently in New York he dropped by the offices of OUTCOME & gave us an interview.

OUTCOME: Tell us about your background.

JEREMY: I was born in San Diego and grew up in Orange County, California. I was raised in a typical American family. We were Mormons, so I had a rather strict upbringing in a fairly religious household. My family weren't fanatics or anything, but my childhood was fairly bland and kind of sheltered. I wasn't even allowed to wear blue jeans until I was 15. I was a good student – graduated from high school when I was 16 and went immediately into business college. I had gone to a professional training school while I was in high school, graduated from high school with honors, in the top ten in my class.

OUTCOME: Did you come out while you were still living at home?

JEREMY: No! I always pretty much knew who and what I was attracted to, but in high school I dated girls and went to school dances. I even once was "married" to a girl as part of a social studies course. We actually were going together and everybody "knew" that sooner or later we'd get married. But I was also going to parks and Gay beaches. Even while I had a girlfriend, I also had boyfriends – and it was with them that I was actually having sex.

OUTCOME: What was your first sexual experience?

JEREMY: It was with a guy, in a bathroom at a park in Laguna Beach. I hadn't done anything sexually before that, not even jacking off.

OUTCOME: Did it "change your life?"

JEREMY: No. It was a much more evolutionary process than that. But not too long after that, I had my first lover. That hastened along the process.

OUTCOME: How did you tell your parents, or did you?

JEREMY: I didn't. When I broke up with that first lover – after about 9 months – he called my parents in the middle of the night and told them I'm Gay. My mother just said "Oh," and told my dad and rolled over and went back to sleep. When they were awake and talked about it and so forth, it wasn't all sweetness and light, but they accepted it. My mother was great from the first, but my dad went through the "I don't want to talk about it" stage for awhile.

OUTCOME: Does your family know about your being a Gay movie star?

JEREMY: They know and they never felt it was all that much different than if I was in any other kind of work. I have a sister who's in high school and had a younger brother who got killed in a motorcycle accident in March '84. They both took everything completely in stride. My brother used to go around bragging about the fact that his big brother was a Gay film star. Bill was straight – had more girlfriends than anybody I ever knew – but he was proud of the fact of who I was. He was great! I miss him a lot.

OUTCOME: You started in the business with Class of '84?*

JEREMY: Well, yes and no. I worked for Bill Higgins for about three years and most of what I did was off-screen. I organized and ran the office of what became Catalina Video, took and filled mail orders, did everything in the office end of the operation. Before I left, I supervised a crew of about 20. Running the office was really the only part of the business I was interested in. Coming from the background I came from, I had never seen anything like Bill's films and really didn't know or care about such things. But then, one day, an actor didn't show up for a scene. Bill had talked to me once or twice about doing something in a film, but I wasn't interested. But this was kind of an emergency, so I agreed and jumped out of my clothes and did the scene. But, what's funny is, I then jumped back into my clothes – and kept them on – and went right back to running the office. Then, awhile later, Bill decided he wanted to change the idea of the movie to feature me. I kind of let him talk me into it.

OUTCOME: How many films did you do altogether?

JEREMY: I really don't know, maybe about 30, I guess. It sounds funny, like some kind of false modesty or something, but I was never really interested in my film "career," never really saw one of my films all the way through. Making movies was just something I did. I'm much happier now, cutting hair for a living. Maybe some people would think I'm crazy, but I think doing what I do now is a lot more creative, a lot more fun, a lot more interesting.

OUTCOME: Do you mean, in effect, you didn't like making movies?

JEREMY: No, no. I don't mean that at all. It just never was something that was important to me. I don't want to come off sounding like some sort of hypocrite, "poor little rich boy" or such – not that I'm rich, by any means – I just mean that I didn't take it seriously. I never really thought about making films as a career thing. Now I've actually got a real career and it is something I like and care about.

OUTCOME: What are your plans for the future?

JEREMY: *Well, I don't really like to make long-range plans. I'm pursuing my career as a hair designer in a private hair design studio. I head a design team. DIRECTED EVOLUTION or, Deja Vu: didn't the Sapiens kill off the Cro Magnons, too?

By John Randal of KATHARSIS

(Story edited for reasons of space. Full text available from Katharsis)

Doubling the number of charges for the grand celebration

With the doubling of production for this celebration year, each compartment had four hybrids to start with; at least three as the culling began, and at least two when they were fully grown. The sleeping compartments were the smallest space a grown hybrid could reasonably fit into, and now two were squeezed in, pressed hard against each other during sleep. It was thought that this would make them better "companions" for their masters and mistresses.

The adolescents were developing sexually and they needed to learn what arouses and pleases a man – in case they're owned by a natural man; and to learn their own responses to sexual arousal if they're owned by a woman. So this doubling up was considered beneficial to their education and development.

In an ordinary year, Dan was assigned two hundred adolescent hybrids to mold into one hundred hard, prime athletes, ready for their initiations. This year he had four hundred, so that he could provide his usual quota for distribution plus a hundred superior athletes for slaughter in the grand celebration.

Since the sleeping quarters had not been doubled, four adolescents had to be crowded into one compartment: two head first, two feet first. As the youths grew, a quarter were culled – killed by the training – before they grew too large to squeeze in. Three to a compartment was very tight, often impossible as full growth was reached, when many of the hybrids had to sleep on the floor.

It was during this period that Dan noticed a change in his charges. It wasn't a physical change, or even an "intellectual" change. What was different was a "spiritual" change. Their emotional make-up was different. Different in a way that disturbed Dan a little. These young men seemed to have divided loyalties. Not only did they show deference to their molder and other natural humans, they showed courtesy to each other. And each night, they paired up the same way. They seemed to show tenderness to their mates. Dan wondered whether he should rotate his charges, but he decided to let the situation ride. And the young hybrids became more and more human in his eyes.

Dan did have to take one action, though. He made certain that the young men didn't pair up with their mates in the ball-slapping endurance training. No matter how human these young men were, they would still have to go through the initiation. And it was Dan's determination that as many of his young men would survive as possible. And the only way to ensure this was to train them true to form – with hard, hard discipline. Watching his charges, seeing their tenderness between themselves, Dan began to realize that his harsh discipline was an act of love – a true expression of love. For his charges. For his own. Dan began to consider these charges his own kind – more so than true natural borns. He realized what he had always subconsciously known: his charges were true men. They were every bit as human as himself, as natural born men. Maybe even more human than natural borns. But this would not save them.

The Beginnings of the Conspiracy

The grand celebration was next week. Dan was resting his charges. But he felt ambivalent doing it. He knew that the men he sent to the celebration would all die. He had gotten wind of the events. And on the last day was a caedes gloriosa – a grand, flamboyant slaughter – the slaughter of all the survivors. Deep in his guts, Dan was angry at the waste, at the cruelty, at the loss. The whole system had been developed to improve the hybrids, to make them better servants. This celebration was just going to be a massive slaughter – a slaughter of innocents, with no purpose but entertainment.

Dan no longer identified with his own kind. He was the father, the mother of these hybrids. He had already disobeyed his instructions. He had been ordered to select out his 100 best hybrids for slaughter in the celebration, but he had chosen the least fit. It had been difficult to choose any young men for certain death – to choose any of his own sons. But in choosing the least fit for the grand slaughter, he was giving more of his own a chance to survive the standard initiation held two weeks before the beginning of the grand celebration. And, so as not to detract from the upcoming celebration, the initiations were being conducted in private, with only government officials & molders present.

Dan had taken his 103 best to the initiation. Now the first loser was being flayed alive. Dan remembered the first hybrid to die, nearly a year ago, how he collapsed, mouth gaping, his lungs fully distended, unable to exhale. His eyes were so frightened – eyelids wide open, nostrils flared, like a frightened horse. He was desperately pleading for his life. Dan remembered trying to get the youth breathing again, trying to give him mouth-to-mouth resuscitation; but the youth's ribs were locked. Dan's desperate efforts were futile. Dan remembered calling the other hybrids, showing them the lifeless body. He remembered taking his knife & cutting the youth's skin, slicing meat from his lifeless corpse. Dan sniffled back his tears as he remembered ordering each hybrid to eat the flesh.

"You are just meat. That's all you are. You must make yourselves something more. You must work hard. If you are to live, you must work hard. You must develop your minds; you must develop your bodies; you must develop your skills. You must do it, you must. Or you will become nothing more than meat. And your friends won't be able to help you. They won't be able to grieve for you. They won't be able to take you into their own bodies, like you did this young man – they won't be able to communionize you. You will be fed to the lapdogs off fat, disgusting women. You must make yourselves special." Dan nearly cried aloud as he remembered the incident.

He spoke up, protesting: "There are no bloodthirsty crowds here to please. Only us – government officials & molders. Surely we can let these young men die easily. We don't need their suffering for our titillation. Let this man die quickly, with dignity." The officials didn't agree. They wanted the full process. But the other molders realized what Dan had now come to understand – this was one of their own. One of their children. The molders joined together, protesting the imposition of excessive pain & degradation upon the losers. The government officials gave in & agreed to quick beheadings.

The seed had been sown. And it was germinating rapidly. As the initiations went on, the molders began getting more edgy. With each execution they grumbled more amongst themselves: the waste of such beautiful young men. The waste of such perfection, such potential, such noble young lives. The molders weren't qualifying men with the term hybrid now. They had discussed among themselves the way these young men seemed to show genuine love for each other. To the molders, these young men were really human: spiritually as well as physically & mentally human. Eating at the guts of each molder was the belief that these men were the true men, the true humans. The bloated natural borns were a disgusting perversion, a devolution – a regression to something not fully human.

Through manipulation of rules with which the government officials weren't that familiar, the molders were able to hold the slaughter down to fewer than a quarter of the hybrids being initiated. Eighty-nine of Dan's charges survived. Other molders weren't so fortunate, but none had been as rigorous in developing pain tolerance. The government officials weren't aware they were being manipulated, but the hybrids knew. They knew that at least twice as many should have been killed, tortured to death horribly. They had been taught to recognize the beginnings of possible rebellion, to police each other. No rogue could begin a rebellion against their superiors, the natural borns. But it was the natural borns that were rebelling against natural borns: their own molders who were beginning to chip away at the system.

In a normal year, the state would have taken immediate possession of all surviving charges for distribution to the breeders, the natural borns, and the army. But the whole system was in confusion this year. And, since the molders had to take care of the 100 hybrids devoted to the celebration for at least another week, maybe a month, it had been decided that the surviving initiates would be returned to their molders for safe keeping – at least until the system cleared out enough to receive them. And this was at a time when molders all over the country were beginning to have doubts about both the efficacy and ethics of the system.

Concrete Steps Toward Revolution

During ten days before the celebration, molders were meeting in small groups, collaborating to disrupt the celebration – to save their children. They were planning a demonstration to force the naturals to recognize the humanity of the hybrids. A week before the celebration, Dan got his assignment. His select 100 hybrids were to fight on the seventh as gladiators, teamed with another 900 hybrids. They were to be armed in the ancient Roman style with a short sword & small, round shield. They would be pitted against 1000 hybrids heavily armored, with long swords, & large, heavy oblong shields. If any of Dan's young men survived, they were to be slaughtered in the caedes gloriosa on the 28th day. Even so, they were to be in Washington, DC, on the first day, to participate in the grand parade. There would be fifty-some thousand hard-bodied athletic hybrids marching into the grand arena.

The first day was to be devoted to opening celebrations. The hybrids, they would be heavily armed in the parade with the weapons they would use in their appointed battles. The hybrids were blindly loyal. That was known. But what the officials hadn't even considered was, blindly loyal to whom! For the last week, Dan practiced his selected 100 with the arms he had been provided. – but only for half a day. The other half, he practiced them in scaling walls. Dan believed all molders were teaching their charges this.

Three days before the celebration, an expert in close-in hand-to-hand sword fighting was sent from the army. He arrived unnoticed, in the morning & Dan let him take over the training. From now till the opening day, these men would be trained in the art of killing efficiently. Trained in defending themselves, but mostly in killing easily & moving on to another fight. They were drilled continually. This freed Dan to work with those who had survived their initiation. But Dan kept checking in on his 100 or so select men so they wouldn't begin transferring their loyalty to the new trainer from the army.

Dan felt the exhilaration of impending revenge pulsing through his veins. He would bring destruction upon the arrogant natural borns – those bloated, gross, disgusting degenerates without heart or soul, or even respectable bodies. He would avenge himself upon that arrogant system that had sent so many of his children to their massacres.

While the army trainer worked with the 100 selectees, Dan drilled his survivors on whom to attack & whom to spare. He drilled into their heads the idea of the revolution – not the circumstances or the details. He would have to trust his children to use their superior intelligence. Anyone who joined the revolution was to be accepted, whether natural born or hybrid, but especially any hybrid whose loyalty could be co-opted. As Dan understood the revolution, the molders might be able to overwhelm the system without the co-operation of anyone outside their purview. But it was essential to try to enlist the hybrid infrastructure of the society. And that was the idea he was trying to get over to his children – they had to use their superior minds to subvert the soldiers, police, security guards, all hybrids in positions of power. Once the word was given, a massive effort to seize power was needed.

Dan was nearly discovered when the army officer burst in on him announcing that one of the trainees had been killed and he needed an immediate replacement. He seized one of the survivors by the arm & led him out. Dan almost tripped over himself running after them. He discovered one of his hybrids lying on the ground, his abdomen ripped open, writhing in pain, his intestines caked with dirt, coiled in bunches to one side. The others were practicing about him, their bare feet tramping through his slimy guts. Dan jerked the odd-man-out aside, demanding, "What happened!" The army officer grabbed the hybrid back, and shoved him against the tyro. As they parried, the officer matter-of-factly stated, "That hybree wasn't fighting hard enough. I ripped his guts open as a lesson to the other hybrees." Dan blushed in anger. He nearly grabbed the officer around the neck. It would have been so simple. His charges would have immediately come to his aid. But it was imperative that the cabal not be betrayed by his anger. He bit hard on his cheek, then swallowed his breath, managing to reply calmly, "I hope they have learned their lesson well." Out the side of his eyes Dan could see tiny movements unrelated to the practices – his children were each giving him the "high-sign."

In the evenings, Dan increased sleep time to seven hours. He paired those who had survived their initiation with the selected 100, their chests pressed hard against each other. As they enjoyed the intimacy, the survivor instructed the selectee in the molders' strategy. To try & fail would be a disaster. Dan knew it would be worse than he could possibly imagine. But to let the status-quo alone was unconscionable. Dan began to accept what he had known all along – for the hybrids to be free, the natural borns would have to be distroyed. Even if the molders themselves had to die. If that was necessary, Dan was prepared to accept his own death. He was no longer afraid, no longer anxious. He was more calm than he had been for years. A peace that passes understanding had enveloped him. Dan drifted to sleep, praying a thanksgiving to the Gods for his new peace.

The Morning of The Revolution

Four hours before sunrise, Dan and the army-instructor loaded the 100 men onto the buses. As per Dan's instructions, one of his survivors snuck behind the bus & shoved a large potato into the exhaust. As the bus pulled out of the drive, it sputtered and stalled. The army officer argued with the driver for several minutes before stopping several buses from different segregations of Dan's traductorium. A few buses already had hybrids standing in the aisles – quite a few buses were failing this morning. "It must be a bad batch of fuel. Damn thing to happen! And today, of all days!" It was a convenient and convincing excuse. Finally enough standing room was found for Dan's fifty. The army officer had gotten his 50 loaded first. Everyone leaving the traductorium this morning now had rides – and several buses were left behind. Dan looked back at as they drove away. He could only trust his children now. – his children and those of the other molders.

All the young men from this school had swords to carry them in the procession. The swords were sharp enough to let you know that a strike had been made, but not enough to peel away skin & muscle just brushing up against a hybrid. On the bus, under the cover of darkness & noise of the diesel, the young men honed their swords sharper than razors. They weren't supposed to be that sharp until the morning of the seventh day of celebration, when they were on the bus going back to their designated combats.

The Assault on Critical Power Nexes

Throughout the country, the hybrids left at their traductoriums overwhelmed the few naturals who had stayed back to keep watch. They got the buses running, & dropped off commando units off at all major power points: electric stations, communications nexes, satellite up-links, police stations, army bases. They were getting in place to move when the appointed hour came, when the revolution would begin in the arenas. They were the second wave. If the revolution was to succeed, they had to succeed. All resistance had to be crushed immediately, before powerful weapons could be brought into play that might be able to overwhelm their vast numbers. If the naturals became so desperate they killed indiscriminately – their own included – they might be able to win. Surprise and coordination were essential. They got in place and waited.

The Procession Into The Arena (Washington, DC)

The buses parked three miles away from the President's Arena and the young men assembled by the tens of thousands. Their glans-rings were removed & replaced by wide yellow ribbons twirled into a string to thread through their penis-heads. Large bows were tied in the ribbons – floating lightly, puffily, on the hybrids' swinging penises. Their scrotums were stretched long, and the necks wrapped in bright red leather straps, so their testicles hung low, in bright red, shiny smooth balls, swinging freely as they walked, bouncing from one pistoning thigh to the other. Bright chrome chains were hung from pins thrust through the hybrids' nipples. Wide, bright yellow headbands were wrapped around their foreheads. Otherwise the young men were naked. They only had their swords & shields or nets & tridents. The selectees marched 20 abreast, three feet from the line ahead: a procession of densely packed manhood longer than a mile and a half. There were 54,000 hybrids in the procession. 54,000 young men in the peak of their physical conditioning.

They marched in unison, their forceful steps throwing their bowed penises to one side as their much heavier, slower-swinging, tightly bound, shiny balls bounced off the other thigh. The next step threw the penis & testicles to the opposite thighs, crossing each other like batons thrown into the air. Their nipple chains quivered in furbelows across their full-round, hard chests. As far as the eye could see, the procession was in perfect synchronization. It was an unbelievably beautiful, awe-inspiring martial display.

The crowds cheering the procession had no idea of the latent danger in these arrestingly beautiful, naked athletes – their bodies the quintessential embodiment of sexual allure. Their absolute obedience was the supreme example of the superiority of the naturals, of their power, or their willingness to use that power on their inferiors. The cheering mob had no idea how sharp those weapons had become. They had no idea how perfectly honed these fighters were – how brilliant their minds, how powerful & agile their bodies. Nor did the mob have any idea how well these hybrid gladiators grasped the true situation – and the cabal their molders had agreed to. The mob was ecstatically ignorant.

The procession came to a dead stop at the arena. Crowds that had lined the parade route rushed into the stands, pushing & shoving for the best seats. The young fighters could file in only four abreast through the dozen gates to the fighting floor. It took more than two hours. When the last of the fighters were in, there was barely enough room for any to squirm. It was an amazingly dense crush of athletic manhood.

Dan and the other molders were in a special section of the stands. They all wore bright blue jackets with a bright yellow lightning flash across the front. Interspersed among them were the army trainers who had come during the last few days to add finishing polish to the magnificent young gladiators. Dan was would up like a spring, ready to explode into action at the signal. He could see the other molders clenching their fists. Some were fidgety-fingering the ripper-knives they concealed in their jackets. Dan was looking forward to ripping open the guts of that bastard army trainer sitting next to him – poetic revenge for his ripping the guts out of one of Dan's children. Dan worried about the others – those on their own, outside critical disruption points – places it was necessary to seize as quickly as possible if the revolution was to succeed. Dan pleaded again with his very soul. His nuts were in his throat, he was so anxious.

The Revolution

It was now noon, the appointed hour.

Throughout the entire nation, at this very instant, the celebrations were to begin. It was noon in the east, eleven central, ten in the mountains & nine on the Pacific. Everything was precisely synchronized. That was part of the grand celebration, it would be one massive beginning, one massive celebration. This synchronicity was given to the cabal by the Gods themselves – without it, the revolution would be nearly impossible. An order was passed through the hybrid athletes to raise their weapons in salute – in the style of the ancient Roman gladiators. "We die for your glory!" The signal, the call to glory! The trumpet of the Gods! It was now or never!

A great cry roared from the arena. The unsuspecting mobs throughout the country believed, for an instant, it was a salute to their grandeur, their glory, their power and ascendancy. But before the roar reverberated once, the nightmare had become evident. Thousands of heavily armed gladiators were scaling the walls, pouring over the spectators, slashing throats, hacking bodies in two. Death rolled over the spectators like a tidal wave. Machine-guns chattered from the outside walls, spraying the waves pouring over the walls with body-ripping death. Geysers of blood sprouting all over the arena's retaining walls, but the hybrids kept pouring over the bodies of their comrades. One after another, the machine guns fell silent – jammed or captured. The hybrids slashed & flayed every identifiable natural in their way – except for the blue jacketed molders. The molders had already revenged themselves upon the army trainers. Dan ripped his co-trainer's guts with his knife, reaching inside his abdomen & jerking out his viscera, spitting in his face. He shoved the terror-stricken man back, sprawling across the bodies of already ripped cohorts. Dan kicked the man in his nuts as he quivered in agony. Dan slipped & fell backwards, but was caught by one of his hybrids who wrapped his arms around Dan and kissed him. "Father, we are winning, we are winning!" All over the arena, natural born slime ran for the exits, falling over themselves down the stairs, into the waiting swords of hybrids who had beaten them down. The battle was joined across the nation. The revolution was in full swing.

Dan and the other molders looked around at the numbing scene – every surface covered in blood, writhing bodies. The air heavy with moans & rales, with the stench of perforated bowls. And the teams of hybrids crawling over every where, like ants aroused!

FAMILY PORTRAITS

by Bill Spencer

Celebrating our Gay heritage, OUTCOME noted the 17th anniversary this just passed June of GAY SCENE, the second oldest Gay publication! Bruce King is the Editor/Publisher of GAY SCENE; his involvement in nearly every aspect of the entertainment business has been even longer, starting as a theatrical photographer in the 1940's. King was a physique photographer in the prehistoric days of the 50's. He made softcore films in the early 1960's, which had such style & integrity that the Museum of Modern Art has expressed interest in them. These are: REFLECTIONS, a beautiful guy on a rainy night in NYC; FOUNTAINS, five hot men superimposed over NYC's five major fountains; and GYPSY'S BALL, a fantasy film starring Mario Montez.

King "graduated" into hardcore in the early seventies, as the genre evolved, and did his most famous films, LEATHER NARCISSIS, starring the extraordinary FERNANDO; La Voyeur, shot on location at the Broadway Baths; and Rugged Men, an episodic look at men & their obsessions. Bruce King pulled back from films (although all three of his hardcore efforts are now available from GAY SCENE on video) to concentrate on the paper.

GAY SCENE is eclectic, highly personal, a real labor of love as the genial King puts it. He is proud of the publication, of its longevity, of its growth & of the ground he has broken. GAY SCENE has been the constant in the ever-changing New York, well, Gay scene, yet it is not solely a new York paper. It is available by subscription & on newsstands nationwide. Still, King notes, distributors are the bane of my existence. I have a very good one in New York, but elsewhere I've had a lot of bad luck. He encourages readers in outlying areas to subscribe. He has also maintained a longstanding policy of placement of free copies in certain bars & theatres in hopes that the recipients may subscribe, may purchase products advertised in the paper, and/or that they may buy subsequent issues.

GAY SCENE intentionally includes something for everyone. There is the celebrated centerfold, a very high content of Gay community & medical news, & the most thorough and accurate obituary section this side of VARIETY. I've been criticized for being 'only interested in dead actors and AIDS,' King says bemusedly. The obits have become more elaborate over the years, and, to the uninitiated, perhaps a source of some confusion. GAY SCENE runs obituaries of anyone famous who has died, regardless of sexual orientation, and, of course, runs a disclaimer to the effect that inclusion of the name or likeness of any person is not meant to suggest the sexual orientation of that person. Yet, I occasionally get the comment, 'I didn't know all those people were Gay.'

Still, King notes with immense satisfaction that GAY SCENE was the first publication to do anything on AIDS, bringing the vital news to the attention of the Gay community as early as 1981. It wasn't even called AIDS then, it was thought to be an obscure strain of pneumonia. As time has gone by AIDS news has become a permanent feature of the paper, especially as more organizations have been formed to combat the disease.

But GAY SCENE is more upbeat than down. I've always been interested in theatre & legitimate films, which is why we've always featured a lot of reviews. I also try to cover new Gay films & as much Gay theatre as I can get to. There, too, the scene has changed. There is now only on theatre in NYC which shows films, as such (The Adonis on 8th ave.) The rest have gone to video. The 'film makers' are mostly shooting directly onto video now. And the day of the all-male film star is probably over. Now there are only guys who do one or two films & then disappear. Also, due to the health crisis and the shift to video, more people are buying or renting cassettes to watch at home. More people will perhaps be interested in videos as the health crisis worsens.

But this has not changed the emphasis of GAY SCENE, nor has the Reagan-Meese hysteria. GAY SCENE is interesting or amusing or erotic, but it is always informative and entertaining, truly something for everyone!

We spoke with Frances Green, Editor & Publisher of THE GAYELLOW PAGES, probably THE leading source of information for & about the Gay community.

OUTCOME: How old is THE GAYELLOW PAGES?

FRANCES: It was started, as a single publication, in 1973. Now there are actually four separate publications: U.S. and CANADA, NEW YORK/NEW JERSEY, NORTHEAST, & SOUTH/SOUTH MIDWEST.

OUTCOME: How do the issues differ, especially the regional ones from the National issue?

FRANCES: Really, the only regional publication which has information not in the national directory, is the NEW YORK/NEW JERSEY, which has notes on the Manhattan bars and a section for Lesbians.

OUTCOME: Oddly, other publications, whether local or national or international, seem to concentrate on or to include only bar or "get together" information. Why does THE GAYELLOW PAGES have so much more latitude?

FRANCES: Well, we planned from thebeginning to list as many and as varied resources as possible. Around the time we started, Gay people were becoming aware that they could patronize Gay businesses. They were looking for Gay professionals, doctors and lawyers. Then, too, there was the relaxation of the taboo on doctors and lawyers being able to advertise, so they became less edgy about being listed. Nonetheless, we still never list a professional person without their specific, written consent.

OUTCOME: You would, however, list bars without their direct input.

FRANCES: Yes, you just have to do the best you can with bars, because they change so often. We are happier if they respond to our questionnaires, of course.

OUTCOME: It occasionally seems odd to see THE GAYELLOW PAGES in a bookstore next to Gay erotic mags. Is there an aspect of fun to someone reading it, as there is to, say, OUTCOME?

FRANCES: I think people who are seeing it for the first time, or for whom it is the first Gay resource, will look at it thoroughly, just to see what is in it. There are, too, "information junkies" who'll read it cover to cover, every time they get a new issue.

OUTCOME: Is THE GAYELLOW PAGES the oldest Gay directory still being published?

FRANCES: Except for Bob Damron's Address Book, which is a smaller, pocket-sized format, and concentrates on bars. Now there's also Places of Interest, which started a few years ago, and covers the U.S., Canada & a few cities in Europe. In L.A., there's Community Yellow Pages, which is rather like us, except that they distribute the book free and are financed by advertising revenues. And there are, or were, two competing ones in San Francisco: I'm not sure what the situation is at this moment.. We stopped doing a West Coast edition because the Los Angeles and San Francisco publications could do a better local job that we can at the moment, but of course the West Coast is still covered in the National Edition.

OUTCOME: So I could use any local publication for bar information. . .

FRANCES: Right, but if you want more information about more general subjects, you'd want THE GAYELLOW PAGES. Bars are not our main target, though obviously they are a very important area of coverage. People assume we're a much larger operation than we actually are: which actually boils down to two people and a couple of part-timers (and our Kaypro-XT clone computer). We can always only process the information we get. Anytime anyone has any information, they should always send it to us. Clairvoyant we ain't! We don't list hustlers & prostitution services, because of the twin dangers of disease and rip-off, but we will list phone sex services, because they are the ultimate safe sex. Lastly, we list all other guides & directories we know of, so if people don't like us, they can see what the alternatives are.

OUTCOME: Is there a side to THE GAYELLOW PAGES no one but you see?

FRANCES: It's not madly glamorous & certainly the financial rewards are not huge. No Fire Island summer homes or Manhattan co-ops on what we make! And it's irritating to be overlooked in reviews of directories, even by people who have a copy on their desks. They see it so often, they take it for granted! Every few months, the New York Gay Switchboard needs replacement copies: they use theirs so often they literally fall apart! And that's one of the biggest I get: seeing someone actually using THE GAYELLOW PAGES or getting a letter from someone who's found it helpful.

RUSS ADAMS

FROM VANCOUVER, WITH LOVE

My name's RUSS ADAMS. I'm 5ft.7, 138 lbs., 29in. waist, 35in. chest, brown hair tending to lighten in the summer if I've been tanning and my eyes are grey-green. As for my Penis, it's thick and is 5½ in. soft growing to 7½ in. when responding to erotic expectations. I measure from the top base to the tip. I suspect some measure from the tip to their assholes.

My interests are: tennis, jigsaw puzzles, suntanning & tropical fish. I'm an avid collector. Everything that has interested me, from the usual stamps & coins to people watching, I've turned into a hobby. I even had to get myself out of the commercial drug scene as it became a hobby!

I don't know how others see me but I would describe myself as a survivor who has learned to depend on myself. I had to learn to live on my own when my parents broke up, but due to finding a job right away I had no problem paying for food & rent and living on the cheap. A serious illness (ulcerative colitis) nearly put me out of the picture. It did give me a new perspective on life. I had been afraid of life but the fear of losing it brought me around. I decided to explore my sexuality. I didn't mix personal emotions with physical sex thus never allowing myself to develop a close monogamous relationship. The realities of AIDS & herpes made me very careful & much more restrained in my sexual outlets. As my immediate friends were always straight following my natural urges was always on the sly. Living in the suburbs, hitting the Gay nightspots was always a major excursion.

In general I was into the average routine with people I knew well, playing tennis, football, ball hockey & going to those wonderful pot parties. I mixed easily with the guys & on occasion with their female groupies. I was socially bisexual but emotionally I was ever more interested in the cute looking guys with the right stuff. I'm now at the stage where a one-on-one relationship would be ideal. I still have the same preferences as to what kind of guy would fit the bill. I've never been attracted to the guys into the Gay ghetto "uniform"–the short neat haircut, beard & moustache, pierced earring & trendy clothes. I prefer someone who lets their natural appearance come through without using half a bottle of cologne!

I just hope OUTCOME readers enjoy my pictures as much as I enjoyed posing for them!

The Beauty of Austria:

RENE KARL

Our very hot cover model RENE KARL was discovered by CHAMPION while on vacation in Austria. Rene was 18, 5ft.9, 150 lbs., with beautiful blue-green eyes & a knockout athletic body which derived from sports & his job as a mountain guide in the Tyrolean Alps. Blessed with a superb voice, he loves American Rock 'n' Roll. He's also blessed with a thick, uncut 8in. powertool—which comes in handy if let's say trapped during snow storm in a mountain cabin (let's hear it for snow storms!). He's a masculine, clean-cut, sensual & very romantic!

ICY HOT

DANY & MARCO

DANY BOYER: 19, blond, blue eyes, 7 1/4 in. & a hot tongue. Born in New Brunswick Canada. Likes tennis, Volleyball and other "ball" games!

MARCO LeBEAU: 23, dark hair, hazel eyes, 7 in. & a soft coat of precious fur! Born in Quebec Canada. Hockey is his game, scoring is his fame (and this sounds too much like a rap "song")

One cold winter night a couple of years ago in a cozy (some might say sleazy) all male strip joint in the east end "village" (called Au Deux R's), our heros – like many others – were wondering how they could keep warm (or more precisely "get hot") Everyone knows a cold night in Canada is a fuckin' cold night! They knew body contact works wonders to keep warm & generate energy!*

After a couple drinks Dany finally decided to was time to approach the cute French-Canadian jock. Knowing just enough French, Dany conversed his way into inviting Marco over to his place to watch the Hockey game (he had noticed that Marco was wearing a team jacket loaded with hockey patches) Trying to be cool they down played the fact they were sex crazed. With imaginations running wild (& since there was no hockey game on tv that night) it would only be a matter of time before---you know. But I'm getting ahead of the story.

They stepped outside the club into 20 below zero (quite warm for Canada that time of year). Marco, living closer to the club, suggested they go to his place instead.

Dany was astonished by all the hockey crap all over the place as he began ripping Marco's clothes off. His aforementioned hot tongue was all over Marco's hairy little bod. Up & down those 7 inches, all around his balls, & diving into that ass. Marco was still a virgin back there and Dany was going to remedy the situation. Marco was game to lose his cherry. Hell, he'd been thinking of getting rid of it for some time. He'd in fact picked up condoms every so often just in case. Now both naked in bed they suddenly got quiet and both had the same thought: is this another one night stand? Something was different. They hugged and kissed and talked. Marco said he wanted Dany to be the one. Dany reached over into what had become a mountain of condoms and took one. It had ridges and for an instant he thought "french tickler." Then they went back to work, wilder then ever.

Then the big moment came. Dany deftly helped dick on with his raincoat while their mouths worked away at each other. He grabbed some lube and began finger fucking Marco while Paul Simon sang "Slip Slidin' Away" on the radio. Still kissing he s-l-o-w-l-y began penetration. Before Marco knew it Dany was fully inside.

Dany started ramming away while Marco jerked his own hard cock "This is soooo good." And suddenly Dany yelled "I'm gonna cum" and pulled out. Marco screamed "Me too." As Marco shot he watched as Dany's rubber filled with cum. "OOOO" he moaned as Dany carefully removed the condom & sensually held it upside down letting the warm sperm pour down his chest. "Fantastique!"

They've been inseparable ever since! OUTCOME did a job of recreating that magic moment when the two Canadian lovers came to NYC for the first time. They'll be back!

DWANE SOTO

A PHILIPPINO DREAM

We're always hearing about the struggles in the Philippines. Our favorite dictator distroyer's endless work at building a democracy & the exploits of Ferdinand the Bullshitter & his wife (Marie Antwanette) fill headlines. So we wanted to point out the Philippines' good points. Photographer Alan Hood had pix of one of them one file, his name is Dwane Soto!

Dwane was born in Manila (made famous by WWII) in 1967. He stands 5ft. 5, 120 lbs., & his penis is 6 ½in. erect. Being into the eroticism of condoms he a man adapted for today's world. His free time is spent in the pursuit of Soccer, swimming, and diving (he loves to dive wearing just a jockstrap). No wonder he's in such great shape! He goes to college in California & works part time in a hardware store (always ready to help you with HIS hardware). He loves warm, passionate love making & has a winning personality! Dwane's pix are available from: Alan Hood, 1457 N. ROYE COULD Anytime!

24 year old ROYE COULD sure can, anytime! A fire-fighter and ex-Marine (yes, that was Winoburger you just year scream) is a hero to many. He's an ex-member (get ready) of the Straight Arrow Cycle Club who was subdued & subjugated by the Rough Riding Bullies, members of the notorious Dirty Dozen Skinhead Club (which thrills T.R. no end). The ruggedly handsome 6ft.2 blue eyed blond is the image of the golden tanned, cleancut stud of your dreams. Masculine but sensitive with a sinewey, smooth, muscular body. You can almost year his deep, commanding voice as his legs spread apart ordering you to "Suck It!" You can even hear his moans of pleasure as you service his fuck tool. JOHN ESPANA

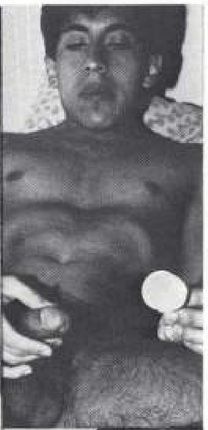
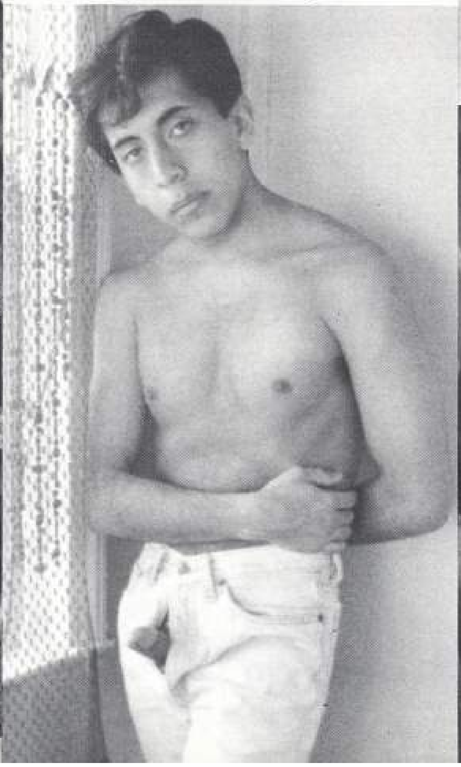
JOHN ESPANA is a soft-spoken, formally polite & very likeable young man. He was born in Lima, Peru, 25 years ago & moved to Vermont at age five. He was discovered by MAN-AGE Studios in 1985. He had applied to become a model out of a burning desire to become a pornstar. This led to his debut in their 2nd edition of 'Pleasure Tools' getting into (or vice versa) sex toys. Shortly there after he departed for Mexico for two years of college. Upon his return he moved out of his folks home & became a resident of NYC. He immediately contacted Man-Age about doing a new session with his new body, developed during health club workouts. John's fascination with fashion has turned into a career as he continues his studies here while working as a shoe salesman, the pornstar dream still on his mind. John stands 5ft 6, 148lbs., with smooth, tan skin & a willing 6¼ inches. Man-Age is offering some sets of this Peruvian sex toy & maybe someday he'll appear on your TV screen fulfilling his dream!





DRAPER & ORSINI | Jockstrap Sniffing Duo

When CHAMPION came out of retirement in '82 he launched an incredible new series of work. This final period demonstrated a advancement in his skills of erotic fantasy. Using, mainly, the bedroom as a set he took us into the private moments of hot, athletic young men deep into their masturbatory fantasies. Those moments involved clothing. Smelling the piss & cum stained jock of a team mate or the scent of his sox & sneekers. The models cum in their shorts & we see hot cum dripping down their leg. In fact these cum shots are some of THE hottest ever recorded. The sets offered on each model are of a wide variety (discussed below & excerpted on these pages) & a good number are cum shots – something totally unique! Currently MAN-AGE is offering only two of these models but combined that's a total of 27 sets!

© 1987 MAN-AGE

Blond, blue eyed RICK DRAPER is 5 ft.10 and blessed with firm, smooth hot muscles crafted by rigorous sports activity. His favorite is "Mattress Polo" which keeps his 7½ in. "muscle" in top shape! Rick has come a long way in a comparatively short time. Today, he's a college STUDent who will make your fantasies cum true. On a cold night he'll warm your bed – naked, without hesitation - trust is absolute. He's tough and tight. Always ready to keep going – once isn't enough for him, even twice won't do and it's a little wild---a bit offbeat---and he's always the survivor. He loves to pump his "iron". Working out together has its rewards too---even if you just get to watch him shower. Maybe if you got what he likes and the odors are in place, the turn-on will be pumping your "iron."

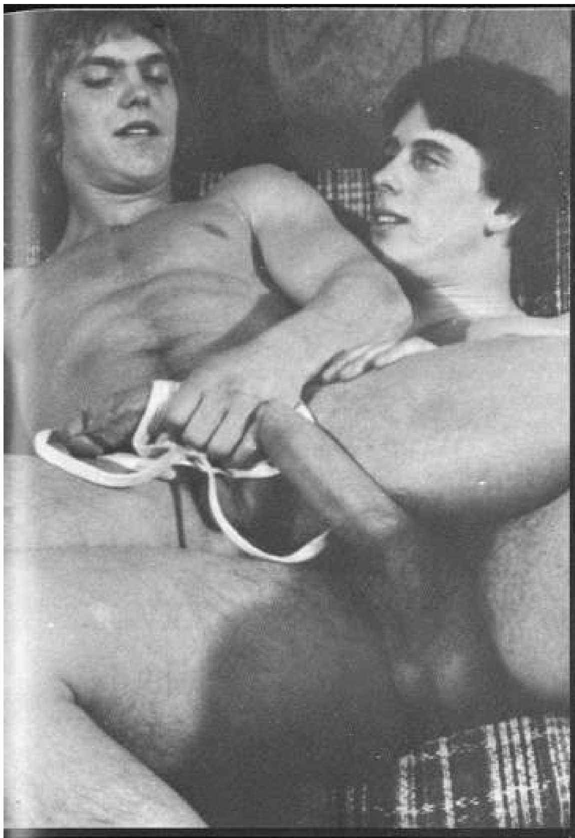
Rick has 9 sets in total. He cums while on a toilet (#1), shows off while washing his car (#2), takes a hot shower (#4), plays in soiled underwear with TONY ORSINI (#6). Something for everyone!

RICK DRAPER



DICK ORSINI

DICK "Tony" ORSINI is the 22 year old owner of an unusual male clothing and accessory store The Chain Male. He's a master salesman at pushing his kinky duds as well as himself to many a young stud who beats a path to his emporium. He's 6 ft. 1, 174 lbs. of muscle & power. His ruggedly handsome face is topped with dark, wavy hair & he conquers with soft brown eyes. What really devastates is that HUGE, uncut 10 ½ in. penis. He's the tough assfucker/cocksucker who busted Rick Draper's cherry and conquered his heart! As Rick remembers , it was a confusing love affair, what with having the hots for Tony's body, mind, and for that BIG hooded toy. They were both into sweat soaked, aromatic clothing and loved to gift each other with their freshly used underwear & footwear.

ORSINI must have really inspired CHAMP since 18! sets come out of their work together. One fantasy (comprising sets #1-4) has Tony really getting into the scent of Draper's shorts and jock, pumping load after load into the jock, intense! In #6 he unloads in a stretch nylon jock-sock. In #7 & 8 he gets off on a bike while in #9 he shoots in a pair of Speedos. He plays with his foreskin in #10 & the session with Draper continues in sets #17 & 18.

(Order info is on page 46 or, if you don't want to cut up the issue, send $5.00 and an age statement to MAN-AGE to receive the Champion Collection brochures & an order form)

TRACK MEET

By GAVIN GEOFFREY DILLARD

In my ceaseless attempts to document the erotica from the 50's to mid-70's I took to trying to convince my friend GAVIN GEOFFREY DILLARD aka GAVIN GEOFFREY that the film he did, TRACK MEET, had become a classic Gay film. Like most who created or performed during this period the work was nothing special, WRONG! These were the only films that presented a positive image of Gays to counter the anti-Gay propaganda the closet queens of Hollywood pumped out to protect their paranoid little worthless lives. So earlier this year when Gavin finally fulfilled his dream of owning a farm and having his art works finally recognized he took pity on me and sat down on a haystack next to his typewriter and for the first time recounted the experience exclusively for OUTCOME. Thank you Gavin!

I've been asked to recall some of my experiences in the filming of the semi-classic TRACK MEET. Fifteen years later, from my gorgeous farm in the remote mountains of Central California, that film seems light years away. I don't even own a copy, nor have I seen it in some ten or twelve years. Which just means that I have nothing to refer to other than my main impressions, which, as all of memory tends to be, are entirely selective.

What I most remember about the film is the way it affected me socially. The L.A. Times at that time allowed for the advertising of porno films. There were three full-picture pages one Sunday issue that I recall: smiling Barbara Streisand in A Star is Born, growling King Kong in the DeLaurentis production, and sultry Gavin Geoffrey in Track Meet.

A twelve-foot marquis photo of me hung out over La Cienega Boulevard in what is now West Hollywood at a theatre that no long exists.

I remember such events as eating a romantic dinner in a classy little Strip restaurant, the waitress opening her eyes enthusiastically and saying "Say, aren't you that guy in the movie?", to which I nodded an affirmative. She ponders this only a second, remembers that this is a homo sex film, smiles nervously and backs away, face red. We were served by another server for the rest of the meal.

And the constant quiet footsteps behind me on the sidewalk, in grocery stores, wherever I went; men who cleared their throats, watched me yearningly, and only occasionally were bold enough to introduce themselves, comment about the film or ask for an autograph. Those who did I often had dinner with, fucked or even became buddies with. It was the early seventies, I was young, insecure, prone to flattery, and relished in the attention.

One weekend I was approached by men on the street, in passing limos, bartenders and even owners of Studio One, all that there was someone very big in the industry who had seen my film and wanted to meet me. I finally accepted and scheduled for one of the limo drivers to pick me up at my small abode (which had been Clark Gable's maid's quarters, beneath where he had lived on Havenhurst) and whisk me up into the hills of Beverly to an estate of obscene proportions. I did not know the attractive young mogul who waited for me on a fox-fur settee at the end of the royal-size living room, but it turned out that he had discovered and recorded almost all of my previous folk and country-rock heroes. He said I looked nervous, I said his house gave me the creeps, he drove me out to the Malibu on-the-beach house, which was much more to my tastes and liking, and we stayed naked, fed by a butler that I never saw, for three, maybe four days. He lost his anal virginity (that sexy bubble butt!), and I wrote poems while he phone-chatted daily with Rona, Cher, Paul McCartney, Paul Simon... We were lovers for months until I fell in love with one of his industry cronies of equal stature who would become my lover for the next ten years. I continue to read about both of them regularly in the paper, merging this conglomerate with that.

When I first got to town (Hollywood) I ended up doing what everyone else does, I went for head shots. Peter, the photographer, showed the proofs to a gentleman named Sal Grasso (Steve Scott), an hysterical little Italian who wrote and directed Track Meet and a host of others. Peter brought Sal over to my one-room garden and Sal pitched the film to me. I wasn't interested in the money, but I loved being asked, I loved the politics of the thing, the sheer radicalness of doing porn. I said sure.

The filming was fun, usually due to Grasso's sense of humor (he was also working on Mae West's Sextette at the time and had beaucoup stories to relate, whether true or not). The actors, largely, I picked myself from a catalog of 8 x 10's of assorted current stars. The big hairy one, Don, I continued to see for quite some time. Larry Paige, my lovely blond co-star is married somewhere in Marin.

The awkwardness of making porn can only be appreciated by those who have done so. The joy of conjuring up a sexual libido in the face of three light men, two cameramen, a nervous director screaming "time is money" and the panting queens who have provided the location! As soon as the fucking finally starts, the key light goes out, the angle has to be changed, a pimple has to be erased or someone else's dick goes down. This goes on for twelve, fifteen hours at a time and miraculous amounts of coffee.

Oh, and then there was the scene we did out on an abandoned road in the backseat of a car. Well, a) the actors took some three or four hours just to get it up and b) the road was not abandoned. One of my startling abilities was to be able to cum on cue, as many times as needed, whether hard or not. If you look close enough at the film you will discover that several of the close-ups of other men's cum shots are, in fact, my dick, Ol' Faithful. I should've been paid by the pop!

The most amusing thing for me was talking to people in theatre lobbies who would practically be sobbing at the fact that I was raped by the monstrous (all kinds of racial expletives...) Black man. When in fact I myself provided T.C. Mathis with three or four downers just to get him un-nervous enough to be able to get it up, such as it was. He was a sweet and novice "talent" (as we were called) and terrified by the camera or that he might actually hurt me.

Don Ranger was another story. We did it, I believe, on a ladder. He and I kept at it all day, on and off camera. And, despite the forbiddance of Sal, had consummated beginning early the evening before. Sometimes it's just like that, you know?

Larry Paige I didn't get much of a vibe off of, which made the whole thing rather mystical and dreamlike, which is the way it was finally edited. He was beautiful, though not generally anyone that I would have pursued, and he actually was very comfortable with the cameras and me and the whole scene. He had a lovely butt, which I continued to resent not having a (pardon the pun) crack at. More than that he was gentle, polite, sincere, smelled like the ocean and had eyes like granite.

Sal kept hounding me to make more films after that, right up until his A.I.D.S. related death a few years ago. I did a few loops, but never went in for any more major films. I had had my success; I was now hanging out with the most rich and famous people in the industry, who strictly advised against future films. More than that, I simply was never interested in what the films were about.

Stryker Force I was the set man. But being the techie, running up and down the ladders in my skivies and sweating like an animal, the actors and director kept lusting after me and trying to recruit me for the film. Finally, as the ante got high enough, I agreed if I didn't have to touch anybody (they were not utilizing Safe Sex practices, and I was disgusted by the whole process). The cameraman and I did my little scene the day after everyone else had gone home. We had fun, I got to buy a new truck, got custody of Rio and Raetta (our two pythons), and they spliced our footage throughout the film to make it look like it was something that had been intended. That's Hollywood!

(Gavin Geoffrey Dillard has most recently been featured in the video SACRED PASSION (a male guide to tantric sex). Of his six published volumes of homo-erotic verse, his latest two, PAGAN LOVE SONGS and THE NAKED POET are currently available from BHAKTI BOOKS through all fine Gay bookstores or direct (check the personals section) and OUTCOME strongly recommends you check them out! He has appeared in Playgirl and most Gay slicks and has written songs for and with Peter Allen, Sam Harris, Barry Manilow and many others. One-man shows of his paintings are scheduled beginning July of 1991 at the Lozano Galleries in Cadaques, Spain, Barcelona, and Amsterdam.)

© 1990 LEE BALDWIN

LEE BALDWIN

Hung & hunky pornstar LEE BALDWIN is now creating his own video works suited to specific fetish tastes, rather than the boring "vanilla" works of the major video outfits. While his tapes, at present, lack the high polish of the biggies they have an intensity the others lack. CBT (Cock & Ball Torture)(60 minutes $39.95 + $4 p&h: LEE BALDWIN, POB 34491, San Diego, CA 92103) stars Lee with Dick Niner & Jon Evans in some real intense stuff. High point: hot candle wax is dripped on Lee's erect penis after which a flame caresses his equipment (no damage thankfully). The only negative is that Lee didn't have a cameraman and had to rely on setting up each shot with a standing camera. A cameraman would have been free to zoom in at the right moments and could have given the viewer the feeling of actually being in the room and watching it. Lee and I discussed this point which he too feels is the one drawback. He's now made arraignments for a cameraman for his future works. Lee is a very talented individual who's always ready to explore sexuality on screen and his initial works really do show great promise. SHAVE(60 minutes $39.95 + $4 p&h) stars Lee with blond hunk James Silver getting into body shaving and sex. After the hot workout with James hairy Lee gets into a tub and proceeds to give himself a full body shave which is very erotic. I would have liked it to end with a j/o as it just stops when he's done leaving you hot as all hell staring at a blank screen (don't be a cock tease Lee! I'm awaiting a copy of his latest production I WAS FUCKED BY A MACHINE but it hadn't gotten to me by press time. After some prompting from me Lee has decided his next production will explore the foot fetish scene. Lee is always looking for ideas so don't hesitate to write him with ideas for what kinds of fetish scenes you'd like to see.

BOBBY SHORE

We received from producer Randy Collins three tapes he's created CLASS OF '88, CLASS OF '89, CLASS OF '90($52.00 p&h inc.: RANDY COLLINS ENTERPRISES, 2370 MARKET ST. #105, SF, CA 94114 or via Adonis Video for VISA/MASTERCHARGE 415-474-6995. $5.00 for brochure & 3 3x5 pix) The tapes are closer to amateur than ultra slick productions and have a home movie feel which has become very popular. The models are all cute, young, smooth skinned men with defined athletic bodies. Some of these guys, like BOBBY SHORE(pictured) in the first tape are hung big knockouts (some guys have it all)! No dialog just soft & hard rock play while each young man strips, gets it up, displays, jerks & shoots. It's all solos in various locations, one right after the other. If you really love solos this stuff will really grab you.

What happened to the story on JAGUAR promised for this issue you ask. Turns out Jaguar, out of the market for other 10 years, wasn't thrilled with current costs & bullshit so they decided to sell the rights & let others market the tapes. As they weren't going to be doing anything they backed out of the interview, but we will keep trying as this studio produced some of the greatest Gay films and they have a story worth telling. We did try to get copies of the tapes to review but the gentleman selling them hadn't made a decision by press time, maybe next issue.

As for the history of HAND-IN-HAND, the greatest Gay film studio in history, it is still being worked on. We're in the process of printing up hundreds of b&w pix from the files, many never before seen and trying for the first time to put together it's history with Jack Deveau's mate & co-founder Bob Alvarez as well as track down some of the stars still around (would someone please tell Jack Wrangler to stop waving his hand). We will begin the series next issue.

The real TOMMY WILDE

Thanks to our STARHUNT and a chance meeting with my ex-roomie Chris Noll TOMMY WILDE and I touched bases by phone early this summer. He's alive & well in living on the west coast. I discovered him, he was and is a Man-Age exclusive model, he has no interest in working for anyone else and - except for an unfortunate episode doing a video for Funtime- has never worked for anyone else! I bring this up because I've been flooded by calls from Tommy fans inquiring about an In Hand Video called SUMMER SCHOOL. NO! THAT IS NOT TOMMY WILDE that is some sleezo con job trying to pass off this nobody as the one & only Tommy Wilde! Do not accept cheap brand X imitations!

Here's a segue, OLD RELIABLE has a 2 volume set on one of Tommy's new pals, CHAMP (not Champion may I note). CHAMP: The Wonder Years(VT-124: $59.00 + $3.00 p&h, Old Reliable, 1626 N. Wilcox #107, Hollywood, CA 90028) runs 2 hours and covers this hot guy starting at age 18 and concludes on CHAMP: On Down The Road ($59.00 + $3.00) at age 24 as a lean, mean, fucking machine. David is about the only eroticist who cares enough to do this kind of production. Rather than just being a piece of meat we get to watch him grow & change over the years. He goes from being 5'9" to 6' and from 150 lbs. to 190 lbs., all of it well defined muscle. We also get to view moods and see him learn to using that camera as an actor. Check this unique presentation out!

If you like your guys smooth skinned and long haired you're gonna love Sharpshooter Studios' new video SEX SHOOTERS (Sierra Pacific Prod., POB 9476, Marina del Rey, Ca 90295, 1-800-828-4336) continues in the tradition they've set with their outstanding videos: HARD ROCK HIGH (the debut of pornstar Vince Cobretti) and HOUSEBOYS (another spotlight on Vince). While not exactly a storyline and dialog you can sink your teeth into (hot "boys" having hot sex with other hot numbers basically) the video has high picture quality and good sound. The sex scenes, unlike those still being done by Falcon, are responsible. Putting on a condom doesn't ruin sex and keeps the performers safe. SEX SHOOTERS, like H.R.H. also features MARK RADCLIFFE. Though not everyone's dream I think Mark's extremely hot and in all his films comes across as a really nice guy. In the final analysis I' rather have someone with intelligence, warmth and humor (who's also cute & very sex) rather than some dippy drop dead gorgeous pretty boy. Mark always delivers. The video also features the talents of TED "the knife" COX AND LON FLEXX who seem to be everywhere these days without wearing out their welcome. (I understand Ted may not be doing videos for awhile if a certain commitment occurs) Sharpshooter discovery CUNNINGHAM with a big 9" penis, long blond hair and a sold bod burns up the screen with an incredible solo on a pool table! Really suggest you check this one out (despite my not being more specific on exactly what occurs, but hey I got you all these nice pix wadda want).

THE ART OF RON FOX

We're very honored to welcome to OUTCOME the fantastic art of RON FOX. We feel he's right up there with STEVE MASTERS (no he's not dead, fool), a true artist who crafts his works & takes pride in them. We asked Ron to tell us a bit about himself & his art:

To give you some background, I had never tried drawing until about six years ago. I've had no formal training in art and my style comes from how I feel inside and a lot of hours of just drawing. When I draw I try to make the drawings be as realistic as possible. I keep working to make each drawing look like it might be a real photograph. Some of the faces have come very close to looking just like a person looks like in real life.

The fun of being an artist is you can combine the best features of different guys into one. You can make the lighting on the figure be exactly what you want it to be. A photographer would have a tough time getting the same effect. I try to draw the eyes so that you see a special soul behind those eyes. Each drawing takes about 20 to 30 hours to complete.

I'm now working on my next set of drawings which is all of my roommate Scott. He's one of my favorite models and is a super good looking guy with a really nice body, wide shoulders, a narrow waist, great legs and he's also well endowed. Scott is 5'11" tall and weighs 150 lbs. with dark brown hair and blue eyes. His nickname is bubble butt because he was a world class skater and had built up his legs and butt with all the hours of skating.

Scott is a very special soul with tons of charm and a super personality. He's very special to me because he's my best friend and we've been roommates for over 5 years. I met him when he was 18, he's now 24.

One of the drawings in this set is Scott wearing a bath robe with the front open with his hands on his hips. This one turned out to be very realistic.

I photograph my drawings with an 8x10 camera and do all my own darkroom work. I contact print each drawing using the original 8x10 negative and sell sets of these photographs. I also do commission work upon request.

You can check out Ron's ad in the Personals section for info on how to order copies of his work. I'm sure he wouldn't mind fan letters.

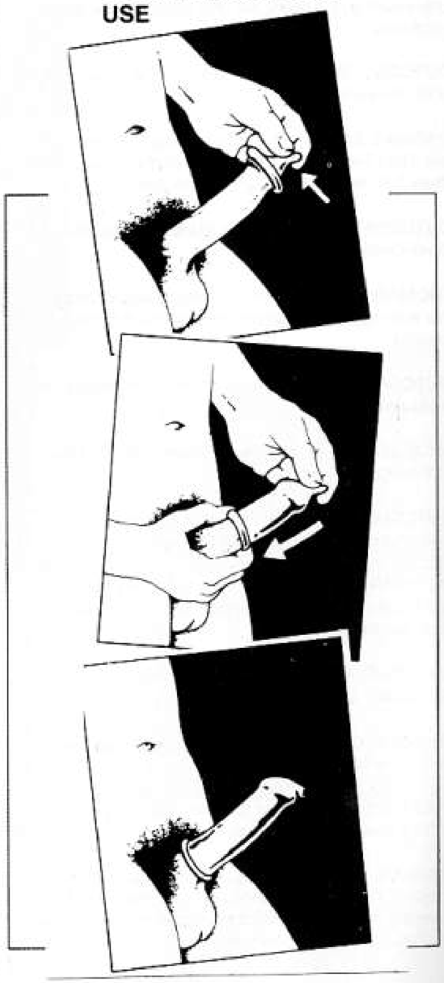
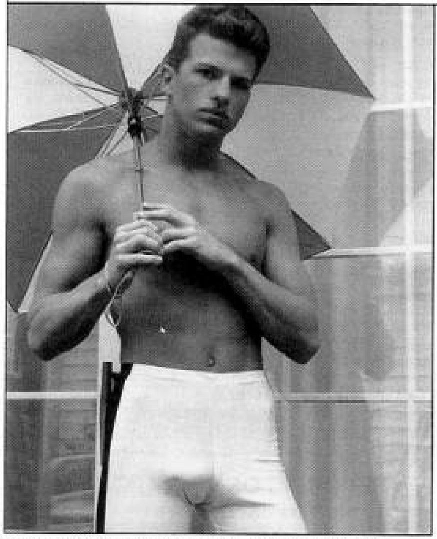
PROMOTE CONDOM USE



THOMAS WOLF



THOMAS WOLF is 21 years old, 5'11" tall and weighs 145 lbs. His eyes are blue and his hair is blond. His main hobby is staying fit but he also enjoys writing, poetry, art and hiking in the great outdoors.

OUTCOME: Why did you decide to try your hand at nude modeling?

THOMAS: Its always been something of a fantasy for me. I find it exciting to think about all of the people out there that might be looking at my pictures.

OUTCOME: Did your first few photo sessions live up to your expectations?

THOMAS: I didn't really know what to expect since this was my first time taking my clothes off for the camera.

OUTCOME: Would you have changed anything in the sessions?

THOMAS: No, nothing. I was pleased with the way that everything was handled.

OUTCOME: Do you want to continue with nude modeling or quit and move on to "regular" modeling?

OUTCOME: I found my first time to be very exciting and I hope that I have the opportunity to continue with nude modeling.

OUTCOME: Are you excited about being in OUTCOME Magazine?

THOMAS: Yes, I only hope that the readers are as excited as I am!

OUTCOME: Do you want to be in other magazines or is this a one time shot for you?

THOMAS: I want to be in as many magazines as possible. I'd also like to do videos and movies so if there are any producers out there please let me know what you think of my chances.

OUTCOME: Have you told any of your friends about the modeling you've done?

THOMAS: Of course! I'm very proud of my body and what I'm doing and I've always been very open with the people who are close to me.

OUTCOME: What do they think about it?

THOMAS: They are supportive for the most part but they don't approve of my plans to make movies.

OUTCOME: You're 21 years old now, when did you first know you were Gay?

THOMAS: I came out when I was 17. I've always been very open and expressive about my sexuality and I've been lucky enough to have friends and family that have stood behind me. I wish everyone was as fortunate.

OUTCOME: What was your first sexual experience like?

THOMAS: Actually I was very disappointed and I'd rather not go into the details.

OUTCOME: Do you have a lover now?

THOMAS: Not currently.

OUTCOME: What is your fantasy man like? What does he look like and how does he act?

THOMAS: He enjoys the outdoors and being physically fit. He has black hair, blue eyes, and an olive complexion. He is at least 6' tall and has a well toned body. He knows how to spoil me but can also keep me in line. Also, it is very important that he be versatile in bed, because I like to be both the top and the bottom.

OUTCOME: Do you go out to the bars frequently?

THOMAS: Right now I have nothing to keep me at home, so yes, I go out almost every Saturday night.

OUTCOME: Do you practice Safe Sex?

THOMAS: Yes, I use condoms and so does anyone else who wants to do anything with me.

OUTCOME: What was the most bizarre or kinky sex you've ever had?

THOMAS: I was on my stomach with my hands handcuffed to the headboard of the bed and my feet tied to the footboard. You can pretty well take it from there.

OUTCOME: You've said that you're very interested in fitness. Do you have a special routine that you follow?

THOMAS: I work out five days a week with free weights.

OUTCOME: You also enjoy the "Great Outdoors." Do you have any interesting stories that happened while you were communing with nature?

THOMAS: Unfortunately I don't get to enjoy the outdoors as much as I used to. I loved taking long hikes with my ex-lover. We would search for the perfect spot and then make love surrounded by nature. Maybe someday I'll find someone else that's willing to go hiking with me.

OUTCOME: Is there anything that you'd like to add or tell the guys out there reading OUTCOME?

THOMAS: I hope you've enjoyed my photo layout and I hope you get to see me again soon, either in another magazine or in a video. And PLEASE, continue to play safe!

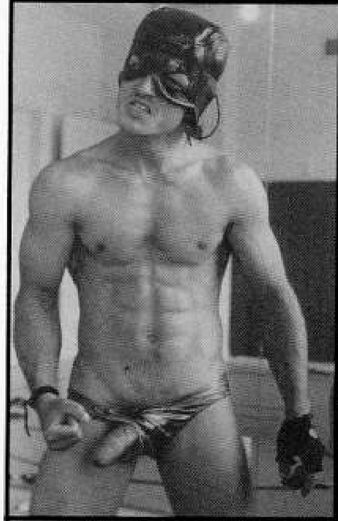
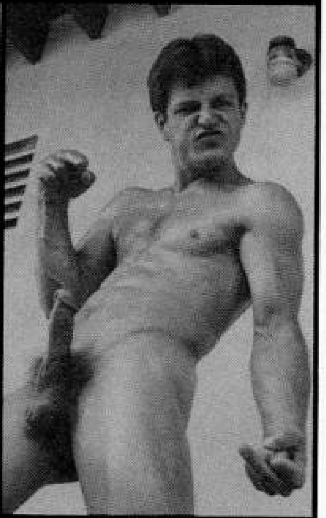
MIGHTY MIKE

The Mask The Mud The Myth





Mike is one of those rare men who can't be forgotten or ignored. Like a tune that gets stuck playing over and over in your mind, Mike attracts attention without even trying. The camera loves him, and he always looks good, although subtly different somehow each time seen. He's a California man, almost 27 now, with beautifully-sculpted muscles on a perfect 5'5" frame. There were 3 sets of photos and a solo and duo audio offered in VT-83, where he first appeared. He has since been in many wrestling and boxing videos, too. VT-159 captures Mike in a series of moods and spirits over several days. The first session is Mike with the Mask, a disguise which allows him to strut and spit as he flexes and kicks, tears and rips, talks and oils his way around the studio right at you: he smokes a cigar, embellishes himself with rawhide and just plain shows off, until he jacks off right into the camera! The second scene is Mike Goes Underground. In the dust and oil and darkness, you will see Mike transform himself from a clean and wholesome surfer guy into a sex-driven savage, freed from the demands of daylight, private and secretive yet spittin' cock-cocky (a perfect act or another side of the real him?!) Finally, a bright and cheery posing and J/O shoot-out on the porch, clean-shaven with the sun literally kissing his almost-perfectly-smooth skin, taut and muscular. The two earlier audios were the best (sizzlers), but there is also a new solo (C-159-1), which is a nasty tease of a tape from this straight guy who knows just how desirable his burgundy cock, great balls, and gorgeous bod are. Photoset 159-A is with mask and cigar (but not hard-ons); sets B, C and D are stunning, muscular-hard studio shots; sets E, F and G are gritty mud and hard cock, and sets H and I are outside. VT-159 is two hours of color and sound video for $59. The adventure lies in your mind.

A deliciously obscene, part-time "relationship" is desired with a funky, 18-28 y.o. bombshell; one who knows he possesses the very best chunky chocolate and sweet cream. I will obediently beg & crawl for the privilege of licking boots, being spit 'n' shit bombed, and slurping up doggie bowl dinners; or enthusiastically provide toilet training services with "pretty baby" talk, rubber diaper changes, yummy enemas and... exhibitionism (public accidents in revealing spandex shorts?). Devilish guys, send creative proposals then reign supreme—a pagan throne and groveling pig awaits your sexy grunts, squirts, and plops. Long haired "metal types" (lace or leather) a plus. Free

INTERVIEW: MIKE "THE SPIKE"

As we were nearing deadline I received the new brochure from OLD RELIABLE and to my delight David was offering a new tape of one of my favorite models, MIKE "The Spike" VICTOR. MIKE's BACK!(VT-159. $59 plus $3. 1626 N. Wilcox No.107, Hollywood, CA 90028...you people should have this memorized by now). Sure enough there was Mike's back, naked, covered with mud, cheeks slightly spread, cock hard. I immediately mailed it to Santa with a note "this is what I've been asking you to leave for the past 30 years, get it right this time!". Five days with Phil was 4 days and 23 hours too much but 5 days with Mike would be great.

Anywho, I called David and left a message on his machine that I wanted to interview Mr. The Spike if at all possible. Next day I got a call from the legend his self saying he was in town staying with David and would be happy to do his first interview, with OUTCOME! That night we did it (in your dreams), the interview that is. I want to thank David for being such a great friend and making a wish come true (you'll be getting the milk and cookies on Dec. 24th from here on) and I want to thank Mike for giving us his time for the interview. You're every bit the nice guy I had envisioned!A few minutes into the interview I noticed my recorder was fucking up so I lost the start so I'll summarize.

Mike got into nude modeling 3-4 years ago. He was a homeless person and had stopped at the YMCA to shower. Another showerer took note of his numerous assets and informed him that he could make money posing nude for a photographer he knew named Casey Klinger. He decided to give it a shot and it worked out to his liking. Very shortly there after he was put in touch with David Hurles where he did posing and a video (VT-83 reviewed in OUTCOME No.6). Mike is now 27 (getting hotter every year), stands 5'5", is of Irish-Cherokee-German stock and is a native Californian.

OUTCOME: What do you think about posing, you are a natural at it?

MIKE: In some respects it's pretty nice and in other respects it's probably pornographic depending on how you look at it and where you draw your own lines and stuff. I just do it for the money myself (laughs).

OUTCOME: Well have you gotten any reaction to it? Do people recognize you?

MIKE: As a matter of fact, yes, somebody did recognize me. I recently made a trip up to Portland and I came back and there was a layover in San Francisco. And there was some guy looking at me and he looked like a friend of a friend, who happens to be a police officer and I said "you look like a cop". I don't know why I said that, it just came out of my mouth and he said "you look like Mike the Spike". He actually recognized me. He was driving a motor scooter and he went and parked it like five blocks down on the street I was walking. He asked me if I wanted to smoke a joint, I said sure. He said he recognized me and everything that's why I went with him. It was interesting to actually see somebody who recognized me.

OUTCOME: That's the only time anyone ever did?

MIKE: I don't know. You know you wonder. People are probably more discreet, they probably just don't say anything. I'm sure that if I saw somebody that I'd seen before like certain female models that I see or even male ones that you've seen with them in a magazine or something. I don't know that I'd say anything to them or anything.

OUTCOME: So modeling for you has been kind of neutral. It hasn't been positive or negative?

MIKE: Yeah, right in neutral.

OUTCOME: You also do quite a bit of wrestling & boxing videos. What got you into that? Did you do it in school?

MIKE: Well, not really. Dave was already into it & I just went along. I know how to wrestle and goof around, play around. I wasn't a sissy or anything as a kid.

OUTCOME: Well there is a skill to doing wrestling.

MIKE: Yeah, and I felt pretty confident then and under all the circumstances. Nothing could go wrong and I could be a good chance 'cause like you can't really just walk down the street and ask somebody "hey, you wanna wrestle"? Without them getting too over bearing or being intimidated or thinking you're weird. You don't get to wrestle like that. It was a lot of fun. I'd do it any day of the week if I felt good.

OUTCOME: You're a real outgoing type of person.

MIKE: Yeah in that respect maybe. It is fun. (asking Mr. Hurles) Would you say I have fun Dave, wrestling? Yeah. I did a match just a couple days ago for

Dave. A guy came by looking for Dave and David was out, I'm staying here for a couple weeks. So I let the guy in the house and I ended up doing a wrestling match with him. I felt pretty confident myself but I sort of let him get me in a lot of head locks and stuff just to build his confidence up. I've done that on a bunch of the matches but pretty much everyone he's put me up against I've felt pretty confident about. I like to mix it up and make it look pretty good.

OUTCOME: Well you say you're homeless but is there any particular line of occupation that you're skilled at that you are looking to do.

MIKE: The lodging industry and also warehousing. I can do a little of a lot of different things. I can paint. A lot of menial types of labor like gardening. I've had a delivery job.

OUTCOME: A Jack-of-all-Trades?

MIKE: Yeah.

OUTCOME: You've also done audio tapes for David. What's that like?

MIKE: I didn't feel like I could say the right things or do the right things. You just do it alone in a room with a tape recorder. He gives you a prep card that says talk about dot-dot-dot, stories and different things.

OUTCOME: But you have to make it all up yourself.

MIKE: Yeah, make it all up or think of something improvisational.

OUTCOME: Do you find that hard? Essentially it's acting.

MIKE: Well yeah but I'm not that much into it. I don't know if they came out good or not. It's hard to get into.

OUTCOME: You're pretty well put together. Do you maintain yourself in a gym or what?

MIKE: Just metabolism, I think. Hereditary, I'm probable gunna get fat when I get older (laughs).

OUTCOME: That explains why you're not fat but your're very well defined and you have to do something to achieve that.

MIKE: Well as a kid I was always pretty athletic. I think it started out that way. Also I'm a smoker and I don't overeat. I mean when I'm hungry I'll fill myself up but I won't go out of my way if I'm not hungry. Some people drink a soda just because it's there, I'm not like that. Maybe a lot of walking, probably a lot of walking has a lot to do with it.

OUTCOME: Have you ever done any live shows?

MIKE: Live shows? For example.

OUTCOME: Strip shows.

MIKE: No but you know what. It's funny, 'cause I lived in Bakersfield for awhile and somebody said you can make money doing that. I was interested in getting into it, dancing in front of women. I never got the full details on it. I ended up coming back down here or something and never got into it. I probable would have gotten into it at that time but probable now I wouldn't. Two left feet you know.

OUTCOME: I assume that other than David's videos you haven't done anything else.

MIKE: I worked for a guy named B.G.

OUTCOME: Wrestling.

MIKE: Yeah it's wrestling. I worked for a guy named Hal. I worked for a couple of different people from Bob Mizer to just people who have their own camera and didn't ask me to sign a model release. I'm getting some work next week doing some bondage photos for a guy named Hal.

OUTCOME: Filmco.

MIKE: Yeah, you know him huh. I'm waiting for him to come back from San Francisco.

OUTCOME: Can you tell me something of your likes and dislikes in TV, films , etc.

MIKE: Well I like to watch the news, nature shows, information shows, simple because I don't like to read. So I try to get some of it on TV. I like the outdoors. As a matter of fact I'm thinking of moving to Alaska but I'm going to move up to Seattle like right after I'm finished with Hal.

OUTCOME: Do you go to the movies a lot?

MIKE: Not a lot. I'll go when somebody wants me to go with them. I used to go a lot as a kid but I don't really go out a lot. I'm sort of a house mouse type person. I'm thrifty and I'm lazy, I don't work a lot so I don't have a lot of money to spend. So I can usually keep myself amused, smoke a joint, watch some television.

OUTCOME: These days most people are staying home and watching movies on cable or tape. What kind of films do you like.

MIKE: The best film I seen that not a lot of people would like is a Woody Allen film called "Hannah and Her Sisters". Semi-comedy, semi-drama, something with some meat to it. I liked "Star Wars" but that was a long time ago.

OUTCOME: With me it's Science-Fiction, Horror, Fantasy. But you like a little of everything"

MIKE: Yeah, a little of everything.

OUTCOME: How about television shows?

MIKE: Sitcoms probably. Short attention span. The last time I had a TV of my own was when I was married like over two years ago. Now like I'm at my friend's house and we're watch TV with the cable and it's funny. The cable went out and there's nothing he can do about it. But it's funny if they don't go out they sit around the house and wonder what to do. I'd probably just go out and go for a walk or something.

OUTCOME: You aren't a couch potato. You're a...

MIKE: I don't like being here being bored in front of a big blue screen. I'd rather be doing something but it's a matter of money. If you don't have any money you can't go out and goof around and have fun. Well you could but it's not as easy.

OUTCOME: When you have money do you like to go to clubs and things like that?

MIKE: Yeah, sometimes. Usually drink, get an eye full, talk to people and stuff. I'm not into dancing and I'm not the kind of a person who dates like regular people do. I don't even have a car so like when sex comes my way it just comes. I had some sex up in Oregon. I was with this really strange girl (laughs)

OUTCOME: I didn't know they allowed sex in Oregon.

MIKE: I didn't know either and they allow it outside too!

OUTCOME: Is there anything you want to tell the world?

MIKE: Nothing they want to hear. How about, love their fellow man. How's that?

OUTCOME: But they have to go it safely.

MIKE: Love their fellow man, but do it safely!

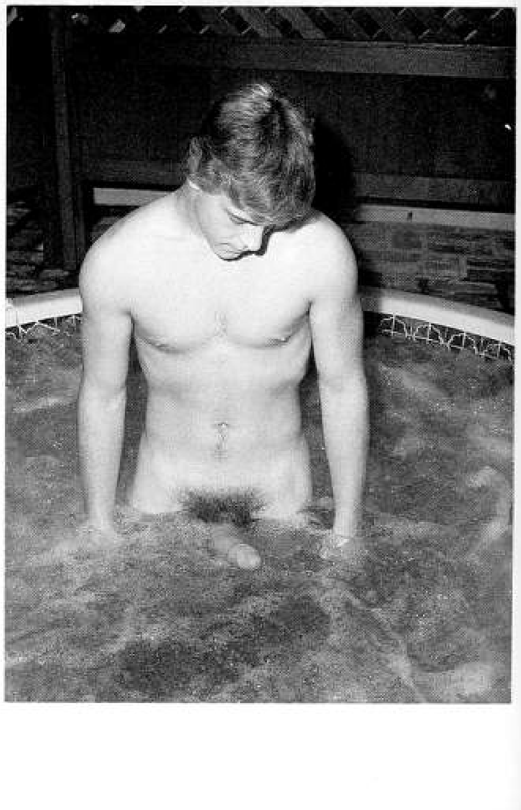
JON ERICH



You may have wondered why you haven't seen the photography of KURT DEITRICK around in some time. His models were outstanding & thanks to proper lighting & quality film his color print took on almost a 3-D quality. If some of the backgrounds looked familiar it's because Kurt was a close friend of BRUCE of L.A. & when he Bruce died in 1974 Kurt inherited Bruce's famous home. The next year he opened his own studio KENSINGTON ROAD & produced some outstanding work with greats like BURT EDWARDS (who sadly we understand was claimed by A.I.D.S. a few years ago), STEVE ESPIE, ROBIN PERNA, & DANNY LEVITT. He retired in 1979 & sold the studio. After awhile he got the urge to start creating again & opened Photography by KURT DEITRICK. Ill health caused him to close down the studio a few years ago and find a buyer. I'm very happy to say that thanks to this individual the work of the KURT DEITRICK Studio is once more available to the public! He has kindly consented be a contributor so that OUTCOME will be running KURT DEITRICK Studio layouts every issue for the next year or two. Add to this that my friend Kurt has agreed to give me some background info on each model. You'll find ads in the personals where you can write to purchase your own copies of the work.

To start off, & give centerfold TALL JOHN some competition, we present model/pornstar JON "HANS MUELLER" ERICH (yes there is another Hans Mueller. Jon used the name in his Nova films then left the business, more reciently someone else swipped the name & is using it). Kurt met Jon during the summer of 1981. Jon had moved to California from the mid-west & was interested in showing off his assets. He was 19 going on 20, stood 6'2", & came equipted with a gigantic, thick 10" tool that helped him make friends real fast. Jon was an outgoing young man who liked boxing & football & he & Kurt struck up a close friendship. Kurt did the second & final session during November, for the first time doing pictures outdoors in his backyard at night. The pictures of Jon tin the 103 degree Jacuzzi are from that session. His work for Nova :"Kept After School" "Heat Wave" & "Kyd Stuf" . All his work in the field was created in the '80-'81 period & then he moved on to other things. No word on what he's currently doing.

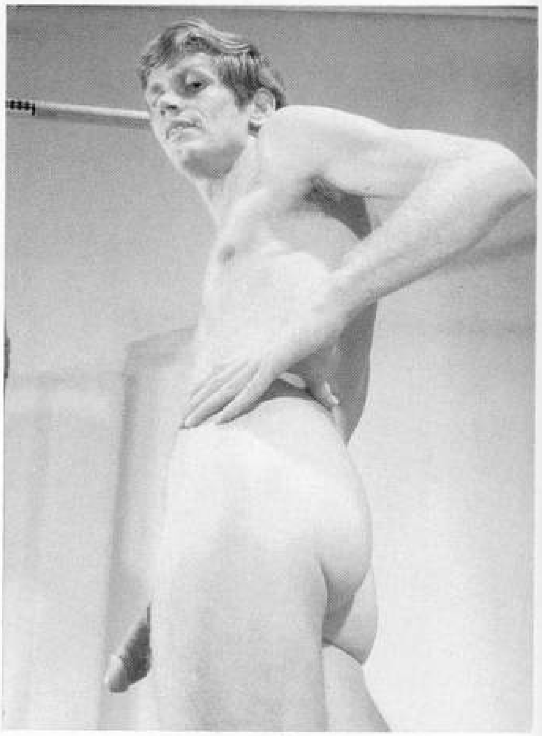
TALL John



TALL JOHN was one of the legendary models in the late 60's/early 70's, for obvious reasons. His name derives from the fact that he stands 6'4" & comes equipped with a very formidable 11+" Tool. He was 20 at the time & weighed in at 170 lbs. with dirty blond hair & brown/hazel eyes. He's of Scandinavian/German stock and had recently come out, moving from Arizona (where the dry roasted right wing nuts come from) to NYC (where asst. nuts live, lightly salted). He was (still is I assume) related to some big shot who had a hissy fit when he saw some of John's pix (I guess he didn't get as big a birthday present as John did) & used influence to suppress his pix & get him out of the business. There aren't a vast amount of pix, mags, loops of him so I guess hissy succeeded. In addition this work CHAMPION did when John came to NYC, John worked with a few photographers when he went to California. He did a loop, discussed in OUTCOME #4 & available on video, with another CHAMPION discovery ALLEN (with a faked fuck scene as Allen didn't want to walk funny for the rest of his life). He was also the main model in the magazine "HUSTLER 2: a story in photo of a young man's search for himself" (Drama!). For a time Tall John got into the dildoe business. He made molds of his own famous pride & joy and was able to talk a number of the celebrities he tricked with into letting him make molds of their goodies which he sold. If anyone out there knows where he is or is in direct touch with him we would very much like to interview him for a future issue!

MEL ROBERTS:

The Interview!

IMAGES: © 1991 MEL ROBERTS

I received the surprise of my life when in talking with Bob Mizer at AMG I mentioned that, among others, I was looking for MEL ROBERTS to do an interview with. He happened to have an address for him, some years old. As it turns out the address was correct & I was in contact with a man who's fantastic photography mixed the beauty of nature with the beauty of young men. Here was the man who discovered the legendary SEAN PATRICK & JAY HOWARD (for which we owe him an eternity of gratitude) plus DANNY ALBERT, SHANNON CONRAD, SONNY & DUSTY ADAMS, JERRY ROGERS, TOMMY JAMESON, RICH THOMSON, ROBBIE SVENSON, & many more. He was as surprised as Scotty Cunningham that he was being sought &, unfortunately, feeling he wasn't remembered. Something is terribly wrong when the photographers & models who inspired so many & gave us such wondrous works feel they have been forgotten, as have the legends in the music business

OUTCOME don't forget no one! Mel like many was attacked & harassed by the S.S. tactics of California's version of the Gestapo, the L.A.P.D. They raided his home without just cause, took his cameras, magazines, photos, correspondence and mailing list (TWICE within 18 months) & acted as if The Constitution didn't exist. He was never charged or convicted as they well knew he had violated no laws. In a police state like California & esp. with so many Republicans as Governor this happens. As was the case with my friend Glenn Turner, the cops refused to return his property. It took him a year & great expense to get everything back. That the police are allowed to perpetrate this kind of criminal activity against innocent citizens is a national disgrace!

We are pleased to not only present exclusively MEL ROBERT's first interview but also present a selection of his beautiful works.

If any of his fans would like to write him a letter & let him know he isn't forgotten they are welcome to do so via OUTCOME.

OUTCOME: Why don't we start by having you tell us how you got started?

MEL: I was a film editor for the studios, I worked on a a lot of major projects mainly for Columbia pictures & United Artists. At the time I was doing films. I had always watched & bought the works of Bob Mizer, he had that little magazine called Physique Pictorial. He had some great models but I had my own ideas about how I would have photographed them. I've met him a few times & we've always had a good relationship and early on we were in contact and of course we both suffered under the oppression of the L.A.P.D. They seized his money & safe, they didn't do that with me they only spent 10 hours going through my house looking for whatever they could find. But getting back to starting out, so I thought gee I wonder if I could sort of..& I had a couple of friends who were really good. My lover at the time was an extremely attractive young man & I had a couple of other good friends & I asked them if they would mind just posing for me, just to see what kind of work I could achieve. They agreed & I did some work & I did some pictures & I sent them in to the publisher of THE YOUNG PHYSIQUE and MUSCLEBOY low & behold he was very entranced & enchanted with them, published them & gave me very good space in some of the issues. He wrote me a letter & said he was very pleased with my work & would I submit more he'd like to use it. So I thought wow there's some interest in my work so I started finding more people & doing more pictures and sending them to him.

OUTCOME: This would have been like the early 60's, right?

MEL: Yeah, this would have been like 1961 or 62. At the time I was still working for the studios and I was just doing this on the side. Then there was a publisher in Philadelphia who published a magazine called DRUM. He wrote me & said he'd seen some of my work. When I first started out you couldn't show a totally nude male, except from behind. You had to use a posing strap at the very least. One of my principal objectives was to show a beautiful male figure in a natural environment. I didn't like putting them up against background in studios with special lighting effects. I always though the human male body was beautiful and an integral part of nature and I tried to depict it in that way. So I always drove out to the beach or up in the mountains and had the models appear in a natural environment. Another thing that I noticed, a lot of times when I met guys I told them I though they were attractive & interesting. Most were straight anyway and they didn't seem to have that much objection to it. But I had to know them as a friend first, I could never just come right out & ask them to model. There were several reasons for that; one, most of them would have been reluctant anyway esp. the kinds I was attracted to photographing and second, once they got before the camera since they weren't professional models if they had known me as a friend & felt comfortable with me that would also reflect in the photography. So very often I would usually have dinner and invite them over & they'd meet my friends and become almost an integral part of the family before I'd even took my first picture of them. So that when we did ultimately go out into the field they felt so comfortable with me & so relaxed it reflected in my work. About 1967 I suddenly got a letter from a publisher in New York who said he'd seen my work & wanted to know if I'd be interested in publishing my own magazine. I thought that was very flattering and I said SURE!

OUTCOME: Yeah, why not.

MEL: And by this time I was starting to develop, people would write me because I was running ads in THE YOUNG PHYSIQUE and MUSCLEBOY, pictorial ads, and I was starting to get mail & requests for my photographs so I began to develop a little mail order business. In fact it got to the point that it was taking up so much of my time, because I was also doing my own lab work. At that time it was not appropriate to send nude male pictures to the laboratories (hetero homophobia as you could send nude women-ED) because they wouldn't process the film, esp. when it came to making prints and esp. making color prints. So I built my own little color laboratory & began to do all my own color work and I was making color prints up to 16"X20" & 20"x24" in my darkroom and believe me it's a job doing color printing. I don't know if you've ever tried to do it.

OUTCOME: I've never done it because I know you have to be so precise with the temperature.

MEL: You have to have exact temperatures, a degree either way can affect the color balance and I didn't really have that professional a set up, I was doing it in my own home. I converted my basement into a laboratory and I was also doing all my b&w printing down there. So it got to the point that it was taking up so much of my time that I stopped working almost entirely in the film industry and started devoting most of my time to my male physique business. I've never really sat down with someone & talked about this in a sequential manner before.

OUTCOME: What you're saying follows things CHAMPION & others have told be about that period. Everyone had to be creative to get around walls the hetero establishment set up, such as having to learn to doing printing. CHAMPION retired in '73 then tried a comeback in '81 but found you couldn't make anywhere near the money that he had made. The mags took business from those selling pix, then newsstand slicks took it from the "one shot" mags & now video has taken the biggest cut of the pie.

MEL: Well I never made that much money. It wasn't anything like the income I had working at the studios and I was working a hell of a lot harder but the only reason I was able to devote as much time to it,and I did allright, was that during the time I was working at the studios I bought a house. And believe me one you've accomplished that you've got a roof over your head & that's probably your greatest expense, you can always find food. And I always had 2 or 3 people living with me & they were paying me rent.

OUTCOME: There's also something great too about working for yourself.

MEL: Right, exactly so I was offered the chance to publish a magazine of my own, I made my own layouts and did my own artwork. It came out as MEL ROBERT'S BOYS, and I went on to publish seven issues under that title. Clark Pollock in Philadelphia, published a magazine called DRUM , saw my first several issues and offered to publish my work and guarantee a greater financial reward he continued to publish "BOYS" until I moved to London Enterprises, where I published additional titles such as MEL ROBERTS' MALE, and MEL ROBERTS' CALIFORNIA BOY, REX, and MEL ROBERTS' SEX FANTASY. My last publication was MALE #3 which came out in May 1978. By that time there was less money paid, and after being raided, I lost my appetite to continue in the field. One thing this interview does is to allow me to apologize to those customers who may never have received their orders late in this period. After the police confiscated all my correspondence and mailing lists, as well as all my negatives and magazines, I lost contact with those customers and some orders were never completed. When I finally got everything back, I decided to abandon my business and retire. I know I may have disappointed many of my customers.

OUTCOME: There are also fewer & fewer shops selling non-newsstand magazines. They've converted to videos.

MEL: There are some but they're very, very raunchy. I didn't really care about getting into pornography, I enjoyed looking it, but I felt what I really wanted to do and felt there was a tremendous need for was here were all these "girlie" magazines, PLAYBOY &

SEAN

SHANNON CONRAD

PENTHOUSE & everything, but no one ever took the male figure seriously. My publisher out here, I had begged him to let me slant my magazines more toward women. I used to send my magazines to my sisters, I have 2 sisters back east, and they loved them. They used to take them to work and show them to their girl friends. Because I though damn it women like to look at guys bodies, not just Gay guys but women too. But he would never accommodate me, naw naw he couldn't be bothered. He just wanted to keep it to the Gay audience and he kept the advertising to the Gay audience. With the success of PLAYGIRL, we now know that I was right. And again I didn't want to get into porno. It was difficult enough doing simple physique stuff & I was getting raided by the L.A.P.D., what would they do if I was doing hardcore duos & stuff. So right around 1980, actually closer to '81, when I decided to hell with it and gave up everything completely. Right now, believe it or not, I'm getting ready to get into teaching. I've applied to a college for a professor ship to teach film.*

OUTCOME: That's fantastic!

MEL: Everyone said on the basis of my experience in the film industry I should be a good instructor. I went to U.S.C. I graduated from the dept. of cinema there, I went with a lot of famous people you've probably heard of and worked with & for them at times and then I worked on the only film that was ever "black-listed" in the United States called "Salt of the Earth". The was during the mccarthy period when it was dangerous to have any views other than that of the right wing. And I was very active in forming a union in Hollywood and I was also active in the MATTACHINE SOCIETY—the Gay rights organization way back in the early 50's. And so I've always had a lot of experience & my friends said you should go into teaching & there was an ad in a cinema magazine looking for a professor at college not too far way.

OUTCOME: There are too many crafts being lost because young people only want to make quick, big bucks (thanks to Reagan's cult of greed) & this country is the loser.

MEL: There are a few people out there who managed to overcome the studio system & come out with some really interesting work, but there's not enough of them. The trouble is that most people trying to get into the business only want to for the money. If a film doesn't make a hundred million dollars it's not successful.

OUTCOME: Being a photographer myself I'd be interested in hearing about the vital statistics of your work.

MEL: I used two Rolleiflex cameras with flash, resulting in a 2 ¼ x 2 ¼ negative or transparency. I estimate I probably took between 45,000 to 50,000 exposures, photographed nearly 200 models. I like to think that I influenced fashion in some small way—I was tearing and ripping Levis and shorts, and cutting T-shirts just below the pecs long before both became fashionable. But more important, it was a happy and rewarding period in my life. Although you are the first editor to publish any of my work in the U.S. since 1978, I have an agent in Europe who distributes my photography in 6 foreign countries even today.

JAY HOWARD

OUTCOME: Are you still in touch with any of your models?

MEL: As a matter of fact you mentioned JAY HOWARD, Jay was my lover from 1969 till 1980. I talked to him on the phone, we still see each other we're still very good friends. He lives some distance away but we correspond & speak on the phone every other week. I told him you wanted to interview him, he said no.

OUTCOME: (starts sobbing hysterically while slicing wrists with a dull knife & sticking head in oven)

MEL: *I know that he worked for Bob Mizer (he says paying no attention to the racket going on-ED) before I met him. I can't give you any information about him other than what he'll let me tell you but I have his photographs & everything. I told him he should be very proud of his work but he was never very happy about his modeling.

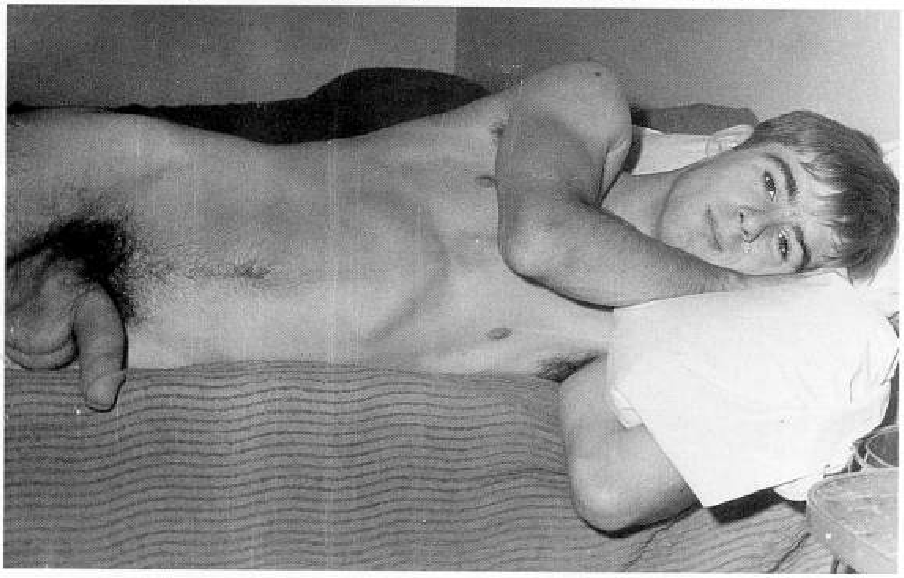
OUTCOME: I had models like that too, Tommy & Gary Wilde for example, they did really wonderful work & had fun doing it but were never really into it. It was just a job & they can't understand all the fuss.



DANNY ALBERT

MEL: I photographed him over a 3 year period. I probably have more pictures of him than any other model I ever photographed. He was one who wrote & asked me if he could model. He was my most popular model. I got more fan letters & requests & pleas from people all over who'd seen him. I don't know if you saw my magazine REX but that featured nothing but him.

OUTCOME: Of course, that plus the cover of PREMIERE. Finding these guys is so difficult and there really isn't anyone in the current batch of whatever I'd want to interview. Most are dim witted, dull, money hungry hustlers. The do everything explicit but nothing sensual. The guys who posed from 1950 to the very early 70's had something special about them. They were more stable & intelligent, on the whole and posed for fun not to make a career out of it.

MEL: Very few of my models were hustlers, though some might have done so at one time or another. Most were just people I met & knew and just invited to participate. They never though that much about it.

DUSTY ADAMS

MEL: Yeah there were some people I used to get. A lot of the people I ended up using were people who saw my work & wrote & asked if they could model for me. I picked up several good models that way. SHANNON CONRAD turned out to be one of those. He was straight, he used to work here with my roommate at the time. He saw my work & wanted to know if he could model and I said sure, why not.

OUTCOME: Have you run into SEAN PATRICK?

MEL: No I have not seen him for probably a good 10 years. I ran into him one day at a hamburger place.

OUTCOME: I saw picture of him in IN TOUCH.

MEL: Somebody else told me he was in In Touch.

OUTCOME: They didn't seem to know who he was because they just ran the pictures without acknowledging him. At the time I saw pix in a local California mag. in some swimsuit contest & I assume that's where the photographer found him. He had short hair & a moustache and he looked great. The pix were done outside including one of him on a rock. No question it was him.

MEL: They didn't use his name?

OUTCOME: No I don't think they picked up on who he was. They just saw a cute guy.

MEL: This is how long ago?

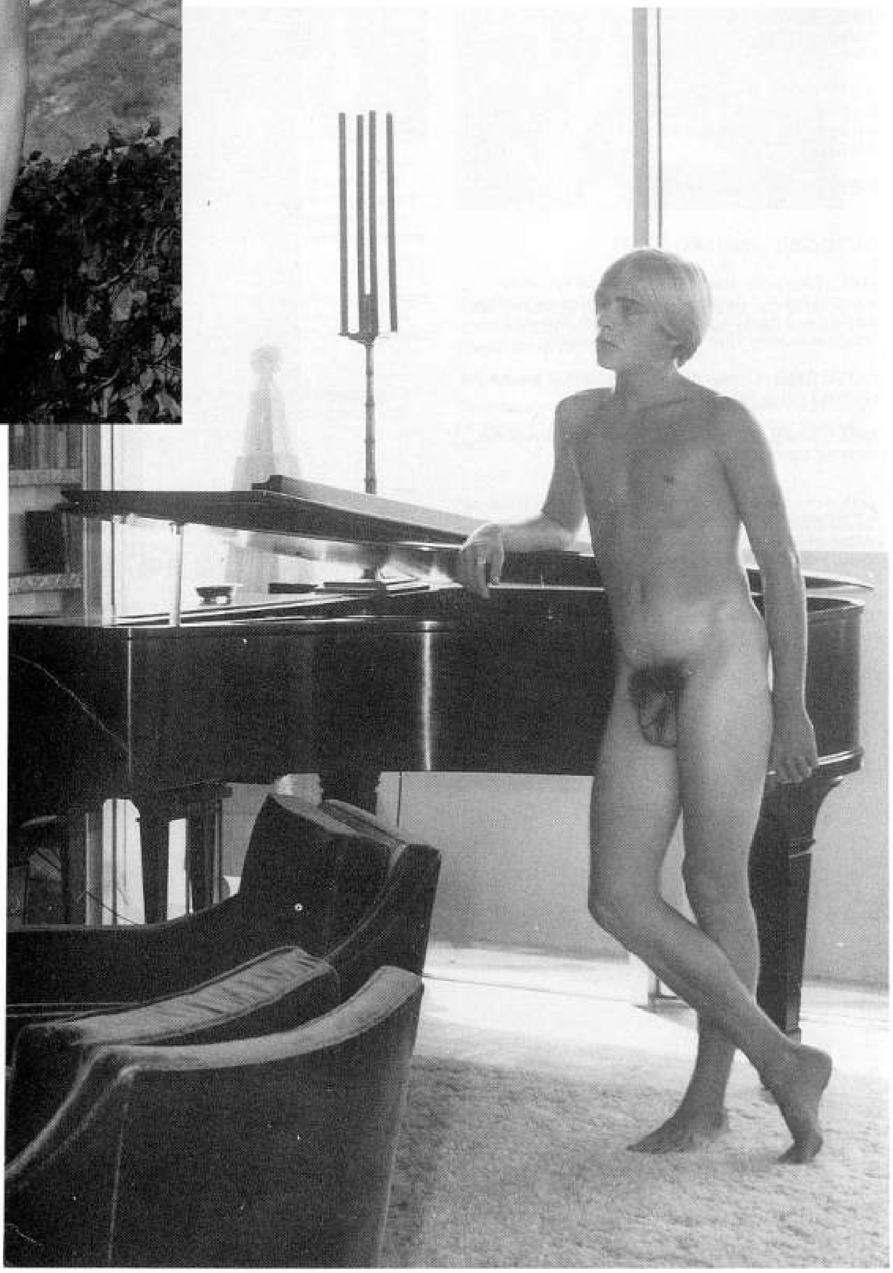
OUTCOME: I really can't remember. The pix were in b&w so it was awhile.



STEVE ERIKSON

OUTCOME: It was also the 60's & everyone was freer & more interested in posing and having a good time.

MEL: And most knew they weren't going to make a career out of it. It wasn't anything they could really rely on for a livelihood.

OUTCOME: Which is how it should be looked at. Too many today think the bucks for having will go on forever & by the time the truth dawns they've wasted a chunk of their life.

MEL: I always made it as enjoyable as I could, esp. for models that I liked. I took them on 2-3 day trips. We'd go off to Yosemite, go up to Idlewild up in the mountains and visit friends & stay there. A couple time we went down to LaJolla & San Diego, so I made it an enjoyable experience as well as being just work for them and I think they liked that.

OUTCOME: Do you remember much about DANNY ALBERT? He was another of my favorites. He also worked under the name JIM BURKE.

MEL: He was married.

OUTCOME: Was he!

MEL: Not only that but one time his wife caught he & I in bed together during a photo session. I had to go out through the bathroom window, that was really weird.

OUTCOME: Under the JIM BURKE name he worked for a few photographers.

MEL: Yeah, he did. But the last I heard he moved up north.

NEXT ISSUE: Cox douses Mr. Howard with butter as Mel Roberts finishes his interview telling about how he met JAY HOWARD & gives us some background (after hogging Jay's background for 11 years it's about time he shared) along with a layout of his incredible photos. Meantime go to your local newsstand & scream "When the hell's OUTCOME #11 gunna get here!!" Go ahead, I dare ya.

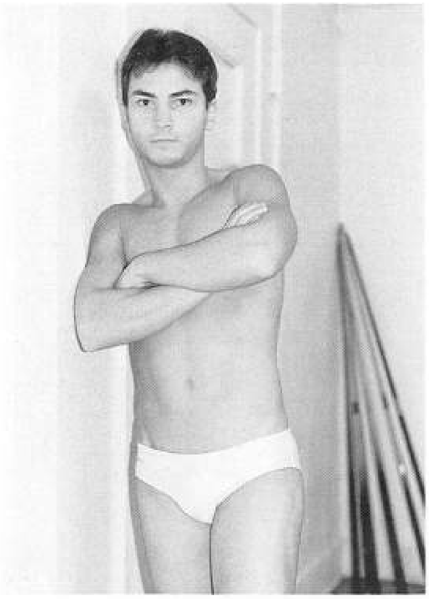
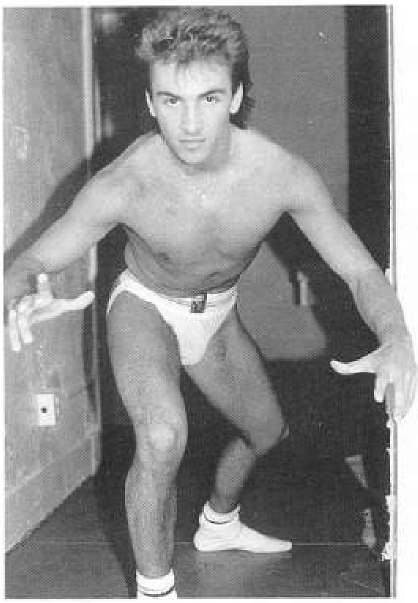
WRESTLING



DANNY BROWN

Most of the videos do not have nudity but do have erotic holds such as KID LEOPARD stretching his opponent up in the air pulling at his arms and legs while the tight briefs strain upward and the opponent gives up. The KID then humiliates the other man by stripping him of his briefs leaving him naked on the mat.



TONY DAVIS

Wrestling is the only sport in which a man can hold another man's ass or crotch without anyone suspecting they are Gay. Only a handful of Gay videos have had wrestling sequences in them to satisfy the craving for this form of male sport intimacy. LIKE A HORSE, INEVITABLE LOVE, and PIN ME are the three commercial releases.

A few years ago a new company called BG ENTERPRISES started producing wrestling videos from the Gay point of view. Today there are dozens of wrestling videos with several themes. The videos would probably disappoint those looking for the hard adult videos. For those that find men struggling in wrestling they will love them.

There is a new series of videos with men wrestling in jockstraps. Another series features Latinos and another features younger men wrestling professional style titled THE BRATPACK Series

The ARENA series has nudity with ball and dick grabbing, kneeing of the balls and the ripping off of wrestling briefs with the action continuing in the nude.

Many porn stars have begun doing videos, some wearing tight revealing briefs or thongs and others in the nude. They usually perform under a pseudonym: JIM LARSON is ERIC DAHL/DIRK/KEITH PANTHER/WANDA FEINGOLD; GEORGE ATLAS is NICK HARMON; CHIP SANDS is GEOFFREY SPEARS/JUSTIN RHODES; LEO G. CARROLL is TOPPER host to said ghosts. Still others use their stage name: DANNY BROWN, ROMEO HANS, MICHAEL CUMMINGS, THOM KATT, T.J. SWAN, RANDY PAGE, VINNIE MARINO, & TONY DAVIS.

There are also a series of live events with audiences including the Metro in Boston, the Phantom in LA and a San Francisco match.

The videos are available through ATKOL VIDEO (POB 2596, Muhlenberg Sta., Plainfield, NJ 07060 1-800-88-ATKOL or 1-908-756-0601). The tapes are available in VHS format only and range in price from $49 - $69 each. A free brochure is available.

BOBBY rrrrrrRUFF

18 year old BOBBY RUFF was an easy going young man who CHAMPION discovered in 1963. He stood 5'8", weighed in at 140 lbs. with blond hair & blue eyes. I assume those eyes were smiling as he's of Irish decent. This was toward the end of the Physique era when full frontal nudes were not allowed but you could have a model dress in sheer, clinging or see-thru materials as technically their goodies were fully covered. It was a time when a little mystery built a lot of fantasy. Bobby was really into playing pool so CHAMP did these pix of him playing & in a pool.

WHAT's NEW IN D.C. Dept.: Well Congress finally decided that the "1988 Child Protection & Obscenity Enforcement Act" couldn't get passed that goldarned Constitution. The problem was the bit about record keeping & saying if you don't have the required proof of age on a model then he or she is automatically a minor & we send you to prison for 10 years & make you pay $100,000.00. It was successfully defeated by a group representing libraries, museums, & major publishers as an assault on the First Amendment, among other things, and who's intent had nothing to do with protecting kids.

Senator Joe Biden stepped in, with real intent to make sure all models are adults, to help create the "Child Protection Restoration & Penalties Enhancement Act of 1990" which amended the old law. The law concerns all magazines, videos, etc. which contain 1 or more visual depictions created AFTER 11-01-90 (not the prior 02-06-78*) of* "actual sexually explicit conduct" (defined as "actual but not simulated conduct"). Would've been nice had they defined "sexually explicit conduct" with some explicit terms such as "oral or anal penetration", so as to be very clear & avoid confusion, but Congress can't be bothered writing explicit laws. The law directly affects those who are involved in the hiring, contracting for managing or otherwise arranging for the participation of the performers depicted (performer defined as "any person portrayed in a visual depiction engaging in, or assisting another person to engage in, actual sexually explicit conduct"). They must verify that performers are of age by obtaining photo copies of 2 or more forms of LEGAL I.D., including one LEGAL PHOTO I.D. which by it's photo establishes that the I.D. & the performer are one & the same. These must be kept on file along with any & all names the performer has used in his entire life cross referenced & available to a rep. of the Attorney General. Not having such or using I.D. they know is fake is a Federal crime BUT they can no longer say the performer is automatically a minor. 2-5 years is the penalty plus fines. So any of you guys with dreams of doing videos or posing better be sure you have plenty of proper I.D. on hand, or don't apply!

As for OUTCOME, we don't run pix of sexually explicit CONDUCT. The law requires those who do run such images created after 11-01-90 to run a statement of who the photographers are & where their records are kept. We aren't required to check such. After following all the insanity of the other law & seeing as how the same coalition who last opposed it are also fighting this, *I have decided that until this is resolved OUTCOME WILL NOT BE RUNNING ANY IMAGES CREATED AFTER 11-01-90 PERIOD starting with this issue. When the dust clears & everything is established I'll begin running current works but not until then. I'm off the merry-go-round this trip.

HELLO STRANGER Dept.: We're very pleased to welcome to our family one of the legendary photographers of the male form, Mr. MEL ROBERTS. Like Scotty Cunningham last issue, Mel was amazed that he was remember & being sought. His strikingly beautiful portraits of young men communing with nature are inspirational. His models, like Sean Patrick, Jay Howard, Danny Albert, Jerry Rogers, Rich Thomson, Shannon Conrad and Sonny & Dusty Adams, have attained immortality & hold a very special place in the hearts of us who first saw their images in our youth. In this issue Mel gives OUTCOME readers exclusively his first interview & a sampling of his art.

Till next time gang, same time same channel!

CACHITO

© 1991 MAN-AGE Studios

These pix of model CACHITO were commissioned by CHAMPION in the early 70's & taken by a friend who was going on vacation to Spain & Italy. He came back with a limited number of pix of 5-6 models & lots of wonderful memories. These & pix by another photographer were combined & fictional text was added using the models names & the writers imagination in a mag called WILD BOYS. This many years later trying to establish all the true facts & details I like to publish from the memories of a non- professional photographer more interested then in enjoying the company, and whatever else he could lay hands & mouth on, of beautiful European men. Hope you enjoy CACHITO too!

PERSONAL MANUAL

❶ ✍: If the ad lists an address, write to them there. If the ad doesn't list an address, put your reply into a No. 9—or smaller—envelope. In the center, write the ad" code number".

❷ ✉: Get a bigger envelope —No. 10— and pop your sealed reply inside along with $1.00 (cash, check, M.O., or gold—sorry no livestock accepted) & mail it to: MAN-AGE PRESS, Dept. C, 496A Hudson St., Suite K-99, NYC, NY 10014ROBBY will print out a label & have a human (we apologize for having to use one of these) mail it out.

This is your magazine! (within reason) If you so desire you are welcome to run your address. HOWEVER WE STRONGLY SUGGEST YOU NOT RUN YOUR HOME ADDRESS. Use a POB or mail service if you don't wish to go through us, FOR SAFETY SAKE. With anti-Gay attacks instigated by the far right it isn't wise to publish this info.

☆ RESTRICTIONS: We WILL NOT ACCEPT ads which: 1) List NO NAME or I.D. or 2) List "HOLDER", "BOXHOLDER", or "OCCUPANT" these leave open the chance of the letter falling into the wrong hands! Use your full name or first name or nickname. This assures that if you move the reply will not go to the wrong party and cause serious problems. DON'T lie about yourself. What you like least he might like most. DON'T SEND PHONY PIX! We can tell and so can he when you show up! Relationships DON'T start with lies! If you are a prisoner, and we acknowledge that many are in prison unjustly, we CAN'T accept your ad due to the wave of scams (guys in Parchman take note!) DON'T send in ads seeking contact with minors or seeking anything illegal. If you are under 18 DON'T write in at all! You must be 18 or older! YOU MAY NOT USE ANY REFERENCE TO HIV NEG. STATUS. This implies anything goes & encourages unsafe sexual practices. ALWAYS assume your partner has an some kind of sexual infection & act responsibly!

☆ SAFE SEX: FOOT WORSHIP, NIPPLE PLAY, BONDAGE, LATEX/RUBBER FETISH, MUTUAL J/O, ANYTHING SOLO, KISSING (not deep), HUGGING, ENEMAS (not shared), DILDOE PLAY (not shared), SPANKING, TICKLING, LICKING, RUBBING. Sex doesn't begin & end (it could though) with sucking & fucking. Use your imagination and the vast spectrum of fantasies & fetishes to play Safe & have fun. AVOID: Body fluids (sperm & blood esp.) & genital-anal intercourse. If you like to get fucked have your partner use dildoes or something from the fridge, it CAN be "HOT". If you're still fool enough to have a dick up your butt be sure it's in a quality latex condom with lots of water soluble (not oil based like Vaseline) lube containing a spermicide. Be sure your partner pulls out before he shoots!

☞ FOR NUMEROUS REASONS, AS OF ISSUE #11 WE WILL NO LONGER ALLOW PHONE NUMBERS TO BE RUN IN ADS!

When you place an ad you will receive a confirmation letter from us showing you your ad & saying which issue it will appear in. You MUST sign it & return it to us—WITHIN 2 DAYS—in the addressed envelope we include in order for your ad to run!! If we do not have this back by deadline your ad will not run till the following issue!

We stress that for your picture to run it MUST have "OUTCOME' written on the back & be signed. DUE TO RECORD KEEPING REQUIREMENTS IF YOU SUBMIT A PHOTO OF YOURSELF ERECT WE MUST HAVE PHOTO COPIES OF TWO FORMS OF LEGAL I.D. (ONE MUST BE A PHOTO I.D.) IF YOU ARE NOT ERECT OR ARE NOT NUDE THE REQUIREMENT DOESN'T APPLY. We DON'T guarantee your picture will run. Pictures are chosen based on how they will reproduce. B&W pix are the best. Color pix: avoid dark backgrounds, the lighter the background the better. Avoid busy backgrounds as they distract. Be sure it's clear & well lit. Send only close shots not shots taken from a distance. If in doubt send us a few shots & we'll pick the best. Don't send pictures that you want returned. We can't guarentee such ☆ OUTCOME/MAN-AGE PRESS WILL NOT KNOWINGLY ACCEPT FRAUDULENT, OFFENSIVE, OBSCENE OR QUESTIONABLE ADS. SINCE IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO INVESTIGATE EACH ADVERTISER, WE ASSUME NO RESPONSIBILITY RELATIVE TO ANY COMMUNICATIONS OR TRANSACTIONS BETWEEN ADVERTISERS AND READERS. ANYONE CORRESPONDING WITH OR THROUGH THIS PUBLICATION IS REQUIRED TO COMPLY WITH ALL LOCAL, STATE, AND FEDERAL LAWS. SHOULD WE RECEIVE COMPLAINTS ABOUT AN ADVERTISER WE WILL CEASE RUNNING THAT AD.

PEOPLE ARE A LOT DUMBER THAN ANYONE ELSE

There is not a day that goes by when we don't receive at least one piece of mail that is unsigned or without an address. In one case we even received an empty envelope!

When writing to us or to a correspondent always remember to include your name and return address

While you are at it, it might be a good idea to get in the habit of enclosing a PASE (pre-addressed, stamped envelope) with all correspondence.

While in a lot of cases it isn't necessary, the courtesy of providing a PASE does encourage your correspondent to answer your letter more promptly.

PRINT ALL INFORMATION! FORM MUST BE SIGNED & INSCRIBED OUTCOME ON THE BACK. IF YOU DON'T IT WILL DEFINITELY NOT BE PUBLISHED!!
Your name and/or address will only be published if used within the body of your ad. If you wish to publish your address you MUST include a name (first or last or initials or nickname). You may NOT use HOLDER, BOXHOLDER, OCCUPANT or no name. This prevents the replier's letter from going to the wrong person.
WE MUST HAVE YOUR FULL NAME (NOT JUST INITIALS OR A FIRST NAME) & A READABLE SIGNATURE TO AUTHORIZE RUNNING THE AD!

☞ MAKE PAYMENT TO: MAN-AGE PRESS (NOT OUTCOME)

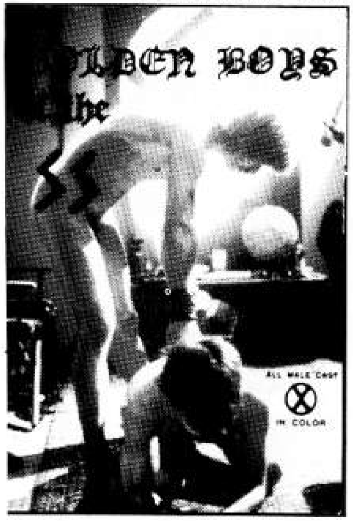
GOLDEN BOYS OF THE SS



Starring
RON JONES JOHN BANKS
ALLAN APELY BILLY BUDD

REG $58.88
NOW $29.95

For the first time this controversial feature can be legally released. Golden Boys of the SS is a decadent tale of two RAF flyers who are shot down behind enemy lines in Nazi Germany. Their interrogation by two sadistic SS officers includes FF, W/S and much S&M. Later the officers bring in "CUR" played by Billy Budd. Chained in a dog collar and treated like an animal, Billy's meals consist of servicing the needs of the desperate prisoners. This film is uncut and uncensored and definitely not for the squeamish. 75 min.

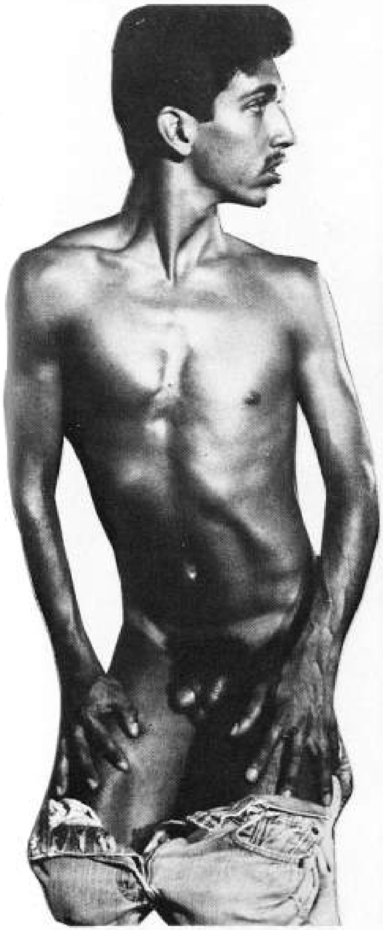
ERNIE NAVA



Last issue we covered our, and FILMCO's, favorite model David Watson. This issue we have Filmco's other all time favorite, ERNIE NAVA and we could't agree more!!

Ernie was a 22 year old college student with a solid job and a free spirit. He came by had himself immortalized and left. It's been to Filmco's eternal regret that contact was lost and no further work was done. So if you're reading this Ernie get in touch with Hal pronto!

Ernie is an exotic mix of Spanish-Egyptian stock who stands 5'9", weights 140 lbs. and has a beautiful 8½" penis. He loves the beach and swimming. We love him!

STUD MITCHENER

Most of the time STUD MITCHENER, 22, studies at a British university specializing in languages and he spent many of his vacations through childhood in Germany and Spain resulting in great proficiency in Deutsch and Espanol. But in recent years he has also been stimulated by posing for amateur and professional photographers because he knows that many parts of him seem to excite them considerably.

He might not be pleased to consider himself similar to a spider watching a ply drawn irresistibly into his web. But he does seem to enjoy watching amateurs get noticeably hot under the collar as each firm and fantastic part of him comes closer to them.

In the last year a trip to Texas had him working on a ranch for a couple of months. But back on British soil to finish his education he has plans to be an interpreter and is currently perfecting three other languages. If my shots of Stud inspire American amateur photographers to plan a British safari I can assure them that away from or in front of the cameras Mr. Mitchener is big game worth capturing

Column by Cox

"---RE: Safer Sex and videos: I'd like to see more videos feature safer sex practices. It would help "validate" them so to speak. But solo J/O is not the only form of safer sex we can show on film. And if 2 guys are HIV negative, any sex is safer sex relative to AIDS, at least for the two of them. People who watch videos have a responsibility to realize not everything they see is what they can do in real life – even leaving aside the AIDS question. So I don't think we need to ban all but J/O films, but I do think videos should emphasize safer sex and contain more explicit, detailed messages on both safer sex techniques and the fact that what we're seeing is not necessarily what we should do. (kind of like pro wrestling)."

P.B.-NJ

There is no sure fire test for AIDS and anal intercourse can't be made 100% safe. Many performers in videos don't have the brains to practice Safe-Sex. Those who hustle deal with tricks who refuse to wear condoms or practice safe sex – some knowing they have AIDS and want company in death. Safe sex should always be practiced! We're reached a true low point when instead of being fun sex videos are the Roman Colosseum, young men dying for entertainment! A few outfits, like Al Parker's SURGE are promoting Safe Sex and showing how erotic it can be and there is no excuse for others to be different. If the producers, directors, backers, viewers, etc. of these videos were forced to put their lives in the same danger they put the performers we'd see nothing but Safe Sex videos.

After relating all this to her Jeff's girlfriend says she isn't coming over and is going to bed, having gotten her jollies. Very cute* Ricky is smooth skinned with just a whisper of hair between his pecs and a deep sexy voice. He's out riding his bike in black tank, black spandex shots, black sox & white sneekers. He stops to introduce himself and invite you to his place. He meets you there and welcomes you in, says he's from Wisconsin and moved to California for the sun and to pursue a career in acting/modeling. Ricky takes you to his enclosed backyard where he strips off the tank and shorts and lets you watch him masturbate. After a bit he takes you to his bedroom where he finishes. Scott is a handyman who works for a woman renovating homes she buys to re-sell. He takes time out from putting up plasterboard to say hi and tell you about himself. He takes you to a room he's finished and sits in a chair. He's horney about now so he slips off his painters's hat, overalls, sox & shoes and says he glad you're here to watch him. After he's fully hard he takes you to his bedroom to continue. We get an all to fleeting close-up of his feet as he flips on his back (I stress all too fleeting, Richard, hint hint). He shoots directly into his navel while on his knees. Then we get a slow pan from feet to head as he's lying before he hops up to head for the shower and says goom bye. Lastly, we meet Damien the rock singer with long blond hair and a solid bod. He's on the floor before a keyboard trying to compose a song for some girl he met the night before. He slips off his tank and jeans to reveal a black G-string while telling us about himself. He has wonderful pecs and nipples! He jerks and humps the rug before he shoots. Then he puts on his jammies and goes beddy-bye (I bet Jon Bon Jovi doesn't wear pajamas!)

HOLLYWOOD HOTSHOTS #83($59.00 + $3.00 postage Old Reliable, 1626 N. Wilcox #107, Hollywood, CA 90028) starts with Greg who is solid freckles with red hair and blue eyes (hay two red heads in one column). He's 20, 5'10", 165 lbs. born on Sept. 8th (Virgo), and just wasn't my cup of Earl Grey. (wouldn't it be neat if instead of having models smoke cigars David made them smoke ciggies and impersonate Bette Davis!) Next up is John C. (don't even think it) the pride of Arkansas. John is 18, 5'9 ", 160 lbs, born on May 14th of the horrible year we lost Bobby and Martin, so at least something positive occurred. He came to Hollywood to seek his fame and fortune. (in case you forgot I don't go into detail as the routine is intro – strip – oil – pose – shoot or a variation with the occasional cigar. The great part is who these guys are and seeing how they act out the routine) Sexy Danny Polanski is 21, 140 lbs., 5'10" He's from Florida where he worked as an air conditioning repairman. He likes wrestling and hockey and went to the Bobby Orr Camp to train however a knee injury has removed him from most sports. He's also a former coke addict who's now clean. His doctor told him he's a thrill seeker, thus the coke, and suggested he get into instant thrill sports like sky diving and kayaking. Quiet Brad Ostberg is 18, 5'11", 150 lbs. with brown hair and hazel eyes, born on Jan. 25th. He's from southern California, the only boy in his family. He played soccer for 10 years and loves wrestling. And as you could have guessed he hopes to be an actor in movies – of any kind (many major film stars feel the same way it seems). Then there is Angel and lord is this man gorgeous!!! He's of Spanish-Columbian stock, 25, 5'6", 125 lbs. with long brown hair and 9 tattoos – including one on his forearm of his ex-wife (what a dope). He was a wrestler in high school and still enjoys it along with soccer, weight lifting and Lacrosse. He is a work of art and if I could bury my face in his bush I could get through 4 years of the other. Finally we have the star himself Mike "the Spike" Victor who is too cute for words. He's 24 ("but I look younger and I like to take advantage of that"), 125 lbs., 5'3 " with blue eyes and a wonderful smile. He's extremely outgoing, friendly and had a great time doing this video. He loves wrestling, soccer, racketball, hand ball, swimming and screwing his brains out. He has a heart tattoo on his hand that started out as a cross. He rips off his tank top, laughs a good deal, and shoots two good loads in a row!!

DANA SUMMERS

DANA SUMMERS is a CHAMP star who pre-dates CHAMPION. He's a SUNSHINE BEACH model. This was the period following MASTER PHYSIQUE when Champ decided to begin shooting full frontal nudes, back in the 60's. Sunshine Beach was a nudist resort in Florida with beautiful white sand beachs and golden sunshine (unlike some beaches around here this past summer).

Dana was from the south and a couple months shy of his 19th birthday. He and Champ hit it right off and several photo sessions were done over a period of time. A natural model, Dana was of Scotch-Irish stock, stood 5'7", 140 lbs, with 6 really hot inches.

He had his sights set on acting but not seriously enough to work at it. He was a patient, interesting guy who loved the outdoors. He was into crabbing, hiking, fishing, camping, and making plastic models (Remember those days? I must have done a couple hundred plastic models in the 60's). Dana was also openly Gay and proud before Stonewall and we're proud to have him grace our cover!

POE PARANOIA

By KENN RICHIE

The bartender had told me the man's name was Edgar. It had seemed an omen or a psychic experience, for that name had come to mind the minute I saw him. It was his hair. He had the most beautiful head of hair I had ever seen! He wore it full, longish, but not in a style that would wrinkle the noses of little old ladies. It was the rich, dark color that startled me. I hadn't seen it in bright sunlight, only in neon and other substitutes electricity provides, but it appeared to be pure black.

"Raven tresses" I'd whispered to myself. That little poetic phrase was probably a memory remnant from a Goldenbook of "Snow White," but it popped to mind in the funky bar where the man sat silently at a corner table, staring at a beer. The image of a raven, however, persisted. "Black as a raven's wings" echoed from somewhere, but then, very clearly, "never more. . . never more."

I was "man watching" through a back bar mirror in a strange place in a strange town, thinking of Edgar Allen Poe's great poem, then the bartender tells me the object of my fascination is named Edgar?! People believe our lives are manipulated by creatures in flying saucers with less evidence than that! Yes, indeed, it had to be a sign. It was fate, it was destiny that I was to be drawn to this man with the fabulous hair.

One danger of watching someone through a mirror, however, is that only a slight glance aside will give a full view of one's self. There I was, staring at a stranger with lust glazing my eyes, but the chances that I would do anything about it were less than zero.

Some of us call ourselves shy, or claim to be too gentlemanly to be assertive and forward. Closer to the truth, some are so terrified of provoking violent anger from an accidentally encountered homophobic redneck, that the idea of a sly look, wink or dropped hanky is totally out of the question. This was made even more dangerous appearing to me, for I was completely apart from my own known world. I'd only arrived in this city a few hours ago. I'd only come out of my bargain rate hotel for a late evening because of jet lag. I'd stumbled across this bar almost by accident. Well, not quite, it had been listed in a Gay guide book I'd brought with me, but it was only by chance that it was so near the hotel. Well, not quite, but it seemed a nice night for a long walk.

Oh, my lord! A shock of that "nevermore" hair tumbled over his forehead and he brushed it back. What a glorious event! What a wonderful sight to see during my brief stay in this town! I was certain it was more significant and interesting than the conference I was to attend the next day could ever be.

The bartender began to eye me suspiciously, probably wondering who the stranger was who asked customer's names. He could see who I was watching, and, no doubt, the way I was watching. He nodded his head solemnly to himself and glanced toward Edgar, then back to me. He sighed and smiled. Edgar was probably a favored customer who often needed protection from crude advances and from vice cops and roughnecks and – strangers. I was making the bartender as nervous as I was myself. I thought I'd best finish my Coke and get back to the hotel.

I considered that the Poe omen could have been a warning. The man was big and muscular under his raven hair, he could have the strength of a Rue Morgue murder. There was a devilishly sly look in his eye, he could be into S and M complete with a pit and pendulum. I was in trouble, they were on to me! That omen might have meant for me to hear, "never more. . . never. . . no!"

The bartender served Edgar another beer. I'd seen no gesture of his ordering it, he'd only been served to give the bartender an excuse to go over to the table and talk to him. Clearly, it was about me, to tell him I was asking question. Edgar looked up and studied my backside for a long moment before catching my eye in the mirror. I glanced away quickly, but it was too late.

"I'm getting out of here," I gulped. I didn't belong in Chicago, after all, and it wasn't that long ago that they had WAYS of dealing with strangers who asked too many question!

"Hi."

"Oh..ah, hello," I managed, as my fist grasped the edge of the bar to keep from falling over in a dead faint. "I'll do anything you want, please don't hurt me." The words were my actual thoughts, but I tried to make them sound like a joke.

"What?" A flash of curiousity and some pearly white teeth of a half smile, half laugh echoed as he sat beside me, his back to the bar. "The last thing I'd want to do is to hurt someone. Especially not someone new in town."

He was psychic too.

"Your T-shirt," he smiled. "It looks brand new, and we don't have a U.C.L.A. here in Chicago."

"Oh."

"Anything, as long as I don't hurt you?"

"Did I say that?"

"Yeah, you did"

"Oh."

"Well? Where are you staying?"

When I told him, he asked if I'd rented a car, for he couldn't imagine my having come so far by bus or cab, just to have a Coke in a funky place like this. He did recognize the name of the hotel, however, and said that it had once been listed in a Gay guide. Everything he said sounded like innocent small talk, but when you have Edgar Allen Poe in your mind, the lurking and sinister implications are endless. "I'll drive you there," he suggested. "Maybe I can find a parking place on the street at this hour."

Why would he want to park? A parking place, not the hotel garage or a lot? He didn't want a record of his car having been there? A place on the street would provide easy getaway. Why would he want to park anyway? Why didn't he just offer to take me for a ride, and – Oh, Lord!!

"You leave your key at the desk or carry it with you?"

"Ahmmm, at the desk," I confessed as he pointed out his car. It was big and it was black. . . not raven black like his hair, but a gangsterish shade.

"In a place like that you should carry your key if you think you might have company," he laughed. "They don't give a damn if you do, but they try to charge you extra, double occupancy. At this time of night, though, there's no one at the desk, you have to ring the bell. So, why not just walk right by without disturbing them, and save the extra bill?"

It made perfect sense, of course, but technically it was illegal, it was stealing, and that started me to wondering where his criminal tendencies might end, if they ended. Did he draw the line at brutal murder and torture? Still, the way his hair sparkled with the passing street lights, I gave him my room number, and we agreed he'd walk in first and go on up, meeting me there.

Sure enough, he was leaning beside the door when I got there after having disturbed the night clerk. He'd opened his jacket, revealing a broad, full, muscular chest over his own T-shirt. His read "University of Chicago" but I reminded myself that he could have bought it anywhere, it didn't mean he was a student. His jacket seemed bulky beside his body. He was carrying things in the pockets, weapons perhaps.

I led the way into the room and quickly collected some postcards I'd been scribbling and had strewn over the bed. I thought he'd turn on the lights, but he didn't. Sinister things always happen in the dark. I gulped when I heard him rattle the door to be sure it was tightly closed. When I turned, I saw that he'd hung the "Do Not Disturb" sign in the hall. "Welcome to the windy city," he grinned, sliding his jacket over his broad shoulders and placing it across the top of the dresser. "Why are you so nervous?"

"Who? Me? I'm not nervous," I lied, slipping out of my own jacket and tossing it to a corner chair. U.C.L.A. and the University of Chicago faced each other across the room, and they were about to meet head on. "Did anyone ever tell you that you have hair like a raven's wings?"

"Not lately," he mumbled, slipping his arm around me and letting his hand stroke gently down my spine, along with a strange chill. "I play by the reasonably safe rules," he smiled, "and, I test negative, if that's why you're so tense."

"No, it's not that," I mumbled, "but I'm glad you told me. I mean, so do I, and so do I in that order, if you know what I mean."

His mouth curled slightly, a glistening acknowledgement that stretched at his full lips before they disappeared from my close watch when my nose got in the way. It felt, at first, as if he took my lower lip between his two, almost as if to rip it from my chin, but then his tongue found its way up and over to secure our contact. Our tongues caressed and sparred with one another as our T-shirts attempted to exchange their logos. He tasted vaguely of mint, not of the beer I might have expected.

My hands were so busy trying to appreciate his thick shoulder muscles, surely those of brute strength power, that I simply dangled from his mouth while I felt his hands open my belt and the buttons of my levis, then slide them down my legs. A moment later, I felt his bare thighs against mine to know he had done the same. He danced me across the room to the bed, and lowered me onto it. I looked for a pendulum in the ceiling

Helplessly, I lay on my back, looking up as he stood so powerfully over me. It seemed like some cultish ritual to see him hold his pants by the foot seams and fold them carefully, I'd never thought of treating levis with much care. But then, he did the same thing to mine after he pulled them from my legs. Perhaps it was simply discipline, the care for details one might expect of a poet, even one who dealt with fantasies of death and horror. I was curious now how he might treat our shirts, so I yanked mine over my head and started to hand it to him. His hands, however, were busy with his own, so I just sent U.C.L.A. flying toward the corner chair.

The small amount of hair on his chest was raven black as well. There was only enough to decorate his masculine form, and to frame and flatter the rounded oval shapes of his ample pecs. They were adorned with small, rock hard nipples that jutted forward and slightly to the side. He didn't fold his shirt either, he merely held it in his hand as he pulled his jockey shorts down and danced out of them. He then tossed both on top of his jacket.

If I had considered a concealed weapon in his pocket, I'd been looking in the wrong place! If I'd thought the raven wing hair on his head was full, sleek and beautiful, the patch that teased gently down from his navel into a forest surrounding his cock and balls was downright glorious! Did Poe ever write anything about being lost in a dark woods? "sleek" was still the best choice of a word, but it no longer referred to his hair. Like a slightly upwards curving arrow, his veined, full stretched cock speared out into the room from the black thicket. Its head glistened in what ghostly, pale light filtered through the window.

I tried to look away for fear I would scream. I'd been giving thought to having to scream for help, but the scream I felt welling up in my lungs at the moment was the sort that wanted no help! I wasn't sure if this miserable hotel had any other guests, but, if it did, they might have found it from that guide book, and I sure didn't want any of THAT sort rushing in here now! I kicked my own shorts off and tried to concentrate on staring at the corner of the ceiling to calm my fiercely pounding heart.

M'God, that's all I needed. A cobweb! For all the dingy, dark atmosphere, the eerie silence and Edgar Allen world, there had to be a cobweb too?! "I'm a nice guy," I near pleaded as he sat nude beside me. "I'm too young to die."

He laughed softly as he began caressing my chest, slowly working his hand toward where I could feel a pulsating surging cock trying to lift itself up from my body and attack the cobweb! "Yeah, but what a way to go," he joked back in a throaty whisper.

It was the wrong choice of words. I whimpered, shut my eyes tightly, dug my hands into the rough textured bed spread and wondered how much it would cost my family to have my body shipped back to California. His fingers curled around the base of my cock. His full lips parted directly on my piss slit, then eased their softness over the bulbous head. I whimpered some more, then began gasping loudly. His hand let go of the base of my shaft as his lips closed tightly around it to replace those fingers! He sucked hard, and the wet softness of his mouth closed in to caress my length. I sent blood thrusts into my cock to try to dislodge it from the tightness of his throat.

He pulled back up the length then lifted his face from it. My sturdy flagpole of hardness barely moved in the air when it was released. I glanced down across my body to appreciate how it newly sparkled and felt comfortably dampened by his saliva. "Welcome to Chicago," he whispered again, as he turned his face to the side to rest it on my thigh. That shock of rich, raven wing hair seemed to curl around the base as his fingers had done a moment ago. He snuggled closer, then his tongue darted out to toy with my already churning balls.

There may not have been a sharp blade on a pendulum swinging over my belly, but I was, none the less, flat on my back, immobilized and at his mercy. My cock began to chill as the dampness evaporated from it. It desperately sought more warmth and more wetness. My own mouth filled with gushers of saliva that began splattering out of the corners.

The torture of it had the upper part of my body writhing about and rolling from side to side, but I wasn't about to remove my balls from their ready access position at his lips. I managed to get to my shoulders facing him, and to reach out for his muscular legs to urge him to lie beside me. Further requests were not required, he thought it a fine idea and positioned himself accordingly, even managing to roll my ass to its side without letting up on the sweet washing of my balls.

His one arm burrowed under my body and his hand joined its partner on either cheek of my ass. With barely a move, and with only an excited gasp, his lips returned to the head of my cock, then his hands pulled my body by the ass to send that raging hardness down into his throat.

Before my eyes was that mysterious, curly and crinkly black forest with occasional slivers of white visible at the bushy roots. A jaunty ball tumbled slightly over his tensed thigh. Reaching from this, soaring out to my very close view was s straining, shining, anxious, mushroom crown with a promising sparkle already beginning to ooze from its tiny lips. I adored the view until it vanished because my nose got in the way.

He sucked my cock with deep, full, tight strokes. He was a master of the art.

I didn't do too badly on this, either.

In a while, it felt as if we were both trying to slow down, but found ourselves unwilling and unable to do so. Instead, our hands dug at ass cheeks, pulling, urging, begging bodies that were already humping and pumping our cocks to one another with frantic thrusts.

I managed to whimper and moan a warning before my strained shaft recoiled slightly, then stretched harder than before with the rush of semen through its underside tube. I enjoyed only one more tight, sucking stroke on his before it echoed my surrender. I held it deep and felt it pounding in my gullet just as mine continued to spasm in his. Soon, the sweet-salt, delicious taste of his bountiful cum bubbled back up into my mouth and over my appreciative tongue.

There was, eventually, some small talk as we lay together waiting for the morning. He revealed that the bulky package in his jacket was a box of condoms, and we planned to use at least two of them before sunlight. It was when he spoke of having the bartender to thank for pushing him to say something to me that I reacted strongly. "He knows I'm too timid and nervous to ever make the first move. He says I'm paranoid."

In return, I confessed that I too tend to imagine all sorts of things at the slightest provocation, but explained it was a side effect to my ambitions to become a mystery writer.

"That's what I should be," he laughed. "But, I'd have to change my name. My mother's sense of humor, I guess, but with the family name being Poe, she named me Edgar Allen."

"You're Edgar Allen Poe"

"I try not to tell anyone that, it makes them think weird," he laughed, groping my newly erect cock. "Let's fuck."

JOHN

My friend JOHN, known to some as "The Vacuum-Cleaner Kid". John really got that name because he always vacuumed the rugs, I mean even when there was just one little hair. He loves cats and, at times, is a good house keeper. John is a straight, normal guy by Phoenix standards, just like us all. He's a bright guy but has a knack for getting himself into trouble, to put it mildly. He's uninhibited and fun loving and is a great model. John is 19, 5'11", 140 lbs. and is of German stock.

GALE HARPER

Our discovery, James Foxworth, raved so much about GALE HARPER, we decided we'd better do a feature on him.

Gale was discovered by CHAMP in the mid-60's along with MIKE POHL. Mike & Gale had been friends since childhood. They grew up in the same middle class suburban town in New Jersey & lived on the same street. Something about Gale's basic shyness & Mike's self-confidence created the right chemistry for a life-long friendship. They had just finished High School and were starting college when Champ met them.

Gale was 19, 5'9½'', 145 lbs. with a trim, smooth body. His hair a light brown turning lighter under the summer sun & his eyes a warm brown. It took awhile to get him to pose due to that shyness but he enjoyed himself once into it. Once he knew you and was comfortable with you he became a close friend. Gale has a bright mind & is a great conversationalist. Mike's very worldly, self-assured and aggressive. He was 19, 5'11'', 168 lbs. blond hair, hazel eyes and 8''. He's of German-Irish stock. They liked swimming & diving and were members of their college's baseball team. In the summer they worked as lifeguards on the Jersey shore.

CHET WILLIAMS

CHET WILLIAMS sounds more like a singer out of Nashville than the newest pornstar. He'll be turning 21 in a couple months with, as of this writing, two videos to his name MEMORIES OF EIGHTEEN for Avalon and BIRTHDAY BOY for Wave. He stands 5'8", 130 lbs, with 7 solid inches. He has brown hair, hazel eyes and is of Native American-German stock. Not much to report about him but if he ever gets out this way we'll try to get an interview.

These pix of Chet were taken by a new studio called VISUAL IMAGES. You'll find their ad in the personals section where you can order pix of Chet and their other models.

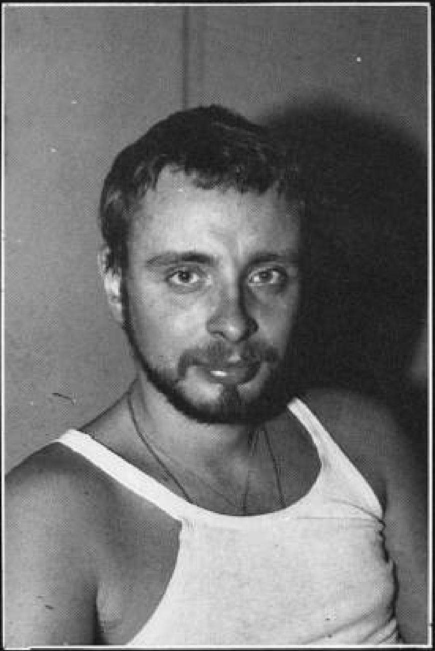
NEW JERSEY KINK: An Interview with



T.R. WITOMSKI

By PAUL GUZZARDO

OUTCOME: You must have written for every Gay male publication across the nation?

T.R.: Yes, I have written for all the Gay male publications. You know them all, "Blueboy", the "Long Island Connection", "Torso", etc.

OUTCOME: What was your favorite writing position?

T.R.: ]My favorite writing position was for the "Long Island Connection". Believe it or not, I got this job through an ad in the "New York Times".

OUTCOME: How did get started in writing & obtain other assignments?

T.R.: I started out by just submitting articles to various publications. Soon my works were published and eventually the editors called me for articles and stories.

OUTCOME: Have you ever written porno novels?

T.R.: Yes, I started doing this in the mid-70's. I wrote straight porno at the time. I must have written over 500 porn novels. I wrote these novels under various names. One of the pseudonyms that I used was Valerie St. John, who wrote about 20 straight novels. I also did Gay porno under the name of Ted Raymond. He wrote about 15 novels. And there was Al Prince who wrote over two dozen novels.

OUTCOME: Did you get paid well for these novels?

T.R.: Not really. A lot of these publishers were fly-by-night low lifes who paid their writers real cheaply. Some of these publishers were so sleazy that I had to demand cash for my works otherwise they would skip town with the money that they owed me.

OUTCOME: How long did it take you to write a porno novel?

T.R.: It took me about 16 hours to write a 192 page novel. There was a rigid formula that I had to follow. The book had to be exactly 192 pages. There had to be 10 chapters at 19 pages per chapter and a hot, sizzling two page introduction. I was able to write 10-12 pages per hour.

OUTCOME: Was it your ambition, growing up, to be a writer?

T.R.: Yes, I always wanted to be a writer.

OUTCOME: When did you come out? Was it difficult?

T.R.: I came out in 1970. No it was not. There were support systems in place at the time.

OUTCOME: You're doing videos now as KATSAM Productions.

T.R.: It was started in 1984. I do kink videos. Any kind of fetish or non-vanilla variety of sex is put under the category of S/M. I prefer calling them kink videos. Let me give as an example my new Fall list of kink videos. Some of the titles are: "Enemas", "Scat", "Deep Inside" (dildoes and butt plugs). Some others are: "Shave Slave", "Tit Pierce", and MESS (food sex). I usually contract people to perform in them and I shoot and edit the videos.

OUTCOME: Is it difficult to get people to perform in these rather esoteric videos?

T.R.: Not really. The main ingredient is willingness. There is no big script and it is easy for people to perform in these videos. The action is real, spontaneous and hot.

OUTCOME: How long have you been in the video business.

T.R.: I started out as a production assistant for 8 and 16mm porno films. I did this in 1974. It was basically straight porno houses around 42nd St. and 8th Ave.

OUTCOME: You have a unique market niche. These are really specialty videos for specific tastes. How do you market them?

T.R.: My business is 80 percent mail order and 20 percent through distributors. We do a lot of business from small towns in obscure rural areas.

OUTCOME: Do you think the AIDS crisis has boosted your business and increased the demand for all kinds of video products?

T.R.: No. The Stonewall generation is getting older and they now prefer to stay home and watch videos rather than going out every night until 4am and having trouble getting through the next work day. When you hit your forties, things start to change and aging begins to creep up on you.

OUTCOME: What are your plans for the future?

T.R.: Retirement!

OUTCOME: That certainly sounds inviting but what about the near future?

T.R.: I am developing a personal ad newsletter and a secondhand video porn exchange. My next endeavor will be to start a mail order business for toys and other miscellaneous items that will enhance sex.

LOVE SONGS
Gavin Geoffrey Dillard

Painting by Don Bachardy

A modern-day Huck Finn in which sexuality plays the part of the mighty Mississippi!

Love in all its multiple forms is the hero here. And hate is the enemy. Gavin Dillard writes with his heart and his glands. If Eros is a god, Gavin is more than a suppliant. He is a muse who amuses, the laureate of the sensual: a rare and special poet.

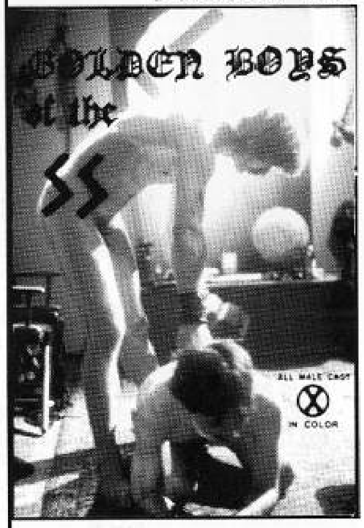
GOLDEN BOYS OF THE SS



Starring
RON JONES JOHN BANKS
ALLAN APELY BILLY BUDD

REG $58.88
NOW $29.95

For the first time this controversial feature can be legally released. Golden Boys of the SS is a decadent tale of two RAF flyers who are shot down behind enemy lines in Nazi Germany. Their interrogation by two sadistic SS officers includes FF, W/S and much S&M. Later the officers bring in "CUR" played by Billy Budd. Chained in a dog collar and treated like an animal, Billy's meals consist of servicing the needs of the desperate prisoners. This film is uncut and uncensored and definitely not for the squeamish. 75 min.

PEOPLE ARE A LOT DUMBER THAN ANYONE ELSE

There is not a day that goes by when we don't receive at least one piece of mail that is unsigned or without an address. In one case we even received an empty envelope!

When writing to us or to a correspondent, always remember to include your name and return address.

While you are at it, it might be a good idea to get in the habit of enclosing a PASE (pre-addressed, stamped envelope) with all correspondence.

While in a lot of cases it isn't necessary, the courtesy of providing a PASE does encourage your correspondent to answer your letter more promptly.

HOLLYWOOD HOTSHOTS

VT-83

What's not to like about this sizzling line up?! First off is Greg, a freckle-faced carrot-top, twenty years old, 5'10" and 165# with blue eyes . . . very blue! He's lived everywhere, does outdoor work, loves to wrestle, and to be in his presence is to feel your blood boil! He is in photosets 83-A, and B with cigar, plus audiotape C-83-1 which is S&M dominant hustler stories which will send you out in the dark of night frenzied for human warmth! Magazine coverboy Mike "The Spike" Victor follows, and the color pix are brilliant. He's 24, and only 125# at 5'4" or so. He's ambitious and gutsy, and won't back down from anything! His audio C-83-2 is aggressive and zesty as the "kid from Oil City" lets it all out, and then puts it all in practice in duo audio C-83-3. His photosets are 83-C and D, plus 83-E with cigar. Next up is Angel, and maybe he is, maybe he isn't, depends on the time of day. A New Yorker, he's 25 with 130# of muscle at 5'5½", Spanish-Columbian. His apperance dazzles in photosets 83-F and G, and his audio will stun you with it's direct-to-you mastery, because this guy loves to fuck and to party. His most captivating trait, unfortunately unavailable to you, is the breathtaking swagger in his walk! Then comes Danny, and what's not to love about this Chicago raised German-American, who's 22 now, and 150 sleek pounds at 5'10". He went to hockey camp as a youth, and used to be a full-time thrill seeker, but has begun to mellow a bit (or else!). Danny is in photoset 83-H, and in audio 83-5, sharing some of his leatherlust and other late night secrets. Brad is another California native, only 18, and 150# at 5'11". He has played soccer and is a super wrestler (as you'll see later!). He is in photoset 83-I and there is no audio. John C. is another 18 year old, straight from the hills of Arkansas. He's a muscular 5'9½" and 160#, loves to play football, and box, although he split town before we got him to box on video. It would have been wildfire, as his lust for life may exceed the world's ability to deal with it: John was almost larger than life, filling up every room he entered; perhaps, with luck, I'll get another shot at him on down the road. There is no audio, and he is in photosets 83-J, and with cigar in 83-K. VT-83 is two hours of color and sound video, $59 plus $3 postage. Specify VHS or Beta.

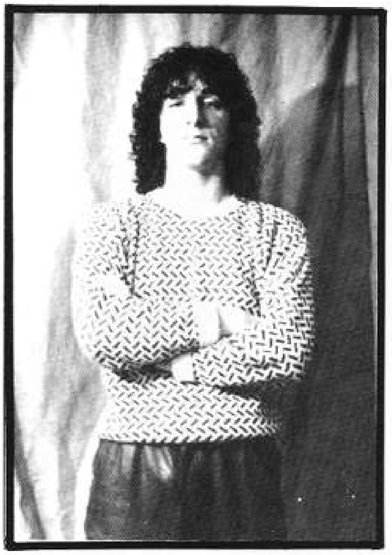
MARCO ARMANI

BY BILL SPENCER

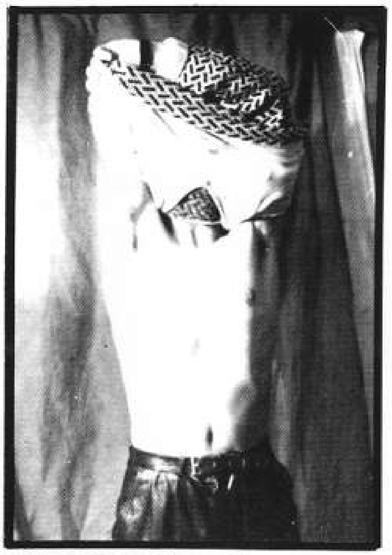
Name: MARCO ARMANI
DOB: December 23, 1964
Place: Italy
Height: 5ft. 9in.
Weight: 140 lbs.
Hair: Black
Eyes: Brown
Waist: 28in.
Penis: uncut 7½in.



Marco Armani is a hot, new Italian sex star with a difference. No Italian-American stud from Bayonne or, for that matter, no bobby-sox idol from Hoboken, Marco is from Italy! Now an art student at NYU, studying and painting in Greenwich Village environs, Marco has been in the U.S. for just 18 months. He left his native Milano at the tender age of 19, barely able to speak a couple of English phrases. We talked to him in the loft he shares on Thompson street in SoHo.

OUTCOME: How do you like living in New York?

MARCO: It's crazy! I love the City, the people. Is very charged, high energy city.



OUTCOME: How did you get into modeling?

MARCO: As artist, I know other artists, who sometimes ask me to pose for their work. And then a man, who was taking a class – teaching a class – needs a nude model. I need money, so I take the job. At that time, a photographer was also taking the class. He asked me to pose for photographs.

OUTCOME: You had no reservations about posing?

MARCO: No, I worked the summer before I came to the United States as a go-go boy, a stripper do you call it?, in a bar in Hamburg. In Germany. Hamburg is a very hot, very Gay place, too. I am very comfortable with my body.

OUTCOME: Are you Gay or bi-sexual? And how long have you been active sexually?

MARCO: Well, in Italy, in Europe, there are maybe fewer people who are so concerned with such absolute definitions about themselves, of their sexuality. I guess if I had to put a name on myself it would be bi-sexual. In Milano and in Venice, when I lived there – and in Germany, too – I had some girlfriends, some sex with men. The first time I ever had sex with another guy was in my teens. The other guy was about 26. I saw him with other friends. We started going around together, to discos – which in Italy, you can do at a very young age – to the beach and so on. Eventually, one night, he asked me, "Why don't you ever play?" I didn't know exactly what he meant, but we were in a car with two other guys, who were making out in the back seat. We were in front. Eventually he showed me what he meant. After that my choice was mostly with men. I have more experience with other guys, after school and so forth.

OUTCOME: When did you come out?

MARCO: At about 15. I was living in Venice with many of my friends, some Gay, some straight. I had gotten my parents to sign a document that I was self-supporting, so I lived away from home. We all joked a lot about who was straight or Gay or what. But nobody really cared. More and more of my friends came to think of me as bi-sexual. So, for that matter, did I.

PHOTOS: COPYRIGHT © 1986 MAN-AGE

OUTCOME: Did you tell your parents?

MARCO: No, because I didn't live at home. But they did know that a lot of my friends were Gay and very open about it. And they knew that I had done some nude modeling. I think they added it up. But I never sat down and told them so.

OUTCOME: Have you had lovers?

MARCO: Yes, two. The first was my same age, when I was 17. We met in Roma, in a park. He kept asking a mutual friend if I was Gay. Finally, he asked me. I don't think I ever answered him. . . but we answered the question in other ways. We were together for about 3 years, but was very free, very open relationship. We both saw other people too, and he was also bi-sexual. Eventually, he decided to move to Hamburg for awhile. I visited him, but I went back to Milano.

Awhile later, I met Giulio in a Gay disco, very American-style. It was a crazy place—everything from dancing to you could have sex on stage with lights and everything. Everybody just did anything they wanted to. Is very different there now, though. Eventually, polizia came and closed. We saw each other and. . . KNEW.

OUTCOME: Was he your age?

MARCO: No, he was 25 and I was 18. It was great. For the first time, we lived together. And then we decided to move to America together. But at the last minute, Giulio got great job offer in Florence. By then I really wanted to come to America, so we went our separate ways. Was very hard for me, but when I am here, I am suddenly so busy, that I am suddenly very happy by myself. Now I lead my own life and do what I alone want to do. It's great.

OUTCOME: And now you're going to become a top model, maybe go to California and become a porno star?

MARCO: (laughs) NO! Oh. . . I don't know. . . for now, I just live today for today. Domani. . . e' domani.

OUTPUT

FINALLY we're out! Women have less problems giving birth than first-time publishers have getting magazines out. The first issue is always deadly since you're afraid that if you don't give 'em gangbusters from the start they won't hang around for future issues. You will hang around, won't you???

CHAMPION has been around for over three decades, from the physique days to today's anything goes, always with style & imagination. Who better to present as our first cover? HERITAGE will be spotlighting the highly erotic physique period each issue. Dr. DONN DUVALL graciously provided us with an insightful discussion on how to be around for future issues by not contracting A.I.D.S. New stud-about-town MARCO ARMANI is debuted in our pages with a revealing interview; & a good friend, CHRIS NOLL, is spotlighted. Now that Kip is semi-retired out on his farm, Chris decided to go for it & has been wowing them on the stages of San Franciso and southern Florida, & we caught up with him at his NYC debut at the Show Palace.

We'd like to thank STARS former editor, Glenn M. Turner, for contributing to our first issue. We bid him a fond farewell & wish him luck in his new career. We understand it's a heavy high for him.

We are thrilled to announce that issue #2's cover layout features erotic video SuperStar DAVID ASHFIELD! Beautiful, Blond & Hung, David is appearing in just about every video out now but no mags have done cover layouts on him. When you see him next issue,you, like us, will wonder why! We follow up this issue's tribute to Jim Stryker with one to another legend, GLENN BISHOP. Plus lots & lots more nudes, hot personals, & great features. See you in August!

Younger than springtime & older than Moses, no, that's not right. TOMMY WILDE in the great out-of-doors: what could be more romantic? Well, I'm waiting: what's the answer?

These loverly pix were done down D.C. way in the bright summer just before TW turned 20 and began pestering all for gifts. He & tall, dark and moose-like hung Ron Butler were concluding a wild(e) summer romance that had for the moment put Tommy's pretty little tush out of commission. This is why only one end is active & the other was on a well needed rest. They parted ways a week later & Tommy went on to someone who could melt a camera so we have no pix, but for all eterity Tommy & Ron will play hide the weenie. Trivia buffs will enjoy knowing that STARS #27, where this session debuted, was the all time biggest seller in STARS history! Tommy's retired now but we've lots of work from his golden age which will pop up in future.

GAY MORNING AMERICA

BY GLENN M. TURNER

Someone, I can't for the life of me remember who, once stated that if you were to lock 12 chimpanzees in a room with 12 typewriters, they would eventually write 3 HAMLET. I believe that if you were to lock 12 network executives in a Taco Bell with 12 secretaries, they would eventually develop OMNIBUS.

GAY MORNING AMERICA is the show those network execs would have developed just before OMNIBUS and about 38 minutes after the premiere of The Ugliest Girl in Town. What, you may ask yourself, does the preceding terminal cuteness have to do with GAY MORNING AMERICA? Everything!

In February of 1984, "a bunch of fags," namely entertainer JOHNNY SAVOY, director JIM MELLO and famed Lithuanian tap dancer GEORGE (GAYOLA) SARDI, got together, booked time on Manhattan Cable's infamous channel "J" and – with a little help from their friends – put on a show.

That show, GAY MORNING AMERICA, marked the first attempt, since FRANK O'DOWD'S late, lamented EMERALD CITY (1977), to present a regular variety show with significant, non-sexual Gay content to America at large. Where EMERALD CITY was elaborately produced and rather slick, GAY MORNING AMERICA was rough hewn, more than a little sloppy and virtually unrehearsed. GMA posessed an immediacy and tension level reminiscent of early 50's live television broadcasts (Are we on?! Is this mike working?! Can you hear me?! Testing, Testing!), and the innocence needed when you know exactly what you want to do and haven't the damnedest idea of how to accomplish it.

All of these faults – and they are faults – only served to make GMA the charming, bright and homey homovision it was for an all too short three seasons. What I find truly amazing about GMA is that, paradoxically, its faults were also its assets. Johnny Savoy, who co-hosted with George Sardi, usually looked as if he expected to be arrested any minute and read from his prepared announcements in the stilted, stentorian style of one who was accustomed to performing before a live audience and didn't really believe that the microphone would carry properly to all the folks out there in television land without his help and augmentation. This quality lent to GMA an air of sincerity and genuineness I find lacking in more slickly written and produced entertainments (those god-awful grinning assholes who serve as the local hosts on those PM Magazine shows, come immediately to mind). Because Savoy does not possess the artful delivery of the graduates of the Vanna White School of Television, we believed him when he spoke – because HE believed him when he spoke.

Johnny's co-host, George Sardi, has long been a living legend in and around New York City where he first gained fame as the gossip columnist for the magazine Michael's Thing. In less time than it takes to order a Harvey Wallbanger, George's face and raucous laugh became two of the three most familiar sights in the Manhattan bar scene (the third being my friend, Diamond Lil, walking up to anything vaguely manly, breathing and saying "How much for all night and do you give Green Stamps?")

Savoy and Sardi rode herd on a small and very special band of accomplices including singer/songwriter LYNN LAVNER who is so personable and clever I will even forgive her for the lyrics to GMA's theme song; JOHNNY POOL whose special chicken drink recipes have to be seen to be believed supplied most of the comedy relief, and, in fact, rescued more than one segment of GMA with his outrageous camp humor. The only touch off anything approaching sanity was supplied by the staid, understated presence of actor-director LESLIE IRONS whose reviews of the New York entertainment scene were always a welcome relief after the hysterical screechings of most other on-camera critics.

In a few short paragraphs and two pages of photos, even a writer of my vast and rare gifts cannot possibly do justice to an enterprise to which a dozen devoted and talented people gave two years of their lives to execute. Suffice it to say that GAY MORNING AMERICA was a joy and is missed and, hopefully someone will come along and gather the best of this talented crew together for another series (ominous rumbling can be heard in the background) of GAY MORNING AMERICA, until then, those of us who are lucky enough to have video tapes of the shows can watch what was and dream about what could be.

In closing, let me reiterate the life motto of famed silent screen putz Don Lockwood, "Dignity, always dignity."

BUDDY BALL
GAY BOOK OF DAYS

CHRIS NOLL

BY GLENN M. TURNER

In the late 70's, a pretty red-neck boy with a beautiful cum-sucking asshole and a cock of heroic proportions first stroked himself to stardom. His name was KIP NOLL. The people who handled the overgrown tyke saw that they had a good thing, for Kip's popularity grew boundlessly with every load of semen he splashed on bookstore movie booth screens. The producers of those films would also have us believe that every load of semen produced another Noll brother (but without the all important "K"), for soon there were more fucking Nolls than you could shake a model release form at. Bob, Marc, Scott, Tom, Dick & Harry Noll frolicked & gamboled their way to cinema oblivion on Kip's coat tails. I half expected a Black or Chinese Noll brother to pop out of nowhere & appear in a musical film with the dancing Noll Sisters, but either good taste or a lack of imagination kept the vultures from going too far into the land of make-believe with all this Nolling.

Imagine my surprise when, while visiting the old Taft Hotel in Manhattan to see how many times I could get fucked in one weekend, I was introduced to Chris, whom I already knew to be the real half-brother of Kip Noll.

Chrisey wanted wanted to be a star, but at that time no one in the business was overly interested in another Noll brother, even a genuine one, so it wasn't until about a year later that Chris and I got together in San Francisco to do the shots you see here. Since then, Chris has appeared in the film INPUT and is currently touring around appearing live on stage (as we go to press he is about to make his NYC debut at The SHOW PALACE).

IF FOR ANY REASON IT BOUNCES & WE FIND THE ADDRESS WAS CORRECT WE WILL RETURN THE LETTER TO YOU WITH A CREDIT SLIP.

NOTES: All kidding aside, don't lie about yourself, & especially don't send phony pictures. You can't hope to start any kind of relationship with lies. When he meets you in person he's bound to notice! Remember, what you like least about your bod might be what turns him on the most!

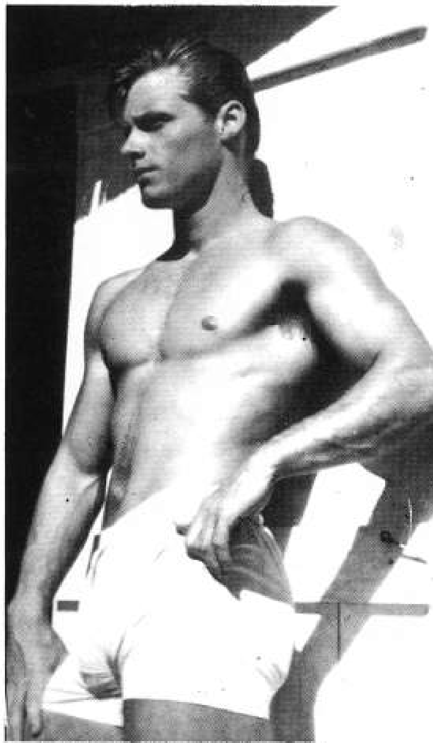
The Untold Story

BY GLENN M. TURNER



The year was 1955. Dwight David Eisenhower was finishing up the second of what would be eight catatonic years in the White House. Two-tone painted Chevies and Pontiacs were the ultimately cool cars of the moment. Peggy Sue was all dressed up in Chantilly lace and dancing to LaBamba while in New York City, the seed of what would eventually become the legendary CHAMPION Studio was being planted as a gifted photographer/architect and four handsome college athletes in sheer bikini briefs inaugurated TAKE ONE STUDIO.

Back during the Jock strap and Jockeys era, when the male physique photo business was just beginning to roll, many of the biggest names of the past ten years got their fledgling start by submitting samples of their work to such magazines as The Grecian Guild Pictorial, Vim, Trim, MANual and the Joe Weider body building magazines. The publishers gave advertising space to the studios in lieu of cash payments for the right to publish the photos. Using this version of the old barter system, young studios like TAKE ONE began to flourish through the sale of sets of 4-by-6 inch, black and white photo sets.

In 1960, after a legal hassle caused by a jealous queen, TAKE ONE STUDIO reorganized as CHAMPION. Photos of the incredible Jim Stryker caused the CHAMPION name to become one of the most well known in the business. Stryker's masculine beauty (not a contradiction in terms despite the protestations of some closety old queens who would prefer to think of their idols in strictly 'straight' terms) was displayed to great advantage in the aforementioned Weider Body Culture publications such as Young Physique and Demi-Gods which were the first in the field to feature relatively sophisticated art direction and costly color printing which made the striking blonde beauty of Jim Stryker jump off the printed page.

By the time CHAMPION made a legend of Stryker the male physique business had gone through some growing pains. The emphasis in the mostly mail order business went from black and white photo sets to glossy, full color photo and transparency sets. The smaller and less daring of the studios were left in the dust of studios like CHAMPION and the house that Stryker built was eventually to employ more than a dozen pea time to service a mailing list which contained well over 22,000 names and addresses. During a peak period in the mid-sixties CHAMPION was immortalising an average of two beautiful men a week. A staggering amount of beef, even by today's standards, during these formative years of what was to become the giant that is the male porno industry.

During the reign of Jim Stryker, CHAMPION released the first of many full sized magazines. BIG was also one of the first magazines to feature models in posing garments so sheer that you could trace the dorsal vein of a cock or even count the pubic hairs on a man's crotch. BIG ignited new legal problems for CHAMPION but, after spending a fortune in legal fees, were handed a favorable decision by the court which ruled, in essence, that regardless of what the reader may think he sees, an effort has been made to adequately cover the genital areas of the models. While not a landmark decision by any means, this litigation helped start the assault which eventually broke the legal barriers blocking publication of full frontal nude photographs.

PHOTOS: COPYRIGHT © 1986 CHAMPION

During the early seventies, the vast proliferation of male nudie magazines, and hard-core books and publications by the gross, began to eat into the profits of the old, established studios, CHAMPION included. After all, why shell out seven or eight bucks for a set of five or six photos, when for $5.00 you could buy a 48 page magazine crammed with them? After a couple of years when CHAMPION was virtually dormant, the vagaries of fickle public taste shifted again so that CHAMPION was recalled to life. The physique work, like fine wine, had aged to become classic Gay art. What once brought the police, attempting to enforce obscene laws only the demented could write, now brought fans & long overdue recognition. Alas one can die in poverty even while one's work is valued. Today's reality is that studios have been & are being killed off by the big porn outfits who wouldn't know art if Leonardo da Vinci hit them over the head with it. Their exclusive interest in money has turned the art of erotica into sleazy, poor quality), overpriced porn that is neither hot nor erotic. CHAMPION has lost its heart while the rest of us lose the contents of our stomachs. If studios like CHAMPION are killed off, great erotica will be a thing of the past.

Dr. Donn DuVall ....

Dear Donn DuVall;

I am always reading things about AIDS. Every time I pick up a magazine I see something about AIDS, but everyone seems to say different things about the way you get it and I am almost afraid to have sex because of AIDS. Can you sort of put all the stuff together and tell me how it starts and how I can keep from getting it? I don't want to not have sex but I don't want to die before I am supposed to either. Can you help set me right on AIDS?

Barry L.
Boca Raton, FL

Dear Barry;

AIDS is the most dangerous disease to hit humanity in centuries. It is also the tool being used to foster the greatest hate and fear campaign since Hitler started making jewbiscuits during the heyday of the Third Reich.

The simple fact of the matter is that medical science, with all its research and learning, knows virtually nothing about the origins of the disease and even less about its spread through the population.

AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) knocks out the natural defences of the body, leaving the victim open to all kinds of infections that normally would be shaken off without much difficulty.

The AIDS virus, it appears, must enter the blood in order to attack the body. It can get there during sexual activities involving what has come to be known as "the exchange of bodily fluids." If it is present in semen, it can enter through any tiny cut of abrasion in the mouth or throat or anal tract; it may even be able to penetrate the undamaged mucous linings of those organs. If you must engage in oral or anal intercourse, use of condoms is STRONGLY urged! It may also be transmitted via saliva in deep kissing. It cannot be passed from one person to another by casual contact: health care workers and others caring for AIDS patients on a daily basis without sexual connection do not seem to be at risk.

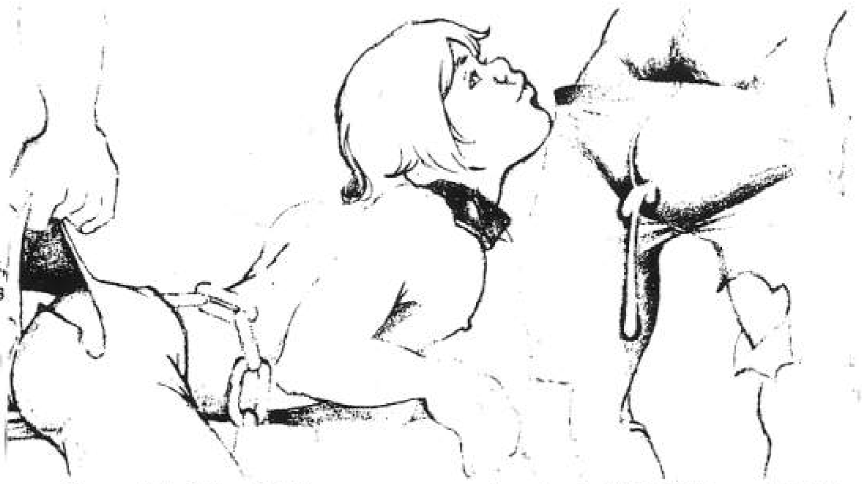
While AIDS can be transmitted sexually, that is NOT the only way to get it! Probably even more of a risk is the use of intravenous drugs (those shot directly into the blood stream) with a hypodermic needle that is not new and sterile. If you are crazy enough to be using heroin or other "shoot-up" drugs, for your own sake DON'T SHARE A NEEDLE!

It probably doesn't help your chances of avoiding AIDS to be constantly snorting poppers during sex and on the dance floor. Poppers are a killer; while they are in your system, they cancel the immune system out. And your resistance is lowered by getting drunk night after night and not filling your body with the nourishing food it needs to fuel your system with the vitamins and minerals required to keep your immune system healthy.

There is no foolproof protection from AIDS, but if you wish to be as safe from this harm as you possibly can, then you must get proper rest, eat properly, refrain from careless use of recreational drugs, and drink, if at all, in moderation. Couple this advice with the warning that you must be careful in your sexual practices with other people and you will have done all that you can do, with what we know right now, to protect yourself from the evil scourge that is AIDS.

You can get more information and medical referrals by calling The National Gay/Lesbian Crisis Line toll-free at 800-221-7044 (in New York, Alaska & Hawaii 212-529-1604).

Toby



During the mid-sixties, the bleached blond, beautifully built, eighteen-year-old dream boy was epitomised by the "TOBY" boy. The sweet-faced, bubble-butted, big-dicked boy studs with the thick calves, big hands and bulging baskets jumped off the pages of virtually every early Gay publication, most prominently the pre-Goodstein, pre-est-hole ADVOCATE. The TOBY drawings distilled the basic desires of virtually every homoerotically oriented person, whatever his stated physical preference might have been. Whether you liked Blacks, Hispanics, chubbies, leather hairballs or drag queens, you had to admit that there was something compellingly alluring about the pouty, pink perfection displayed in each drawing.

The artist, Toby Bluth, was never really as prolific as you might believe. During his heyday, as many as 26 ads in a single issue of the ADVOCATE featured Toby drawings. One erotic magazine, THE NEW DUDES, featured private drawings of the Toby boys doing things with urine while dressed as cowboys & Native Americans, & even featured a photographic model layout of a sinewy blond studlet who was the image of the classic "TOBY" boy. All this plus a Toby designed production of Shakespere's AS YOU LIKE IT and a major feature bio in AFTER DARK, comprise virtually the entire Toby Boy output & all appeared during one four-year period.

I am not holding my breath waiting for a new flood of hitherto undiscovered treasures, but it would be so nice to go to the mailbox one day and find an "I hear you have been looking for me" letter with that familiar signature at the bottom. Dream on! Anyway, for those of you who, like myself, can always use a fresh Toby fix, I present this layout of unusually explicit Tobys which were clipped from an obscure erotic mag with no cover, some 10-12 years ago.

I don't claim to be the last word on Toby and if anyone out there has Toby drawings, from any source or period in time, that they would be willing to share, you can write me here at the Man-Age Press/OUTCOME office.

Any material sent through the mail will be returned in as perfect a condition as it arrives and will definitely be purchased if the price is even remotely reasonable.
